Dedicatory

In the past years our hearts were warmed by a boy who was a friend to all.

Such a tragedy is not easily forgotten but it is the Lord's will and in realization that it could have been any one of us in April, 1954, we the Senior Class, dedicate this Spotlight to our beloved classmate, Bobby Wilkins, who lost his life in an automobile-bicycle crash.

To The Senior Class of 1958-59

You are one of the best classes that has ever graduated from Lone Oak High School. Each of you has a fine family and a wonderful background. You have been brought up in one of the best communities and best schools in our land. You have lived in a good State, and the greatest country in the world. With all these things each of you should make a great success in life. I personally, wish each of you happiness and success.

Sincerely,

Class History

At last the 1956 "Green Freshman" Class has achieved its goal. After struggling through four long years of much hard work and many activities, we are now Seniors.

Can you remember that September day, four years ago, when we gained the title of "Green Freshmen"?

We started off our freshman year with Mrs. Euna Mae Hicks to guide us as our sponsor. For our class officers we elected Richard Schumaker, David Coram, and Elene Burnett.

David Sheehan, Ozzie Tapscott, Richard Buchanan, Jimmy Whittimore, and Eugene Colson represented our class on the basketball team; while Janice Padgett, Sherron Miller, Peggy Alderson, and Jolene Parker represented us as B-Team Cheerleaders and Joyce Vaughn on the Varsity squad. Our class was well represented in baseball, too. We had Lee Bearden, John Neal Wilkins, David Sheehan, and Lynn Ferguson on the team.

The members of our class participated in all extra-curricular activities such as: Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y, F.F.A., F.H.A., and Music. We will never forget that day when we were initiated into F.H.A. and F.F.A.

The next year we became known as "Silly Sophomores" and we lived up to our title. How many of you remember that last day of school when we threw airplanes at Mrs. Gill?

Our class officers that year were: Eddie Usher, David Coram, Janice Padgett, and Elene Burnett. Mrs. Leslie Gill led us as our sponsor.

Again that year Ozzie Tapscott, Tinker Moore, Jackie Powell, Richard Buchanan, J. D. Bristo, Eddie Kennerley, and Eugene Colson, represented our class on the ball team. Janice Padgett, Jolene Parker, and Sherry Miller were B-Team Cheerleaders again that year, with David Coram serving on the Varsity squad. Lee Bearden, Shelby Summerville, and David Sheehan represented our class on the baseball team.

We were very proud to have Patty Vaughn and Gene Dunning represent our class at Youth Assembly.

The next year we answered to the name of "Jolly Juniors". This was the halfway mark. We had completed two years of high school.

Since our class was the first to sell $3,000 worth of magazines, we were very busy trying to reach our goal. The purpose of the magazine drive was to raise money to give the Seniors a banquet. The banquet, which took place on May 15, 1958, was held in the gymnasium with approximately 400 attending. The theme was "Stairway to the Stars". Mrs. Zitell Goheen was our advisor.

That year we had our first prom. We were very proud because it was the first one in the history of our school. It was given by our room mothers at the Rolling Hills Country Club with the same theme as the one of the banquet.

Representing us on the basketball team that year were: Thomas MacDonald, John Neal Wilkins, Richard Buchanan, and Ozzie Tapscott. Jolene Parker, Janice Padgett, and David Coram represented us as Varsity Cheerleaders. Lee Bearden, Ozzie Tapscott, John Neal Wilkins, Shelby Summerville and John Lamar filled positions on the baseball team.

Buddy Rushing, David Coram, Elene Burnett, and Judy Barnett led our class as officers. Mrs. Zitell Goheen, Mrs. Zula Edwards, and Mr. Jess Hall, Jr. were our sponsors.

David Coram, Buddy Rushing, Richard Schumaker, and Eddie Metcalf honored our class by being chosen to attend Boy's State.

This was the first year for us to have a class play and we all were anxious to be in it. However, there were only nine characters. The play "Showdown at Sawtooth", was under the direction of one of our sponsors, Mr. Jess Hall, Jr.

Our Junior Class made history in many ways and we hope that we are remembered by the wrought iron marker that we presented to the school. This marker is made of white wrought iron and reads: Lone Oak High School, Junior Class, 1957-58.

This is 1959, and 95 of us have finally reached the last step of the long hard climb through high school.

This year our class is under the leadership of our very capable sponsor, Mrs. Mary North.

Richard Schumaker, Buddy Rushing, Elene Burnett, and Judy Barnett were elected as class officers.

Larry Lane, Ozzie Tapscott, and Carl Page represented our class on the Varsity ball team. Jolene Parker, Elene Burnett, Sherry Miller, and Janice Padgett were on the Varsity Cheerleading Squad. Lee Bearden, Jimmy Hodges, Ozzie Tapscott, John Neal Wilkins, Shelby Summerville, and Lynn Ferguson were on the baseball team.

Benna Settle and Rose Jett received their State F.H.A. Degrees. Rose Jett also served as president of F.H.A. While Jackie Powell served as president of F.F.A.

Elene Burnett, Judy Barnett, Larry Lane, Rose Jett, Wanda Shaffer, Delores Torian, and Janice Cary passed at least one NOMA Spelling Test with Judy Bean passing both of them.

Carolyn Livingston, Rose Jett, David Coram, Mike Thompson, Jimmy Cruce, Patty Vaughn and Eddie Metcalf were chosen to go to Youth Assembly.

The Junior Class entertained us by giving us the annual Junior-Senior Banquet, given in our honor. The banquet which took place on May 8, 1959, in the gymnasium had a Hawaiian theme.

The Journalism class published the school paper, the Oak-K, and the Senior Spotlight.

Those taking roles as devoted wives are: Sherrell Jarvis, Anne Morris, Joyce Vaughn, Barbara Wells, Linda Hall, Bertha Pace, Shelby James, Susie Bruce, and Peggy Wyatt.

Our Senior play, "The Unguided Miss", which took place on May 21, 1959, was quite a sensation. The play was under the direction of our sponsor, Mrs. Mary North.

Lynn Ferguson was chosen from Lone Oak to attend the World Affairs Institute in Cincinnati, Ohio. Our class was also represented in New York last fall by Patty Vaughn, who attended the United Nations World Peace Seminar.

Throughout the years our class participated in such activities as Tri-Hi-Y, Hi-Y, F.H.A., Civics Clubs. A Cappella Choir, Junior Rotarians, Music, Debate, Speech, F.F.A., and Plays.

We are very grateful to Mrs. Mary North for all the nonsense and annoyance that she has put up with this year. Without her supervision and patience our year would not have been a successful one.

We will always remember our wonderful principal, teachers, and classmates with an everlasting warmth in our hearts. We, the 1959 Senior Class, leave with them our best wishes in everything they attempt.

Class Prophecy

May, 1969

Dear Mrs. North,

Ten years ago our senior class graduated from Lone Oak. I thought maybe you would like to know what became of all its members.

Bob Steele has a job as a movie censor in Hollywood. He says he likes his work. Mike Thompson is on his way to the top there. He's just finished his second horror movie soon to be released. Of course Joe Wilson couldn't be too far away. He sells soft drinks right outside the studio.

Shelby Summerville has done pretty well for himself. He owns the most prosperous nightclub in town. He hasn't had any trouble since Eddie Lee Metcalf began working there as the bouncer. Also, business has picked up a hundred per cent since he hired Susan Mitchell as the cigarette girl.

Here's something that's hard to believe. Jean Riley is a trapeze artist with Barnum and Bailey. Eugene Colson is the elephant trainer there too.

Undoubtedly you know that Jimmie Hodges is a famous scientist. (Some people use the word "mad" instead of famous.) But did you know that Archie Claypool is his assistant?

Larry Starnes and Judy Harper own a reducing salon called THE THIN SKIN DEN. Billy Shannon says they're the best in the business—and he should know! He's taken Peter Lawford's place on THE THIN MAN.

Carl Page owns a poolroom called PAGE'S RECREATION CENTER — EQUIPPED WITH THE MOST MODERN POOL TABLES AND SLOT MACHINES IN THE STATE. Lynn Ferguson is working as his bookkeeper. Not that Carl couldn't do it himself! Lynn just needed the work. After all, trying to support sixteen children and three wives is not an easy job.

Johnny Raffidy and Randall Perdew are on their way to success. Maurice Weitlauf who owns WEITLAUF'S WAX WORKS is going to record their latest song THE BALLAD OF HENDRON HILL, Rose Jett is their female vocalist now.

Janet Womble has a job on the radio over station W-LIE owned by John Neal Wilkins. Every night from seven til eight she tells ghost stories to children. Patty Vaughn sings all the commercials for John Neal.

Janice Padgett has finally finished her freshman year of college. But with seven children what can you expect?

It's nice that Joan Shepherd came back to Lone Oak to teach Math. I hear Jimmy Cruce will probably pass it this year. I also heard that Barbara Wells is the dietician in the cafeteria. That's nice.

Judy Moore's wedding is not far off. Joe Moss, who is a contractor now, built her house for her at half price so now she can get married.

David Reed has made a fortune with a hot dog stand called KHRUSHCHEV'S KITCHEN. It's located on Red Square near the Kremlin in Moscow. But he says he owes all the credit to his carhop Judy Barnett.

Judy Bean is working for the government. She's the golf caddy for the President.

Sherron Miller finally got what she wanted. she's the head model advertising Hercules work clothes.

Sherrell Jarvis is sort of what you'd call a model. She's taken the place of the little boy with the candle in his hand that says, "It's time to retire," advertising Fisk tires.

Carolyn Livingston has a pretty easy job. She's the cover girl for FARM magazine.

George Mueller is working at the Pentagon now. He's the janitor.

Benna Settle is running a soft drink stand. She says she's making quite a lot of money with it too. In case you want to write her the address is:

Sunstroke Stop
Route 17
Sahara Desert

Larry Lanes there too—working as a rainmaker. So far he hasn't had much luck but he's just a beginner.

Kenneth Shelton is modeling for the Charles Atlas body building course.

Lee Bearden has to undergo an operation next week. He was doing pretty well as an auctioneer but his tongue got caught between his two front teeth and he can't get it out. It isn't too serious though.

Jackie Powell's in India now. He owns a factory that manufactures flying carpets.

Tinker Moore and Linda Shaffer got married. The last I heard they owned a giraffe farm in east Africa.

Buddie Rushing is working with tools. Right now he's trying to design a new improved left-handed monkey wrench.

Delores Torian has her future insured. She's a WAC M.P.

Elene Burnett sells radishes Saturday mornings down at the Market on second street.

Ann Morris is writing a book on HUSBAND AND CHILD CARE. That should prove to be interesting.

JoEtta Byrd has a cactus plantation in Arizona.

Ozzie Tapscott is the foreman in a perfume factory owned by Betty Rushing. She says work is pretty hard to come by now-a-days. Ozzie's working out pretty well though.

John Lamar is blowing up balloons for the weather bureau. He always was pretty windy. Carolyn Schmidt is working as the stewardess.

Linda Patton is still carhopping at the Dairy Barn. The way things look she will be for quite a while. She's the proud mother of four sets of trip-lets.

Jolene Parker is the official taster for Bird's Eye frozen foods. She always did like to eat.

Dale Reeves is writing a book on Procedure. He always was pretty "hot" on that subject.

El Reba Melott is the caretaker for a graveyard somewhere in Melber.

David Coram is going to have to spend another six months in jail. They caught him with the still in his basement again.

Lillian Briney sells saving bonds door to door.

You know, it really surprised me to hear that Thomas MacDonald is working as a beautician.

James Adams is dealing in real estate. He's been trying to sell Kenneth Gross a plantation in the Everglades.

Dennis Oliver is at the North Pole now. He's really making the money building igloos.

Sandra Dykes has a job as a chinney sweep. Santa Claus has nothing on her although business has been slow lately.

Eddy Kennerley is selling newspapers on the corner in front of Walgreen's.

Jimmie Whittemore is working as a guide in Nairobi. He always did like to wander around.

You don't see Joyce Vaughn very much any more. The only time is at Christmas when she rings the bell for the Salvation Army in front of Sears.

Well, Richard Schumaker is still shooting the bull. He's taken Hoot Gibson's place on the late show. Linda Jones is right there along with him. She's a dancer for the Bunny Bread advertisement.

Eugene Hughes is busy painting STOP signs on the Empire State Building for run-a-way airplanes.

George Youngblood is the flagman for the drag races at Sturgis.

Ann Miller has taken Peggy Cass's place on KEEP TALKING.

David Sheehan has finally passed his bar examination. He's now working at the Kentucky Tavern as the bartender.

Susie Bruce is going by the name "Madam Magda" since she began working as a medium. She and her husband have had to move into a tent.

Kenneth Meadows is working as a dog catcher for Paducah now.

It'll be a little while before Richard Buchanan comes to visit. He picked up a little present for you but the floorwalker saw him.

Nellie Clayton is the overseer of the farm that grows tobacco for King Edward cigars.

Shelby James is teaching fingerpainting in the Adirondacks.

You'll see Rebecca Chambers in the movies from now on. She's an usher at the Arcade.

Sandra Warford is teaching judo.

J. D. Bristo is looking well. I saw his picture at the post office the last time I was there.

Linda Parker is in charge of foreign relations between the United States and the Congo.

Ronnie Barlow has a pretty soft job in Florida. He's working for the Army as a glacier spotter.

Larry Bagwell is teaching ballet now. He says it's most profitable.

Leon Draffen is selling Night Crawlers at Kentucky Lake.

Janis Owen has been elected "Sweetheart" of the black leather set in Detroit.

Jerry Newman is on the Police Force now. He patrols the Noble Park.

Janice Cary has taken over her father's business. She's a professional chicken caller. She's hired Laurie Richards to sell feathers for her.

The Barkleys have done it again! Richard is now running for city jailer.

Janice Housman is teaching Algebra in Siberia.

Sue Shaffer is running a health bar. She's writing a pamphlet called YOGART AND YOU. It should be finished pretty soon.

Billy Lawrence has his own rock and roll band now. They say he's quite popular.

Dorothy Carmichael is running a roulette wheel in Las Vegas at a place called THE BLACK WIDOW.

The last of our classmates is Peggy Wyatt. You'd never guess what she's doing. Nothing. She is just keeping house.

Sincerely yours,

Bertha Jeane Sanderson Pace
Class of '59

Senior Class Will

Ladies and Gentlemen, Board of Education, Principal, Teachers, and Friends:

Upon behalf of my client, the Class of 1959 of Lone Oak High School, of the city of Lone Oak, County of McCracken, the State of Kentucky, United States of America, we have called you together on this solemn and momentous occasion to listen to her last will and testament, and to receive from her dying hand the few gifts she has to bestow in her last moments. As all good things must come to a close their high school years are over. This leaves only memories of past events and the road to the future.

Listen, then one and all, while I read the document, as duly drawn up and sworn to:

We the Senior Class of 1959 being of sound body and somewhat questionable mind do draw this will and testament for the purpose of dividing and distributing all our priceless, treasured and useless possessions.

ITEM I

To the classes who follow we bequeath the anticipation of the future, the progress made during our twelve years, and finally a diploma.

ITEM II

To the Junior Class, our rightful heirs, we leave our Class Spirit, our positions and our school books.

ITEM III

To the Sophomores we leave the ability to have an especially busy and happy time in our last two years of education in high school.

ITEM IV

To the Green freshmen we bequeath the right to torment the Freshmen-to-be as they have been tormented in the past year.

ITEM V

The Eighth Grade shall inherit four years of high school full of everything from A to Z.

ITEM VI

To Mr. Robinson and the faculty of Lone Oak we leave our deepest and sincerest gratitude for their efforts, worry, and toil in helping us struggle through twelve years of school.

ITEM VII

The Senior Class being 95 separate and distinct individuals hereby bequeath the following possessions:

I, Rebecca Chambers, will my greatly depreciated NOMA spelling list to Sue Chambers, and hope it will be of more value to her than it was to me.

I, Sherry Miller, will my position on the cheer-leading squad to Gail Kelly hoping she will enjoy it as much as I.

I, Janet Womble, will my ability to get a bottom locker every year to anyone who wants to get hit in the head six times a day.

I, Judith Ann Bean, will my ability to get a bottom locker three years out of four years to anyone who would like the misery that goes with it.

I, Rose Jett, will my extra Curricular activities to anyone who is willing to risk a trip to Hopkinsville.

I, Betty Rushing, will to my sister, Shirley, my Business Arithmetic book in hopes she will get more lessons than I.

I, Judy Barnett, will to Larry Powers my ability to get along with Joan Shepherd, not only as well, but even better.

I, Jo Etta Byrd, will to Ann Byrd my place in English in hopes that she will make better in there than I.

I, Jeanne Riley, will to Patsy Carter, my ability to miss school as much as I have and still make passing grades.

I, Lillian Briney, will my ability to type well to anyone who doesn't care to become a secretary anyway.

I, Joan Shepherd, will my messy ink bottle to Sylvia Rogers hoping that she won't use a wash rag to clean it with and get caught by mother.

I, Nellie Clayton, will my position as Business Manager of the school paper to Bobby Knott.

We, Janice Padgett and Bertha Pace, will our scatter brained brains to any two juniors who have the time to keep going back after things they've forgotten and looking for things they've lost.

I, Linda Parker, will my old shorthand book to Janette Herndon in hopes that she will stay with it longer than I.

Compliments Of

Driver's—Gatlin and Chors—Syers Service—Citizens Bank and Trust Co.—Lone Oak Branch

We, Jolene Parker and David Coram, will to Sylvia Rogers and Kenneth Rushing our skill to pass our Junior English Semester test, by digging the stencil out of the trash can and studying by it.

We, Sherrell Jarvis and Buddy Rushing will our ability to sing in Mrs. Cooper's English Class all year and never get kicked out to Benny and Milinda Brown.

I, Delores Torian, will my shorthand books to any junior hoping he will be able to come to school enough to learn it.

I, Janice Cary, will my bottom corner locker to anyone who can keep their temper their Senior year.

I, Cara Mae Grief, will my ability to eat any kind of fattening food anytime I want it and still not gain a pound to anyone who hates dieting.

I, Barbara Wells, will to Linda Spears my bottom locker 92, in hopes that she doesn't get her head knocked half way down the hall as many times next year as I have this year.

I, Joyce Peyton Vaughn, will myself as an example to any Freshman girl who thinks she is big enough to get married and finish school. Think first, it isn't easy.

I, Ann Miller, will to Betty Weitlauf, my ability to get through high school without falling in love as she said it couldn't be done.

I, Ann Morris, being of sound mind and body will my locker to Linda Saucier hoping she will be able to keep it neater than I.

I, Elene Burnett, will to Shirley Rushing my bottom locker in hopes that she can dodge the top doors better than I.

I, Carolyn Livingston, will my little red change purse to anyone who thinks they can keep it filled with lunch money and not have to borrow it from someone everyday.

I, Janice Fay Owen, will my ability to blow a test tube three feet across a lab table on Friday the 13th, and pick it up unbroken to any junior who can stand the choking effects of ammonia.

I, Dorothy Carmichael, will to my brother, Victor, the ability to be late to home room every day.

I, Susan Mitchell, will to Sue Puckett my ability to get an engagement ring her senior year and wait until she graduates to get married.

I, Wanda Shaffer, will my ability to always miss part of a letter in shorthand dictation to anyone who takes shorthand.

I, Janice Housman, will my ability to share a locker to any junior girl who thinks she has the patience to stand it.

I, Carolyn Schmidt, will my leaky fountain pen with the scratchy shorthand point to any junior girl who has enough courage, nerves, and patience to take shorthand.

I, Judy Moore, will to Betty Poat my seat in English in hopes she enjoys it better than I.

I, Linda Jones, do hereby bequeath my rickety little locker on the bottom row, next to the study hall door, to anyone who doesn't mind having books dropped on their head and getting hit in the back by the study hall door each time they wearily stoop down to put their worn, well-studied comic books away.

I, Benna Settle, will my contact lens to Patty Miller and do truly hope that she gets as much attention from them as I did.

I, Patty Vaughn, will my ability to be stung by wasps, scratched by David Reed, fall down flights of stairs, ride on a school bus and go through four years of high school and still come out alive to Jackie Livingston.

I, Judy Harper being of short body and weak mind will my ability to go steady for four months with one guy to Sherron James as she CAN'T make it over two weeks.

I, Saundra Dykes, will my ability to get into more trouble than anyone else (Because Mrs. North said I did) to Beverly Hunt since I know that she will put it to use.

I, Sandy Warford, will my seat in shorthand next to the door, to Sandy Moore in hopes that she hears more of the letters and less of the noise in the hall.

I, Shelby Weitlauf James, do hereby will my long brown hair to Beverly Hunt because I see she likes the natural color too.

I, Susie Bruce, will my place in Mrs. North's room to any junior girl that likes to get out of study hall.

We, El Reba Melott and Linda Patton, will our ability to use Mrs. North's office as a study hall to any junior who can endure the fact of knowing they're not wanted.

I, Linda Shaffer, will to Janice Boaz the ability to get my own boy friend in hopes that she will quit trying to pay boys to get dates for her.

I, Mike Thompson, will my place in Journalism to anyone dumb enough to take it.

I, Leon Draffen, will my seat in first period Study Hall to Wilford Davenport and hope he will have as much trouble with Buzz as I did.

I, Larry Bagwell, being of little mind and some body, will to Bill Ed Grimes my ability to take Mathematics four years and pass and still flunk on my College Placement Test.

I, James D. Cruse, being of sound body and unsound mind do will my bottle of peroxide to any Junior silly enough to use it.

I, Carl Page, will my ability to learn quickly to Benny Brown.

I, Randall Perdew, will my seat in first period study hall to anyone who would like to be a hermit.

I, James Adams, do hereby will my ability to go to school for twelve years without skipping a single day to Larry Powers, as he has been seriously considering doing so these last few days, (and going with me.)

I, Richard Barkley, being of sound body and weak mind hereby will my seat in last period study hall to anyone who is stupid enough to stay last period.

I, Archie Claypool, being of sound mind will my witty personality to anyone who takes Journalism.

I, Tinker Moore, will to Smitty Simmons not to be a bad student in agriculture.

I, Jackie Powell, will my "Power" to the next President of F.F.A.

I, J. D. Bristo, will my ability to sleep in study hall to anyone who is sly enough to get away with it.

I, Jimmy Whittemore, being of very, very blank mind and fat body will to David (Skinny) Lips Nelson my ability to park behind the Timbers Motel whenever he is old enough.

I, Lynn Ferguson, being duly elected by my fellow classmates as "Mr. Apple Polisher" do bestow this grand honor to any junior who fits the bill.

I, Thomas MacDonald, being of little mind and no body will my great ability to sing like Louie Armstrong to Tommy Holshouser and Tommy McIntosh.

I, Dennis Oliver, will my ability to shave every morning to William Garnett.

I, Laurie Richards, being of sleepy mind and body will my ability to come to school consistently even on Monday, to William Garnett.

I, Ozzie Tapscott, will my ability to Little Oscar Gilbert to play on the varsity next year.

I, Richard Buchanan, will my place in Book-keeping Class to anyone who thinks they can keep up better than I.

We, Joe Wilson and Bob Steele will get out if we can.

I, Shelby Summerville, will the honor of having Mr. Hall two years in succession to any deserving Junior.

I, Lee Bearden, being of weak mind and poor eye sight will to Kenneth Harper my ability to look before I cross sixth and Monroe.

I, George Youngblood, will to Lawrence Otey my seat in Mr. Hall's English Class next year if he is as unlucky as I was.

I, Dale Reeves, will my Literature "Cheat Sheets" to anyone who can use them better than I.

I, Joe Moss, being of sound mind, will my seat in agriculture to anyone who thinks they can stay awake.

We, Johnny Raffidy and Kenneth Meadows, being of sound minds and dirty hands, will wheelbarrow and gloves to any two junior boys who like to eat dust before lunch.

I, George Mueller, being of sound body and uncontrollable mind, will my Book Wagon to Wilford Davenport so he can transport his books to school, on condition that he puts in a new clutch.

I, Larry Lane, will my ability to get along with Mr. Crooks to all Juniors because they will need it before they graduate.

I, John Wilkins, being of sound mind will to any Junior the new English teacher, for Mrs. Cooper will not be here because of circumstances beyond our control.

We, David Reed, Richard Schumaker, and Jimmy Hodges, being prisoners in the dungeon of Chillon at fourth period, will to any hungry junior boys, our hopeless fight of talking Mrs. Cooper into leaving early for lunch.

I, David Sheehan, do hereby will my seat in English Literature, to any Junior who gets stuck with it.

I, John Lamar, will my seat on the back row in Bookkeeping to anyone who is smart enough to sit there the whole year.

I, Eddie Kennerly, being of some mind and sound body will my ability to fail Agriculture for the six weeks to Tommy McIntosh.

I, Larry Starnes, being of strong back and weak mind will my position in Junior English under the direction of Mr. Hall to Darell Crews if he prefers to make a career of it.

I, Billy Lawrence, will the things which have been so much a part of my life, Lone Oak High School and Troop 20, to those who follow after me, that they may profit from my mistakes.

I, Eddie Metcalf, will to any Junior the ability to: break fingernails in first period typing, get shocked in second period Physics, skip third period study hall to eat at the Dairy Barn, starve in fourth period English, fail in fifth period Trig. and receive ear drum inquiries in sixth period Music.

I, Eugene Hughes, being of weak mind and body, do hereby bequeath my ability to graduate from high school with only ten licks from "Papa Don" to Roy Copeland, as I feel he needs it desparately.

I, Eugene Colson, being of sound mind and body will my ability to study and pay attention in class to Wilford Davenport.

I, Jerry Newman, will if you will.

I, Ronald Barlow, will my ability to get along with as little effort as possible to anyone who is that lazy.

I, Maurice Weitlauf leave to Lyndal Baumgardner my ability to get all the odd numbered problems in Trig.

I, Kenneth Shelton, will my ability to any junior to be the last one to put their will in.

And we do hereby constitute and appoint the said Principal, Mr. John Robinson sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, We, the Class of 1959, the testators, have to this will set our hands and seal this twenty-sixth day of May, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-nine.

Patricia D. Vaughn
