Dedicatory

We, the Senior Class of 1957, dedicate this Senior Spotlight to the late Mr. Henry Chambers, who was an inspiration and guiding light through his many years as our school superintendent. Mr. Chambers will be remembered for years to come for his great work in building such a fine school system in McCracken County.

To The Senior Class of 1956-1957

You are one of the best classes that has ever graduated from Lone Oak High School. Each of you has a fine family and a wonderful background. You have been brought up in one of the best communities and best schools in our land. You have lived in a good State, and the greatest country in the world. With all these things each of you should make a great success in life. I personally, wish each of you happiness and success.

Sincerely,

JOHN ROBINSON

Appreciation

We, the Senior Class at last put into words our long-felt and sincere appreciation to our principal. Ceaseless guidance, endless patience and infinite understanding are among our debts to Mr. John Robinson.

We, the Senior Class of '57 wish to express with deepest gratitude our thanks to Mrs. Mary North for her concern for us through our difficult times, when we needed it most.

To those exasperating but beloved people, parents, we extend a most special thanks—how far would any of us have gotten without them? The progress we've made in our school life can be traced directly to our Mothers and Fathers. We're all inclined to take them rather for granted; but now we voice a resounding "Thank You!"

The Senior Class also owes a great deal to all the many teachers who helped us through the struggles of reading and writing, to our senior teachers. Through the years of the formation of our characters, our teachers have been there, a team of sculptors forming clay into usable products. We can only say "Thank You", but we mean so much more.

Our heart-felt gratitude, too, goes to the student body for their enduring loyalty and friendliness to us. Our senior year would not have been complete without your abundance of understanding and good will.

Class History

Who's lost????? Not 84 green, green freshmen. Why only last year we knew more than our teachers. But at our S.O.S. Mrs. Euna Hicks came to our rescue. She showed us that we weren't still in grade school, but we were grown up now.

We got smarter though, we elected as our class officers, Bill Ross, Faye Blankenship, Nancy Watkins, and Leon Hastings to do the dirty work for us.

Bill Ross and James Colson represented our class on the ninth grade basketball team; while Betty Sue Alderson, Dot Owen, Doris Nesler, and Peggy Travis cheered for them. James Colson also made the varsity B team this year.

After we finally learned our way around, we participated in all extra-curricula activities possible.

Oh, my stars!!!! Who are those little kids? Don't be scared, it's only we "silly sophomores". We're a little smarter this year or smark aleck one.

Our sponsor, Miss Divina Key and Mr. Tommy Harroldson, tried to keep us under hand but they soon found out it took a foot.

Bill Ross, Don Moore, Nancy Watkins and J. T. Richardson obtained the honor of being class officers.

Our class participated in Tri-Hi-Y, FHA, FFA. We'll never forget initiation day in FHA and FFA with all the funny costumes.

Our class was well represented in sports again this year. James Colson played varsity ball; while Betty Sue Alderson was varsity cheerleader. With Don Moore, Gene George, Marvin Tucker, Bill Ross, Ronnie Thompson, and Chuck Folsom on the B team.

Mischievous, well-l-l-l maybe just a little, after all we are "jolly juniors". What we say should mean something. "Wait 'til next year," said the seniors.

Mrs. Zula Edwards and Mrs. Zitell Goheen assisted us in our training by guiding us successfully through the year.

Acting, as it was proven by our junior play, "Growing Pains" came naturally for such ambitious students.

With hard work we struggled through the annual magazine drive to earn money to give the seniors a banquet. The banquet, which took place on May 11, 1956, was held at the Cobb Hotel with a French theme.

Donna Overstreet was the only girl to secure her

State FHA degree this year. Donna also was elected to serve as president in her senior year. Betty Sue Alderson and Donna attended Girls' State.

Bill Ross, with the assistance of Linda Morgan, Faye Blankenship, and Nancy Watkins was for the third straight year elected as president.

Donnie Moore, Marvin Tucker, Chuck Folsom, Ronnie Thompson, Gene George, and Cornelius Carney were members of the varsity B team. Bill Ross, James Colson, Marvin Tucker, and Don Moore aided the varsity in bringing home victories.

"You can tell a senior but you can't tell him much." This quotation just suits us. It's not that we're hard headed; we just know it all.

Bill Ross for the fourth straight year was elected president—a dictator that's what we have. As h.s comrades, we democratically chose Don Moore, Donna Overstreet, and Nancy Watkins.

The journalism-speech class won four superiors at the Murray Speech Festival with Linda Morgan, poetry; Richard Lain, expository prose; Roger Fristoe, dramatic monologue; Jerry Vincent, oratorical declamation; at the same time one excellent and two goods were awarded to three other students in the class. At the State Speech Festival, Richard Lain received excellent and Roger Fristoe good.

Our senior play, "Magnificent Obsession", directed by our sponsor, Mrs. Mary North, was quite a sensation.

This year our sportsmen were Bill Ross, James Colson, Marvin Tucker, Don Moore, Gene George, and Cornelius Carney. Betty Sue Alderson and Jean Darnell gained positions as cheerleaders.

The junior class entertained us by sponsoring the junior-senior banquet given in our honor on May 17, 1957, at the Cobb Hotel.

The office of president of Tri-Hi-Y was held for the second straight year by our classmate, Nancy Watkins. The FHA group helped the flood disaster victims in eastern Kentucky. Gene George and Don Moore were the first boys from Lone Oak ever to receive the Star Camper Award in FFA. Don Moore, Wallace Adams, Gene George, and J. T. Richardson hold chapter offices of president, secretary, sentinel, and reporter. Wallace holds the position of district sentinel. He has also applied for the Kentucky State Farmer Award. Several of the boys represented Lone Oak at Boys' State their junior or senior year. Jerry Vincent attended the State Music Festival and won a superior on his piano solo. Linda Morgan participated in the Paducah Dry Youth Day and received the highest number of votes.

Gelena Daniel, Roger Fristoe, May Rust, Marvin Tucker passed at least one NOMA spelling test with May Rust and Marvin Tucker passing all three with perfect scores. They attended a banquet at the Ritz Hotel given in their honor along with Mrs. Mary North and Linda Morgan, an outstanding business student.

Enthusiastic students signed the largest membership in the Parent-Teachers Association. We earned $20 for our class treasury for selling the most tickets in any class for the Grand Ole Opry and candy for the Lone Oak park.

Scholarships were awarded from Murray to James Colson in sports, and Jerry Vincent in music. From Campbellsville Don Moore and Wallace Adams were the lucky people to receive scholarships.

The journalism class published the school paper the Oak-K and the Senior Spotlight. This year the Lone Oak Pep Club was established.

Those taking roles of devoted wives are: Peggy Travis, Dot Owen, Sue McNeil, Lorraine Crawley, Betty Lee Henry, Janice Carter, Hazel Mechtold, Mary Lou Carrigan, Mildred Lamar, Barbara Simmons, Nancy Myers, Barbara Garnett, Mona Graves, and Shirley Puckett. Devoted husbands are: Eugene Johnson, Wayne Ritchie, Chuck Folson, and Don Moore.

Fifty-seven of the beginning 84 students fought through Macbeth, shorthand, research papers, trig., and practice sets to become the graduating class of '57.

Through our 12 years of schooling we find many comical things have happened to our classmates. Like, in the first grade when Bill Ross used to kiss all the girls behind the lockers. In the eighth grade J. T. Richardson had to sit under Mrs. Hicks' desk because he talked back to her.

We are deeply indebted to Mrs. Mary North for all of the nonsense and annoyance we have caused her. Without her supervision and guidance we could not have made the year 1956-57 such a successful one for our senior class.

There will always be a warm spot in our hearts for Lone Oak High School, its principal, teachers, and students. We wish them the best of luck in whatever they attempt and know they will accomplish the highest goal possible. To the classes we are leaving we would like to say "Keep up the good work that has always been a trademark of Lone Oak."

Class Prophecy

Being the newspaper editor of the "Tomorrow's News Today" Column, I receive many interesting letters from my fans wanting to know just what they can expect in the days and years to come. Just yesterday, I received one from the Lone Oak High School Seniors wondering if I could possibly brief them on their future. So, I will set you up ten years into the vast unknown to 1967.

The world has changed quite a bit in the last ten years. LINDA MORGAN is standing in the middle of a kitchen covered with dirty dishes, a baby in each arm, trying to answer the telephone while her husband, TOMMY HUTCHENS, is asleep on the sofa.

HAZEL SPEARS, MARY LOU COPELAND, and BARBARA CHANDLER are teaching in a private school for Young Brides. They are in charge of a class called "How to Get Dinner and Lessons at the Same Time".

JERRY VINCENT is now a famous piano player

all over the world. He has as his able assistants RICHARD LAIN and GORDON SPILLMAN who carry candles and their great helper, ROGER FRISTOE, who lights the candles.

Watch Out! All birds of the air and other airplanes. BILL ROSS is a test pilot for the Jet Manufacturing Company, in Colorado.

The Lone Oak students should feel very proud of one of their classmates, JAMES COLSON. He is now the basketball coach at Lincoln and his boys haven't lost a game in two years.

PETE WHITTAKER is Paducah's famous detective for always coming up with the fact that it was an inside job.

MARVIN TUCKER and PAUL VAUGHN didn't quite get their bookkeeping well enough in high school. They are now serving out their five year terms at Eddyville, for evading income taxes. Although they tried every trick Mrs. North taught them, they just couldn't fool them.

BECKY CADDAS and ROBERT McKEAGE are on a joint wrestling team.

J. T. RICHARDSON took up where Elvis Presley left off. Except for the making of the show "Love Me Tender" you might say J. T. would have passed Elvis.

JACK HUNT is now an outstanding butcher in Waterloo, Iowa, except that he has only one finger left to grind up in the hamburger.

NANCY LANE and MARY MOORE are now starring in the hit "Mutt and Jeff" on Broadway.

ROSEMARY HUNT and BETH PIPPIN are learning the hard way. They are now tilling the soil in the Saint John's vicinity.

BILL OSBORNE is now scraping up the dough to make ends meet in his Lone Oak Pastry Shop.

SHIRLEY HOWARD is working at the Ringland Brothers Circus at the "World's Fattest Lady".

DONNA OVERSTREET seems to like church work now since she's married to the Evangelist, JAMES ALLCOCK.

You'd never believe it, PATTY POYNER, MAY RUST, and BETTY JEAN HAYDEN are the leading members of "The Old Maids Club of Kentucky." The president of the club is BOBBIE NELL WATSON.

WALLACE ADAMS is the agriculture teacher at Murray and DONNIE MOORE is doing the same at Lone Oak.

CLIFTON BUTLER can't seem to stretch those pipes like he did those tall tales he told at Lone Oak. He is a plumber now at Littleton Plumbing Company which of course JOE LITTLETON owns.

GENE GEORGE is still standing on the corner whistling at the girls when they go by. And who should be on the corner across the street from him but SAMMY LEE.

BOBBY HOWARD is now playing outfield for the New York Yankees.

KATHLEEN GROSS and CLYDE HERNDON are joint owners of a hamburger stand at the carnival.

STEVE BARNETT has climbed up a few steps from paper carrier and now owns his own printing press.

CHUCK FOLSON and WAYNE RITCHIE each have a position on the school board trying to keep their ten kids in school.

JAMES CLARK and JAMES WALKER have a comedy team on television, and they have pushed Bob Hope and Red Skelton out of their leading positions.

BETTY SUE ALDERSON is head nurse at Barnes Hospital in Saint Louis, and there has been quiet a decrease in population since she has had this position.

KENNETH DOWNEY and BOBBY GILL are working on a dude ranch in Texas.

PAUL SLOAN has started a Bachelor's Organization and his most loyal members are CORNELIUS CARNEY and BOBBY BRUCE. BILL EVANS and LEON HASTINGS were members but it seems that their bachelor terms expired when they met CATHERINE HERZOG and NANCY WALKER.

GELENA DANIEL is in charge of a Children's Nursery in Florida and it seems that most of her charges are her own.

BILLY DON RITCHIE and RONNIE THOMPSON have been awarded trips to Europe for being the top salesmen of fishing worms at Kentucky Lake.

As far as I know this is the future of the Lone Oak Seniors. I hope all of you will be pleased with your lives to come.

The Editor,
Jean Darnell

Senior Class Will

We are gathered together on this solemn and momentous occasion to witness the reading of this the last will and testament of the Senior Class of Lone Oak High School.

Knowing that all our glorious times will soon be pleasant memories, we, the Senior Class of 1957 do draw this last will and testament for the purpose of dividing and distributing all of our priceless possessions.

ITEM 1:

To all classes who will follow in our footsteps, we bequeath the increased and sincere devotion we have given to all aspects of this great institution.

ITEM 2:

To the Junior Class, we leave dignity, honor, and the joy of being a Senior, in hopes that they will maintain the outstanding rating of Lone Oak Seniors.

ITEM 3:

To the Sophomore Class we hereby will our quick wit and ability to remain agreeable regardless of any situation.

ITEM 4:

To the Freshmen we will our ability to retain our constant drive to achieve a well-rounded education which one needs in our modern world.

ITEM 5:

To the Eighth Grade we bequeath our ability to succeed and make a success in their future high school years.

ITEM 6:

To our teachers we leave our thanks for doing such an excellent job of teaching and contending with us.

ITEM 7:

To Mr. Robinson, our principal and teacher, we leave our undying gratitude and appreciation for having a benevolent spirit, never-ending guidance, and the time which he has taken in concerning himself with each individual.

ITEM 8:

We, the graduating class, being 58 separate and distinct individuals, do bequeath the following personal possessions:

I, Jack Hunt, will to any Junior boy willing to be embarrassed, the state of being Lone Oak's only office boy.

I, Gene George, will to James Boatwright, the quality of being a foot shorter than everyone else.

I, Rosemary Hunt, will to some deserving (?) Junior the staggering job of doing everybody's typing for them.

I, Donna Overstreet, will my ability to get ready for school in ten minutes and make it to the bus on the run to any future Senior who is always in a hurry.

I, Gordon Spillman, reluctantly will my ability to remain an individual to any Junior that truly deserves it, provided the strain isn't too much for them.

I, J. T. Richardson, will leave provided Mrs. North will let me.

I, Hazel Spears, will to Velma Bechtold my long hair in hopes that she will keep it curled.

I, Jean Darnell, will my ability to get out of school and go quail hunting by giving Mr. Robinson some quail to anyone who loves hunting.

I, Steve Barnett, will my A'Cappella robe to Michael Presley, if he grows enough this summer to be able to wear it.

I, Clifton Butler, will my ability to sleep through Mrs. Hollands English and learn to Terry Keeling.

I, Pete Whittaker, being of sound body and blabbing mouth, will my ability to be the first one to know all gossip before anyone else to whomever wants the job.

I, Robert Gill, do hereby will my few feeblies to all unfortunate smoothees.

I, James Robert Clark, III, will my invitation to catch the boat that I missed in English to Preston Williams. See Mrs. Holland for the ticket.

I, Marvin Tucker, will my seat and my ability to stay in English to Cotton Johnson, who I know will carry on the work(???) faithfully.

I, Kenneth Allen Downey, will my sleeping chair in English to anyone who can sleep in it.

I, Leon Hastings, will my ability to be salutatorian of my class, to my sister, Dianne Hastings.

I, Bobby Bruce, will my English books to Larry Harper hoping he will make better use of it than I did.

I, Bob McKeage, will to Billy Shannon all the brains that Johnny Butler has.

I, Becky Caddas, will my ability to play hookey and get caught and also my wonderful bookkeeping talents to Dalmos Joyce and Donnie Bouland! I also will my suitcase to Mrs. North. She seems to be taking a trip. As for me, I may not go anywhere!

I, Ronnie Thompson, will my unusual talent to hand in my practice set in bookkeeping on time to any lucky person who should take it.

I, Jerry Vincent, will my locker (No. 57) to anyone in the Junior class who can keep it cleaner than I did.

I, Bill Evans, will Joe Green some longer sideburns if I had them.

We, Patty Poyner and Betty Hayden, will our long hair of natural color to Shelby Weitlauf.

I, Catherine Herzog, will my red Ford to Herby Herzog in hopes he keeps the tire fixed.

I, Bill Osborne, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Holland less and less each day and still pass, to any Junior who thinks he or she can give her as much trouble as I did.

I, Billy Don Richie, will leave if it is their will.

I, Joe Littleton, being of sound body and no mind, will my ability to memorize poetry to any Junior who fails to get their research theme.

I, Mary Lou Copeland, will my experience of getting married before finishing school, to anyone who is as dumb as I was to do so.

I, Linda Morgan, will my pep and energy to "Baby Huey" so he can run around the house faster and have greater ability to chin himself in hopes that he will make the first five on the basketball team.

I, Richard Lain, willingly will to any strong-willed Junior, the responsibility of the Senior Will.

I, Gelena Daniel, being just me, will my big feet (size 11), to anyone who thinks they can make a swifter get-away from Mr. Robinson.

I, Cornelius Carney, will my ability to warm the bench for the coaches to Kenneth Weatherspoon.

I, Wallace Adams, will my ability to Pass Business Law without attending class to Phillip Morris.

We, Barbara Garnett Chandler and May Rust, will our dear old seats in Biology class to anyone willing to sit and peep through a "one-eyed monster" (microscope), in order to pass, and have as much fun as we did.

I, Nancy Watkins, will to the new T-i-Hi-Y president, Barbara Boss, my meat cleaver, to use on those who just can't seem to pay their dues.

I, James Allcock, will my position as co-editor of the paper to any Junior that is willing to wear blisters on their fingers, feet, and elsewhere.

I, Paul Sloan, will my ability to leave English to Joe Green.

I, Sammy Lee, being of strong ???, will my English workbook to Terry Keeling in hopes he can finish it up.

We, Bobbye Nell Watson and Shirley Howard, will our chairs in Mrs. North's 4th period study hall to any Junior girl in hopes they can succeed in getting out more than we did.

I, Betty Sue Alderson, will by ability to put up with Jean Darnell and Tommy Hutchins four periods a day five days a week to anyone who has the nerves for it.

I, Nancy Lane, do hereby will to Larry Lane my ability to get along with teachers, especially Mr. Robinson, since he seems to be having some trouble doing so.

I, Roger Fristoe, bequeath to any deserving person the perseverance to endure the suspense of the senior play's casting.

I, Don Moore, will my bookkeeping practice set to Dickie Johnson in hopes that he will finish it for me.

I, Bobby Howard, will my ability to learn algebra to Ernie Owens.

I, Beth Pippin, being of sound mind and body will my ability in bookkeeping to any Junior who can keep up with it.

I, Mary Moore, do hereby will my 22 inch waist line to Phyllis Hopwood who wants it so badly.

I, Kathleen Gross, will to anyone in the Junior class my seat in Journalism in hopes they can write stories better than I did.

I, Tommy Hutchens, will to Phillip Morris my ability to stay on the good side of Mrs. North at all times.

I, James Colson, will 2 feet of added height to Terry Keeling in hopes it will make him an even better ballplayer.

I, Bill Ross, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath to any Junior the necessary energy needed to struggle through bookkeeping.

I, Paul Vaughn, will to any lucky Junior my snap conception of bookkeeping.

I, Wayne Ritchie, will my business law book to anyone who has had as much trouble making their will as I have.

I, Chuck Folsom, will to Jerry Johnson my 21 inch picture tube in hopes that he will get 71 from it as I did.

I, Clyde Herndon, will to any Junior my seat in bookkeeping, who can hand in their paper and get it back without red lines all over it.

I, James Walker, will my seat in Mrs. Holland's class to anyone who wants it.
