DEDICATION

MR. JOHN E. ROBINSON

In recognition of his incalculable contribution to the life of our school, both as a man and a principal, and for his ever-ready cooperation with the class of '48, to him we dedicate this annual.

MRS ELIZABETH SANDERSON

Mrs. Sanderson, familiarly known to the class of 1948 as "Lib", has been a member of the high school faculty since mid-semester of 1946. She teaches history and journalism and is sponsor of the Senior class. She helped the annual staff with this, their 1948 annual, and directed the efforts of the Oak "K" staff in publishing their popular and successful school newspaper.

History of the Class of 1948

This, our history, is not unlike the history of other classes; yet to us who are graduating, it has a special significance. In its reading, may each member of the class recall pleasant incidents that have gone into the shaping this history, and may those non-members of the class who happen upon it recall pleasant memories of their own school days.

Most of us entered Lone Oak High School in 1944 as Freshmen, with Mrs. Euna Mae Hicks as our sponsor. On our first registration day we were 62 in number. Of these, with the newcomers to our class, there are 59 graduating—the largest graduating class in the history of our school. During our first year, Nolen Allen was our president, Joyce Word vice-president and Beverly Hines our secretary-treasurer.

When we became Sophomores with Mrs. Arnes Alderson our sponsor, we chose Beverly Hines for our president, Joyce Word our vice-president and Shirley Downing our secretary-treasurer.

During 1946-47 we were Juniors, and quite busy ones too. We presented "Out of This World", a very successful play. With the proceeds of the play we entertained the Seniors with a carefully planned banquet, very capably presided over by our president, Nolen Allen, in the ballroom of the Ritz Hotel. Our vice-president was Norma Reber, Bobby Hunt our secretary and Margaret Rein our treasurer. Mrs. Florence Reynolds was our Junior sponsor.

This year, our Senior year, saw Mrs. Elizabeth Sanderson capably and enthusiastically sponsor our class. It saw us working diligently to finance our road trip, a trip too wonderful to ever forget. This year found us the guests of the Juniors at a lovely banquet at the Ritz Hotel. It saw our basketball team, led by Captain Nolen Allen, win the County Tournament and go to the Semi-Finals in the District Tournament. Five other Seniors played on the team, Bud Fields, Eldridge Perry, Roy Hall, Joyce Word and Fred Harned. Our Senior play, "Professor, How Could You!" was a hilarious success. This year saw us edit the Oak "K" one of the most successful school papers L. O. H. S. ever had. It saw us prepare this annual, which we hope you will enjoy as much as we enjoyed working on it. Our Senior president was Jimmie Timmons, Bobby Hunt vice-president, Mary Agnes Sellers, secretary and Chester Burnett took care of our finances.

In our four years at L. O. H. S. we have been represented in: Music, F. H. A., Basketball, F. F. A., Library Club, public speaking, Boys and Girls State, Boy and Girl Scouts, and baseball. Three members of our class, Nolen Allen, Beverly Hines, and Bud Fields have a special love for their Alma Mater, for they started here in the first grade and have been in school here every year since.

We will never forget the years of joy, sorrow, success, and failure at Lone Oak High School, or the teachers and friends here who have meant so much to us. We wish the classes who follow us all the success and happiness which we have had at L. O. H. S.

Mary Agnes Sellers, Historian.

Class Prophecy

One beautiful spring day I climbed aboard a streamliner for a long-needed vacation. I think I must have dozed for when I awoke a familiar flash of red startled me! Sure enough, it was my old classmate Marianne Pryor who had finished her training and was a stewardess on this very train. She sat and talked for a while. She told me that only last week she saw Beverly Hines, now a State Home Demonstration Agent, on her vacation and that they had dinner at Gip's Diner. While there they learned from Charles Gipson, Proprietor, that Dale Goode was still in Paducah, on his 120 acre farm and still breaking the hearts of little country girls.

As we pulled in at my station, Marianne bade me goodbye and I stepped off the train for a cup of coffee and a three-hour lay-over till my train came in. I walked into the station restaurant and there behind a mountain of popcorn bags was Ella Hansen! I learned her old threesome was completely broken up, with Betty Peck a baby-sitter and Betty Tindall a reporter for a leading newspaper.

From there I walked over to the magazine stand and bought a copy of "Life". While glancing through its pages I noticed Earlene and Ernestine Boaz had been chosen best all-around twins at the annual National Twins Convention. I turned the pages idly and found that Virginia Abell Harris' sketches and paintings were now being shown in Boston. As only a few minutes of my time remained I scampered to my train. On arriving in New York City I caught a cab and went to the smartest hotel in town, really a classy place, called Cothron's Castle. There I was about to register when I saw a familiar figure slipping around a tall potted palm. I almost screamed but discovered it was only his highness Eddie keeping his eye out for any loafers.

Eddie took me around the corner to a quiet little "jernt" and there I saw the familiar, if somewhat massive, figure of James Leigh, bartender and proprietor, and occasionally sports writer for the New York Times. James told me that some evenings, his lovely blonde cousin, Sue Leigh Rice comes over and beats out a little tune and then goes home to Glen. He also said as an added attraction (or distraction) he will feature the new swoon-boy, Roy Buchanan as vocalist.

In the lobby of Cothron's Castle was a very attractive beauty salon. A gilded sign said simply Frederick's. Deciding I needed a little fixing I went in, and there to my surprise was dear 'lil Red Timmons giving out with some of those lovely waves! Under the dryer I was glancing through the New York Times and was very surprised to see a billing at Madison Square Garden with Bud Fields as favorite. Bud was now a boxer with Barbara Graves as his trainer, sparring partner and devoted little wife.

Next day I walked around town and was awed at the Flashagon Building. This was designed by faithful Flash fan, Jimmy Kaler, in the shape of a flash of lightning. Jimmy told me that at twelve noon, daily, Martha Rudolph dives from the top of his building into a tank of Pepsi-Cola. She says this is the best way to keep a school girl figure. He also told me that he had to pay enormous telephone bills because Bobby Hunt calls every day collect because he and Martha just can't quit fussing.

On down the street I noticed the new burlesque queen is Jean Harris. She came out of her shell with a bang and just loves bubble-dancing.

When I boarded a plane for Miami I found Mary Agnes Sellers in the seat next to me. Mary Agnes was on a tour of the 48 states, having just been chosen "Miss Tomato Juice" for 1958. She told me her old pal, Mary Katherine Ross, was running a day nursery for twins and triplets only.

At Miami, vacation season was in full swing. On the beach my first day a pleasant surprise was in store for me, for I met Marie and Gene Ragland and little Vicky Gene all in yellow bathing suits. They told me Chester Burnett and Gene Anderson were in the tire business together. (Chester keeping the books no doubt). Chester and Gene are experimenting with a machine that will roll along the highway and draw up all the rubber that has worn off on the roads.

Sporting a terrific tan I headed back to Kentucky. In Frankfort I stopped off to see Nolen Allen and his attractive wife, Maydie. Nolen is running for governor next year. Maydie told me Ralph Chappell gave her quite a run for her hand but at last Ralph gave up and went on an expedition to the North Pole to see if Santa Claus really lives there. Larry Bradshaw and Billy Collins went with him. They plan to stay until next winter and hitch a ride back on Santa's sleigh.

Nolen brought home the evening paper and pointed out a picture of Joyce Word who will take part in the annual Leap Frog Tournament. Later that evening there was a persistent ringing at the door and Bob Johnson arrived for a visit. Bob is Nolen's campaign manager. I took my leave that evening and journeyed on to Louisville where my old pal, Margaret Johnson is now a Registered Nurse. I spent several days with her and went on to Paducah for a visit with my family. While in Lone Oak I went out to see Yvette and Richard Lynn who are running a kennel and have some darling puppies for sale. They told me that Carl Howard had really made his voice his career and was soon to appear before the King and Queen of England in a command performance. Another who stayed in Lone Oak was Margaret Riggs who runs a book and stationery store in the thriving town of Lone Oak. Lone Oak now has a beautiful new building capable of taking care of over a thousand children (and with an immense new gym) In this lovely school, Billye Nace is in charge of the kindergarten.

Leaving my family and old friends behind I headed for the wide open spaces. Stopping in New Mexico before going out to the dude ranch I shopped for new ranch clothes. While trying to decide on a shirt, I noticed someone looking at me intently—Carolyn Graves, taking a rest from her teaching of dramatics. We went on together to the ranch where we found other old friends, Fred Harned, Eldridge Perry and Gene DeJarnett making their bread and butter giving riding lessons to city slickers. After several days of ranch life we returned to the city, Carolyn to her teaching and I on to California. While reading a California Newspaper, I learned that Frank Dunlap was running for mayor with James Claypool his campaign manager. James kisses all the babies under sixteen and Frank takes over from there.

In San Francisco I hailed a ca band do you know Russell Taylor was the cabbie. He took Jeanette with him and together they blazed a trail in the cab business with the slogan "Don't run a risk, ride with Rusty!" Russell told me that Charles Leigh was a punch board salesman. Just before I caught the train out of San Francisco someone approached and tried to sell me the Golden Gate Bridge. I recognized him as G. G. Grief still trying to make a little easy money. In no mood for bridge buying, I boarded the train and settled down with my magazines. Along the aisle came the jovial conductor and the ticket-taker was none other than J. C. Davenport. J. C. told me that James Garland now runs a "hot dog" stand in Kalamazoo and that Billy Wright was located in South America with a wild animal catching concern. J. C. moved on and I started browsing through my books. I came across an extremely clever cartoon by Bill Bell, one-time cartoonist for the Oak "K". Suddenly I heard a shuffling sound behind me and turned to see two of the greatest card sharks of the day trying to beat each other—Roy Hall and Rupert Hunter. The stewardess passed and I recognized her as petite Margaret Wrath. Margaret stopped to chat and told me that our good friend Dolores Toy was now a missionary in "darkest Africa". I began a new book, a very entertaining one written by Linda McLeod and entitled "The Busted Corpuscule". But by this time I was at the end of ride.

I took a street car that ran near my hotel. My eyes wandered to the different advertisements and immediately stopped when I saw one reading "Popular Playwright to Apper in Own Play"—namely Gene Outland, soon to appear in "OUTLANDISH", the story of his life.

That night I went to see a lady wrestler, Margaret Vaughn Mitchell, do her stuff. She said she developed a liking for wrestling during her senior year at L. O. H. S. while playing on the Senior basketball team. Margaret told me that Norma Reber Pate visited her not long ago. Norma is really busy trying to keep up with her basketball playing little "Patelettes".

Early next morning I left for home. What a vacation It will take weeks to tell Sammy all that happened.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Seniors of the class of 1948, residing in McCracken County in the State of Kentucky, do hereby make this our last will and testament.

Article I.

- To our school—we leave—that's all.
To the faculty—for their interest in our welfare—we leave many more pleasant years of guiding the class at L. O. H. S.
To the Juniors—our place of honor as dignified (?) Seniors.

Article II.

- We, Earlene and Ernestine Boaz, will and bequeath our happy days as high school twins to Nancy and Patsy Hines.
- I, Eddie Cothron, will my loud mouth to Ralph Higgins, since he is so seldom heard.
  - I, Chester Burnett, will my position as treasurer of the senior class (together with my heartfelt sympathy) to any brave soul who will accept it.
  - I, Mary Agnes Sellers, do bequeath to Miss Peeples my good luck in making a proposal. She can use it yet this Leap Year if she'll hurry.
  - I, Margaret Riggs, will my ability to type Mr. Thursten's many letters to anyone who can find his words in the dictionary.
  - I, Beverly "one point" Hines, will my position on the senior girls basketball team, to Virginia Elliott.
  - I, Marianne Pryor, will my favorite ailment, my sinus, to Mrs. North so she won't miss me next year.
  - I, Charles Leigh, will my heighth to Max Clark and Cleatis Shaffer. They can divide it.
  - I, Joyce Word, will my position on the bench, close to the coach, to Robert Hampton.
  - I, Russell Taylor, will my heavy beard to Bobby Morris.
  - I, Gene Outland, will my school spirit to Herbert Vaughn.
  - I, Barbara Graves, will my french fries for lunch to Aimee Warner, since she can't get her fill of them.
  - I, Ella Hansen, will a Life Insurance Policy to Bernice Leith so she will feel safe when riding with me.
  - I, Charles Gipson, will to Phineas Wilkins my ability to play basketball as it is very reducing.
  - I, James Leith, will my ability to go to the dentist without losing a tooth to anyone who needs an excuse for skipping school.
  - I, Bud Fields, will my two false teeth to Peggy Utley, in case she breaks hers again.
  - I, Margaret Rein, will my dirty old saddle oxfords to Mary Jane Harris if she will promise to polish them every day.
  - I, Roy Buchanan, will and bequeath to James Carlin, my naturally curly hair as his Toni won't seem to take.
  - I, Carl Howard, will my ability to sing in the quartet to Bob Morris.
  - I, Betty Tindall, will my ability to stay in a good humor with Mrs. Page to all the coming 8th graders.
  - I, Jimmie Timmons, will my heart to Peggy Galloway. (except for the one corner I broke off for Junie Reber)
  - I, Billye Nace, will my small feet to Cotton Williams. May they keep her in school when the Kennedy Kids are practicing.
  - I, Virginia Abell Harris, will my ability to marry and graduate at mid-term to Patty Owen so poor Joe won't have to wait so long.
  - I, Margaret Vaughn, will my ability to cry over my love affairs to Betty Cates.

Last Will and Testament

- I, Norma Reber Pate, will my ability to get a husband to Miss Peeples. (With Mary Agnes' legacy maybe Miss Peeples will make it, at long last.)
- I, Mary Katherine Ross, will my straight hair to Shirley Freeman if she will promise to roll it up every night.
- I, Sue Leigh, will my naturally blonde hair to those students tempted to bleach theirs.
- I, Betty Lou Peck, will my ability to "go steady" to Margie Seavers, provided she will use it.
- I, Margaret Johnson, will my quick temper and curt replies to Mary Alma Keeling and Jean Floyd, equal shares to each.
- We, J. C. Davenport, Ralph Chappell and Billy Wright, will our ability to sit through an entire year at school without saying a word to James Thompson.
- I, Delores Toy, will my ability to cry at the Lone Oak—Tilghman ball games to all Tilghman students hoping that they will need it often in the future.
- I, Bobby Hunt, do bequeath my interest in Betty Reynolds, to any boy who will believe a word she says.
- I, Marie Garrett, will to Johnnie Owings, my place on the Senior Girls team, hoping she can mop the floor as I have.
- I, Yvette Lynn, will my ability to make friends to any new student who enters L. O. H. S.
- I, Margaret Wrather, will my quiet, seriousness to Jim Ida Bradley, trusting that it will help make her a more dignified Junior.
- I, Fred Harned, will my bashful disposition to Jimmy Rushing.
- I, Carolyn Graves, will my one right cheek dimple to Mary Don Hubbs so we won't both have to go through life unbalanced.
- I, Linda McLeod, will my seat on the bus to Melva Fondaw.
- I, Sammy Newton, will my ability to get out of high school in three years to Charles Elliott.
- I, Jean Harris, will my ability to keep from talking, to Peggy Utley, not that she will ever use it.
- I, James Garland, will my curly hair to Bobby Burnett.
- I, Gene Anderson, will my interest in the Freshman girls to any Senior who can't find a girl in his own class next year.
- I, James Claypool, will my pessimistic outlook on life to Paul Thomas Keeling.
- I, Bob Johnson, will my ability to get out of class to practice basketball to Donald Utley.
- I, G. G. Grief, will my heart to Donna Grief.
- I, Nolen Allen, will my title of Mr. L. O. H. S. to the lucky guy who gets it next year.
- I, Dale Goode, leave my quietness to Charles Bell, he can use it.
- I, Rupert Hunter, will my seat in agriculture to anyone who wants it.
- We, Frank Dunlap, Billy Collins, and Lawrence Bradshaw, will our place in school to any veteran who would like to return to L. O. H. S.
- I, Martha Rudolph, will my ability to fight in the typing class to Lavon Baker.
- I, Roy Hall, will my place as sales manager for the annual to any Junior who feels industrious.
- I, Eldridge Perry, will my ability to play ball to Howard Grubbs.
- I, James Kaler, will and bequeath Bill Rushing my ability to find excuses for missing class.
- In witness, whereof, we, the class of 1948, have to this will set our hand and seal in the month of May, one thousand nine hundred and forty-eight.
- Law Firm of Carolyn Graves

Familiar Faces

OFFICE GIRLS: Among the more familiar faces seen about our school are our office girls who not only help Mr. Robinson and the faculty but each of us who have occasion to visit the office. They are: Norma Reber Pate who works second period; Beverly Hines, fifth period; Barbara Graves, first period; Margaret Riggs, fourth period; Marie Garrett, third; and Aimee Warner, sixth period.

BUS DRIVERS: Seen at the wheel of our three yellow school busses are Sammy Newton, Maurice Ward, and "Abe" Page.

MOVIE OPERATORS: A popular feature of our school is managed by Milan Sisk and Jack Phipps who run the moving picture projector. Both educational films and those shown solely for entertainment are offered to students frequently throughout the school year.

JANITORS: "Poodle and Perdew"—and what would we do without them? Homer Haup, familiarly known as "Poodle" fires our furnace and Mr. Perdew keeps our school building clean.

CAFETERIA: Serving us lunch every day are Mrs. J. F. Enderlin, Mrs. Homer Holland, Cafeteria Manager; Mrs. W. D. Perdew, and Mrs. Luco Dunlap.

LIBRARIANS: Checking our books in and out, taking care of our many magazines and always greeting us with a smile are: Anita Brannon, Rosetta Hall, Mrs. Anna Mae Page, Librarian; Clifton Courtney, Lavon Baker, Claudene Duncan, Joann Overstreet, Barbara Bolte, Jean Floyd, Frances Davenport, Peggy Galloway, Charlotte Bearden, Ida Harris, Lois Ann Charvat, James Dulaney, Mary Katherine Ross, and Babe Rushing.
