Lou Anna Beyer Crowned 1945-46 Basketball Queen

On the night of November 6, about 800 people crowded our gym to witness the crowning of the 1945-46 basketball queen. It was the largest crowd that had been in the gym for years. The stage was beautifully decorated with the queen's throne and the chairs of the attendants. The color scheme was purple, gold, and white.

The music was presented by Mrs. Wickliffe. The program started with the basketball boys and cheer leaders running out on the floor from opposite directions and meeting at the steps to the stage. Meyerbeer's Coronation March was played while the queen and her attendants marched in.

Aimee Warner led the procession. She wore a white satin floor length gown with a high necked bolero that buttoned up the front. Betty Hopkins, who wore a pink satin gown with a tight bodice and sweetheart neckline and full skirt. She carried carnations and chrysanthemums. Next came Norma Reber who was second in the queen skirt and carried pastel carnations. After her came Lou Mack Andrus from Mrs. Meyer's second grade. He carried a purple pillow bearing a gold sequined crown. Following him were Betty Sue Alderson carrying white baskets decorated with purple ribbons and dropped chrysanthemums in the path of the queen, Lou Anna Beyer. Lou Anna, a very lovely and graceful queen, wore a black gown with a lace bodice and taffeta skirt with gold sequin designs at top of the skirt. Her bouquet was white carnations.

When the queen and her attendants reached their places the cheer leaders, Mayme Sue Vanvactor, Shirley Downing, Donna Baker, B. B. Hook and Martha Rushing, led the crowd in the Loyalty Song. The captain of our team, John Bob Padgitt, placed the crown on her head and handed her the basketball. The 1945-46 season was opened by the queen throwing the ball to our captain and wishing them lots of luck. They demonstrated they had plenty of the same by winning the game with Symsonia that followed, by a score of 31-20.

Friendship Important

We need friends more than anything in life, but to gain a friend, you must first prove yourself a friend. To be a friend you must interest yourself in someone else. It is only as we enrich the lives of others that their friendships enrich our own in return.

Junior Class Presents 'The Kissing Link'

The Junior Class presented a play entitled, "The Kissing Link," Tuesday evening, November 20 in the school auditorium.

The large crowd, which attended, thoroughly enjoyed every moment of the play. Every one was in great suspense wondering who Penny was going to osculate next, if Lynda would marry T. Jasper or if Johnny would find a way to make her love him.

X. Y. Zilch created quite a scene trying to find who stole Miss Wetherill's fifteen hundred dollar ring, and especially when he accused Susan the cook, of taking it. The cook quit and Alicia Link, the one to whom the house belonged, was in quite a predicament trying to do the housework which would usually have been left up to Penny until she got redone from front to rear bumper and became quite glamorous. She and Peter became gloriously in love and finally got the consent of his Aunt Winona Wetherill to get married.

Aunt Ada from Nevada was quite a character with her breezy western ways and her fourth husband to-be, Godfrey Gayheart, who was an ex-movie star, became quite a romantic person himself.

The cast is as follows:
 Penny—Mayme Sue Vanvactor.
 Peter—James Lee McLeod.
 Lynda—Anna Faye Koch.
 Johnny—Paul Snelling.
 X. Y. Zilch—Donald Parker.
 T. Jasper Jelks—Bobby Anderson.

Senior Party Planned

In regard to the magazine drive, the seniors played an important part. The two captains, Amelia White and Emma Duncan, chose equal teams in order to arouse interest in the drive. It was decided that the losing team would give the winning team a party.

The quota of the senior class was only $86.24, but those "energetic" seniors went over their goal with $100.50. After much hard work and close competition, Duncan's team is planning a swell party for the winners.

Keep your ear tuned for announcement of the time and place. You'll be hearing from us soon after the Thanksgiving Holidays.

Should We Chloroform?

Teachers who expect you to know your lessons every day.

Those who pass by in an empty car on a rainy day and merely wave.

Those who mind everyone's business but their own.

People who borrow and never return.

Lone Oak went to Heath for an all-important game. The two schools have been rivals for years. This is the first game either of the schools have walked off with the game. They usually have a scramble. Roy Pate didn't get worried until the second quarter. The score was 40 to 26:

Lone Oak	Heath
Rushing 10 . . . . . F . . . . .	Boyd
Anderson 4 . . . . . F . . . . .	Record 3

Thanksgiving

Leon Rudolph
8th Grade

The Pilgrims set aside a day as Thanksgiving,
To give thanks to God that they had received a living,
Through all the hardships they had
to bear,
And with the few clothes they had
to wear.
The Indians came to stay,
And listen to the Pilgrims pray,
Then when the prayers were over
and done,
Every one started eating, the feast
had begun.
Of all the good things they had to eat
The turkey and cranberries couldn't be beat.
And still on Thanksgiving Day,
We are thankful as we pray,
That our boys are coming home,
No more the foreign countries to roam,
Returning to their loved ones fair
and true,
Who during their absence have been so blue,
So let us not forget to pray,
On this, and every Thanksgiving Day.

Armistice Day

At eleven o'clock on the morning of November 11, 1918, the deafening roar of great cannons, the hum of rifle bullets and the continuous rattling of the machine guns suddenly ceased for the first time in more than four years. One minute after that hour there was death-like quietness all over the scene. Yes, the Armistice with Germany, which had been signed early that morning had gone into effect.

Our celebration of Armistice Day in L.O.H.S. was very quiet. Mostly because we are still concerned about our boys who are still over there serving as occupational troops of World War II.

Since there are two Armistice Days different dates ending World War I and World II, some have suggested that we decide on a definite date
and celebrate our victory in World Wars I and II at a worthy celebration and remember it reverently.

Is Eugene Kaler really going to marry soon? That's what we heard last summer, but somehow it didn't happen.

Harvest Time

With the thought of November, and Thanksgiving, comes a feeling of gratefulness for all the manifold blessings of the year. There is the thought of the ripening grain, of the trees bending under their weight of fruits, of corn, gathered in stacks
like little tepees, of yellow pumpkins
scattered here and there about them,
and over all the glory of the harvest-moon, softly radiant like the smile of God on His handiwork. With these thoughts we are reminded of the harvest of the past year. It is true, that to some of us the falling leaves and fading flowers, bring a touch of sadness; yet this should not be. Every month has its own place, and is beautiful in its own way. Having plowed, sowed, and tilled, let us rejoice in the harvest, remembering that there is sure to be another seedtime, and that there is nothing in this wonderful world to be sorry about.

Let us remember too, that every month, every day, brings its harvest.
We do not always think of this, but it is true. As we sow in thought and word and deed, so shall we reap.
If we desire friends, we must be friendly. If we feel the need of encouragement, we must encourage others. But the thing for us to do, even though we may not understand how the nettles got into our own flower-garden, is to mind well our own seed-sowing, living as best we can, forgetting failures and failings and rejoicing over the hopes and plans for others as well as ourselves.

On this particular Thanksgiving
Day, let us be grateful for the successes we have had, for the memories
that we treasure, for the opportunity to profit by the mistakes we have made, and for the day of renewed endeavor that will dawn for us tomorrow. For some of us the family circle will be smaller this year, a leaf will be taken from the table,
an extra chair will be left against the wall, but there will remain like a blessing, the knowledge that the plan that embraces the buttercups and stars will re-unite the circle when its purpose has been served.

"I sure am glad I wasn't King Solomon," said Bob Baldwin.
"Why?" questioned Don Parker.
"Huh," added Bob, "keeping up with one woman is enough to keep me
plenty busy."

Lone Oak Makes Plans For New Gymnasium

A meeting was held Tuesday night,
November 13, at Lone Oak to discuss the possibilities of erecting a new gym. Approximately 200 persons attended the meeting.

The building proposal was endorsed by John T. Warren, the only member of the McCracken county board of education who attended the meeting, and by patrons of the school and representatives of the student body. There was no opposition to the building proposal expressed at the meeting.

Inadequacy of all school facilities came under the points discussed by our principal, Mr. Lynch. He stated that the school was equipped to take care of 400 students while this year there is an enrollment of 750.

The gathering shouted approval of a motion to apply $2,000 of the school's treasury fund to the erection of the proposed building.

A committee of eight men was elected to determine what type of building should be erected and to present their recommendations to the school board at its next meeting which will be November 21.

The committee is composed of Rev.
B. R. Winchester, chairman; Lee Puryear, Randolph Gore, James
Houser, Charles Wickliffe, James
Lynch, J. P. Sanderson and Garvis Douglas.

Talks made at the meeting concerning plans of the new building
were made by Homer Holland, R.
W. Padgett, J. P. Sanderson, James
Houser, Harry Ross and the Rev.
B. R. Winchester. Two members of the student body also made talks.
They were Jean Puckett and Nolan
Allen.

IMAGINE WHEN . . .

Boys were as plentiful as water.
Teachers kept switches standing in all four corners of the school room.
Naughty boys had to hold their toes for punishment.

People who wanted to park, had to get out and tie the horse up.

Nice looking grown girls wore pigtails.

Grown boys drug out their long-handles every winter.

School buses were just a dream.
Young men attended quilting-bees.

"Lindy Peyton knew," "Marian Sanderson didn't know." Accentuate
the Positive.

When it was a disgrace for a girl
to pass a travan.

When the prize joke was why does a chicken cross the road. Now she does to get away from the wolves chasing her.

When it was a disgrace for a girl's ankles to show.

Marilyn Knarr has been told that Jimmy Perdue came to the Lone Oak-Symsonia basketball game with another "Marilyn". How about it, Jimmy?

Grin And Bear It

A fat lady stepped on the scales,
not knowing they were out of order,
and put in a penny. The scales went up to 57 pounds and stopped. Glen Yates, who was standing nearby,
noticed the situation. "My gosh,"
he cried, "she's hollow."

Sammy Newton: "We're going to have a swell time tonight, Lambie-Pie, I've got three tickets for the movies!" "Three—why three?"
questioned Margaret Rein. "Well,"
said Sammy, "one is for your father,
one for your mother, and one for your kid brother."

Mrs. Hicks: "Billy, what did you have for breakfast?"

Billy Rushing: "Teacher, I et six eggs."

Mrs. Hicks: "Why, Billy! You should say 'ate!'"

Billy Rushing: "Well, maybe it was eight I et."

An urchin was having a hard time at the super market trying to read an order her aunt had written.
The clerk, Thomas Adams, volunteered to read it for her, but she was reluctant. Finally he persuaded her to give him the note, and he was astonished to read: "Get 10
seasoning bacon, 2 lbs. green beans,
and grab an onion."

James Claypool was griping to Mrs.
Alderson because he couldn't see why people weren't born with more fingers. "Gosh," he complained. "I sure get mighty tired taking off my shoes everytime I have to count up to 20."

Jeanne Carroll: "What's wrong with the sailor asking you if you can dance?"

Myrian Doom: "I was dancing
with him when he asked me."

John Bob Padgett, at a restaurant:
"Waiter, this plate is wet."

Waiter: "That's your soup, sir."

Roy Pate: "Isn't that a terrible picture of me? I look like a monkey."

Norma: "You should have thought of that before you had it taken."

An employment manager looked over the reference of Paul Snelling
and said, "I'm afraid you're wrong for this job. We want a single man."

"Hey, wait a minute," yelled Paul.
"When I applied yesterday you said
you wanted a married man."

"I'm sorry, must be a mistake."

"Mistake!" groaned Paul. "What am I going to do? I went right out and got married."

Shirley Houston had just met a young man whom she admired. She told Loraine Winn, "I met the most wonderful man."

Loraine Winn: "Is he my type?"

Shirley Houston: "I guess so, he's alive and breathing."

Exchange Column

He who tries his hand at something and fails might try using his head sometimes.

People are like steel, of little value when they lose their temper.

A Baker's Letter to His Sweetheart
Dear Sweet Tart:

You're WAFFLE cute and you're ROLL the world to me. I'm a WELL-BREAD young chap and that's a good RAISIN why you should marry me when I raise the DOUGH. Be my BATTER half and everything will PAN out all right. ICING your praises day and night because I LOAF you. DOUGH NUT refuse me, HONEY BUN, for you are the FLOUR of my EGG STENCY.

Yours L'OVEN
BUN D'CAN ROLL.

Good News: We will have only one-half day of school Tuesday.

Oh, yes, the other half comes Tuesday afternoon.

RECONVERSION

No longer pleasant days of rest,
No loafing in the sun;
Instead there is that English test,
That homework to be done.
The hours of swimming all are the past;

Tennis over, too,
There are only thoughts of typing;
Or Algebra to do.

Those gay, carefree days are gone;
They're gone forever, it seems
Once more the life of history books,
Reports, exams, and themes.

What the world needs is a shortage of long faces. Happiness is not the end of life, character is. Never miss the opportunity to make some one happy—even if you have to let him alone to do it.

God visits us often, but most of the time we are not at home.

Freshman Class News

We got off to a grand start and are still keeping it up. So far this year we have gained two new members and have lost none.

We have had several special activities and plan to have more. Plans have been made for our Chapel program and we are now working on it. It will be given on November 30.

B. B. Hook was selected to serve as cheer-leader for our class. We are proud of him because we know he really is a good one.

Two other class members of whom we are proud are Jimmy and Billie Rushing. They are both on our ball team and you know for yourself their ability to play ball.

We are also represented in many of the other school activities. We have several members in the Junior Girls' Chorus and also have members in the Junior Trio.

Case-Bennett Wedding Held at East Baptist Sophomore Class News

The altar of East Baptist church was decorated with massed greenery and baskets of white chrysanthemums for the wedding Wednesday evening, November 7, of Miss Naurine Case, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl M. Case of Sumner, Ill., and Sgt. Walter J. Bennett, U. S. Army, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Bennett, Homewood avenue. Lighted tapers in tiered candelabra, and graduated candles in the windows lighted the scene.

Rev. W. T. Pepper, Jr., pastor of First Baptist Grace Mission and brother-in-law of the groom, read the double ring ceremony at 8 o'clock before a large assemblage of friends and relatives.

The nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Charles Wickliffe, pianist, and Miss Barbara Baldree, soloist. Mrs. Wickliffe's selections were "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life" (Herbert), "Because" (D'Hardelot), "O Promise Me" (DeKoven), "At Dawning" (Cadman), and "Always," which was used during the pledging of the vows. Miss Baldree's songs were "I Love You Truly" (Bond) and "Til the End of Time" (Chopin—arr. by Martin). The Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches were played for the processional and recessional.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Bennett, sister of the groom, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Mary Case and Miss Katherine Case, sisters of the bride. Judy Ann Pepper and Judy Sue Bennett, small nieces of the groom were flower girls, wearing blue net and pink net respectively, posed over matching satin. They carried small colonial bouquets and wore rosebuds in their hair.

S/Sgt. Charles Gholson, Jr., served as best man, and the ushers were

T/Sgt. Hayden Bloodworth and Sgt. Jewell Feagin.

The bride's gown of white satin was fashioned along simple lines, with a draped neckline, long tapered sleeves, close fitting bodice and a full skirt which swept into a train. She wore a Juliet cap with an intricate design of tiny seed pearls, to which was attached two separate circular veils. One was knee length, and the other, fingertip length with a combination blusher. The blusher, when worn back, formed a four-tiered veil, all of which was entirely hand rolled.

Immediately following the ceremony, Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Pepper, Jr., sister of the groom and his parents, were hosts at a reception at their home, 2417 Bridge street, honoring the bridal couple and members of the wedding party.

Sgt. and Mrs. Bennett left for Atlanta, Ga., where he will receive his discharge, after which they will go to Miami, Fla., for a honeymoon. Later, they will locate in New Orleans, La., where they both will attend Tulane university. Mrs. Bennett will work on her master's degree and Sgt. Bennett will enroll in the school of civil engineering.

For traveling, the bride wore an aqua wool Dorsa original with a multi-colored belt, brown accessories, and a corsage of gardenias. She wore a mink coat, gift of the groom.

The former Miss Case is a graduate of Illinois State university and the Universal Business Institute of Kansas City, Mo. She has served as assistant principal of Lone Oak high school.

Sgt. Bennett graduated from Tilghman high school. He was overseas two years, serving with the 12th Air Force in the ETO.

Our class is happy to have the largest percentage of students attending church. We are very proud of the picture of our Christ which we received. We are striving to keep our percentage the highest this month so we can keep the picture.

We are proud of Norma Reber, our candidate for basketball queen. We worked hard and held several special activities to get money for her. The sophomores are proud to have Norma represent our class by achieving second place in the contest.

Congratulations: Rev. C. O. Turner is now the father of two fine boys. One is almost two years old and the other was born November 17, of this year. We wish them both the best of luck and happiness throughout life.

The class was very happy to have Henry Kuzuoka visit with us. He is an American-born Japanese. He attended Midwest school and played football in Midwest, Wyoming. He did ranch work until he entered the army in 1944. He was recently discharged and has re-enlisted in the air corps.

We were sorry to lose one of our members, Russell Taylor. Russell will attend school in Los Angeles, California. We have gained a new member, Maurice Ward, who was discharged from the navy in October. Bob McMahon has also left our class to join his parents in Seattle, Washington.

Our class is proud to be well represented in the athletic program. We have four boys playing on the basketball team and one girl on the pep squad. We think they are doing grand and we are backing them with all our heart. Let's try and make this a great and successful year at dear old Lone Oak High School.

GRADE REPORT

First Grade

Mrs. Lamm's first grade has enjoyed watching the beautiful leaves tumble to Mother Earth in their colors.

They presented the following program in chapel last week: (1) Morning Exercise, (2) Welcome—Margaret Rose Ward, (3) Ten Yellow Pumpkins, (4) Play, "Autumn Leaves", (5) Dramatization—Three Goats Gruff, (6) Goodbye—Bobby Dowell.

They are very proud of their rock garden.

Mrs. Ray's first grade is working diligently and hard on clay work. They have two new pupils: Sue Dinkerson, from Hampton, Kentucky and Mary Shubert, of Missouri.

Those on the Honor Roll were Joan Smith and James Walker.

Second Grade

Mrs. Myers' second grade has an enrollment of 46. Three pupils have withdrawn.

Ann Hurt and LaNoka Overstreet are at home for about three weeks having a whooping good time.

Practice has started on a chapel program, which will be December 6. The program is an operetta entitled, "Naughty Little Peter."

Second and Third Grades

Mrs. Riddick's second and third grades have been enjoying the stories in their new readers. The Sunday school attendance for the second month was unusually good—73%.

One new pupil, Elgie Morrison, started to school this month. The work, in general, was a great improvement over the previous month. We have enjoyed the nice fair weather and being able to play outside at recess.

Third Grade

Miss Catherine Peeples, a former teacher of Lone Oak, who for the past three and one-half years has been employed by the Navy Department, is the new teacher of the third grade.

Mrs. Page, the former teacher of the third grade, has visited their room.

One new pupil, Lawanda Prince from Longfellow, has enrolled in our third grade, making the enrollment reach 40.

Fourth Grade

Mrs. Futrell's fourth grade have two new pupils, Peggy Joe Hackley from Tennessee, and Shirley Ann Lynch from Illinois. There are now 41.

The following were on the Honor Roll for the second month: Linda Stephenson, Sue Gish, Patsy Hines, Alton Yates, and Russell Harper.

Mrs. Thurmond's Fourth grade has completed a study of wild flowers and even though Jack Frost has killed the ones outside, our bulletin board is a riot of color. Each pupil has drawn and colored their favorite wild flower and posted it on the board.

We continue to increase in number, our last new pupil formerly attended Concord school.

We have had a test of all the words we have had so far in spelling and 16 pupils made 100.

We are proud to say that every pupil in our room drinks a bottle of milk with their lunch every day. About 80% of our grade eat in the cafeteria and we want to express our appreciation to Mrs. Holland for the nice hot lunches she and her helpers serve us.

Fifth Grade

Mrs. DuLaney's fifth grade have had a project for the month of "Foods." Mrs. Hurt, the Home Economics teacher, visited our room and made an interesting talk on foods we should eat each day. They made lunch menus which were submitted to Mrs. Holland for practical use. A visit was made to the Lone Oak Cannery. They were canning beef and pork and beans. Mrs. Hines explained to us the different processes of canning and also the dehydrator. We hope we will be healthier boys and girls because of the study of foods.

Our room is grateful to Donald Hill, Billy Houser and Carol Bazzell for our aquarium, although our fish had a short life. The following poem was written in honor of the gold fish which was written by Andra Harper.

"Ode to Our Goldfish"

We had a goldfish so big and strong,
And though he didn't know what was wrong,
He went up along the Glory Road,
And that is why I am writing this ode.
Oh, his poor little wife,
She leads such a sad life,
She swims sadly alone
Where he is, that to her is unknown.

Those on the Honor Roll for the second month are as follows: Andra Harper, Patsy Pippin, Claudette Sturm, Patty Ross, Patsy Gish, Walter Joe Rein, Tommy Osborne, Alton Herndon and Richard Knarr.

Sixth Grade

Mrs. Lynch's sixth grade has been very busy in contests and other school work. A penmanship contest was won by Joanne Chalker and Sonny Hubbs. Winners of a Map Drawing contest were Ruth Douglas, Charles Holland and Bobby Knight. Winners of a Halloween Poem contest were won by Charles Douglas and Ruth Douglas. A winner of an Indian Letter contest was won by Charles Douglas.

Ruth Douglas's Halloween Poem is written below.

Sixth and Seventh Grades

Mrs. Wells' sixth and seventh grades haven't been doing any social activities this month to mention, except the girls have organized a basketball team. Marlene Brannon was chosen captain. We have also been doing some clay modeling. Excellent results were received for it. The best clay modeling will be on exhibit soon.

Seventh Grade

Mrs. Knarr's seventh grade has chosen a basketball team. The members are Captain Carney Allen, Harold Rogers, Bobby Harton, Jack Tucker, Richard Doyle, James Clark, Harold Sturm and Donald Brown. The cheer-leaders are Sue Nall, Ann Morris, Joan Barksdale and Delores Owen.

The class is working on Marionettes. They have seven made. Their chapel program will be composed partly of a "Puppet Show."

The ball team for the sixth grade has been selected as follows: Captain, Sonny Hubbs; Larry Shelton, Bobby Knight, Charles Holland, Charles Douglas, Bill Gore, Billy Thompson, Oliver Yates, Pat Ward, and Tommy Stevenson. The coach is Warren Hicks. The cheer-leaders have also been selected from the sixth grade. They are Betty Ross, Ann Padgitt, and Sue Lynch.

They won $1.00 from the P.-T.A. on Dad's Night for the most parents present. Another poem written for the Halloween contest was submitted by Charles Douglas.
