JUNIOR CLASS ENDS MAGAZINE DRIVE WITH PARTY

On Thursday night, November 20, the junior class had a party as the final part of the annual Magazine Subscription drive.

About 40 juniors played games and square-danced after the refreshment were served. Mrs. C. P. Brannon and Mrs. Marion Ward were in charge.

The class was divided into two sides, the Rebels and the Yankees. The party was paid for by the Crowell-Collier and Curtiss magazine companies and all the arrangements were made by the losing side.

The 78 juniors sold over $2,000 worth, which doubles the previous record of $1,000.

Juniors Reach Goal In Magazine Drive

During the week of October 27, the junior class reached their goal of $2,000 in the magazine drive. The class was divided into two groups with Peggy Brannon and Alton Yates as their captians.

Randall Robinson, who was leading salesman, sold $198.50 worth of subscriptions. He received a portable radio. There were six other winners who received pen and pencil sets. They were Alton Yates, Peggy Brannon, Sarah Ward, and Bob Leach. The class sold more magazines than any class in the history of the school. Miss June Robinson and Mrs. Jimmie Small the sponsors were each presented with an alarm clock. The winning side of the drive was honored with a party on November 20.

Safety Show Is Presented To Grades

Other members of the cast which demonstrated safety habits by performing on ladders, barrels, platforms and other props, were Susie, Mig, Lady, Dot, Jingles, and Annie.

Jill Hunt Places 2nd In J. C. C. Speech Contest

Jill Hunt, an outstanding senior student at Lone Oak High, ranked second in the Paducah Junior Chamber of Commerce's "I Speak for Democracy" contest. Her prize was a table model radio.

She won the award for her entry in the annual Jaycee contest, which is designed to stimulate understanding and appreciation of the democratic way of life among high school students.

Contestants entered recordings of themselves reading an original five-minute essay on the subject. Judging was weighted to give a 50 per cent value to content, 25 per cent to delivery, and 25 per cent to the impression the recording made on the listener.

Jill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Krone of Lone Oak and is active in FHA, Tri-Hy-Y, a capella choir, mixed chorus, and girls chorus. She is a member of the Lone Oak Church of Christ.

A CAPPELLA CHOIR ATTENDS MURRAY CHORAL FESTIVAL

The Lone Oak A Cappella Choir attended the Quad-State Choral Festival at Murray, Ky., November 17, 1952.

The conductor was Professor Robert Baar, from the Chicago Musical College, Chicago, Illinois. The festival was co-sponsored by the First District Educational Association and Murray State College. The choral music selected was with the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons in mind. They were: Fanfare for Christmas Day, by Shaw; While Shepherds Watched Their Sheep, Jungst; Psalm 150, Franck; Beautiful Saviour, Christiansen; There is A Balm in Gilead, Dawson; This is My Country, Jacobs; and We Wish You A Merry Christmas, Krone.

The huge high school chorus from four states rehearsed from 9:00 a. m. to 12:00 noon, then were dismissed for lunch. From 1:00 p. m. to 4:00 they rehearsed, then they attended a tea-dance and mixer, with music by one of the Murray College fraternities. The Murray A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Mr. Robert Baar, performed for the visitors. Then at 7:30 p. m. was the concert and broadcast of the Festival program.

The program was exceptionally good, because of the musical interest of the students, and of the conducting of Robert Baar.

At the concert a tape recording was made and it is being sent to the radio stations of the cities represented at the Festival. It will reach Paducah station at a later date.

We have heard that Jerry Morris can't tell a clock from a speedometer. Jerry don't you know clocks don't lose time that fast?

Nancy Watkin and Donnie Moore seem to have a crush on each other. Don't worry Nancy if Donnie doesn't talk so much at ball games, maybe he is just bashful.

It seems Patsy Pippin hasn't grown up yet, because the other day at Murray she had to buy herself a baby bottle.

Marella seems to be robbing the cradle lately. She has been going with Ludwig.

We hear Helen Harper is going steady. Is he someone we know, Helen?

Linda Stephenson seems to have a new nick-name, Glamour Girl.

Jane Dougherty says she wants to be an English teacher. We wonder if she wouldn't make a better Physical Education teacher since she has to have her orange juice everyday and can't be still a minute.

Tuesday evening, October 28, was the date for the Junior Class Halloween party.

Prizes went to Margie Walker, best dressed girl, who dressed as "Little Bo Peep." Alton Yates, best dressed boy, wore a "Hunter's" outfit, and the prize for the best dressed couple was presented to Carolyn Thorne and Randal Robinson, who chose to dress in the costume of the "Gay 90's."

Sue Carney and Tommy Beyer walked off with the prize for the "wheel barrel race." Folk games were also played.

Mmes. Marion Ward and C. P. Brannon served refreshments to the group.

LAST WILL OF A CHEATER

I, Dumb-Dora, being of unsound mind, do hereby bequeath all my hard struggles to cheat to any poor fool who thinks it will benefit him.

The last few weeks of my life as a cheater were spent toiling and racking my brain to derive ways to pass my tests without studying.

Never will I forget the day I covered my saddle shoes with cheat notes. Not only did Miss Pennyfeather discover my plan, but I had to use three allowances to buy a new pair of shoes.

Then there was the day of the fatal final in chemistry. I had spent two hours the preceding night writing notes on a chewing gum wrapper. When test time came, I the "genius" Dumb-Dora, sat down, well-prepared to take the final only to discover that my brother had mistaken my precious wrapper for rubbish and had thrown it away!

The day I asked my best friend for the answers during a history test was perhaps my undoing. My friend received a zero and I passed the test.

So, to all little morons, who feel notes on a chewing gum wrapper are better than notes in the head, I bequeath the labor and the fear, the guilt and disgrace that everyone that cheats must face.

There were two landslides on Nov. 4th. One was the Eisenhower presidency, the other was Lone Oak's second team victory over Murray Training. There is an old saying, "A team is only as good as its reserves." If that be the story, we have a good team. Carroll Kinsey led the second team with 15 points.
