Dedicatory

On May 18, 1958 a great tragedy took place when a boy who was a friend of everyone drowned at Kentucky Lake.

This tragedy is not easily forgotten but it is the Lord's will.

Let us all realize that tragedy can strike any one of us. Therefore, the Senior Class of 1960 dedicates this spotlight to our beloved classmate, Bill Grimes.

To The Senior Class of 1959-'60

You are one of the best classes that has ever graduated from Lone Oak High School. Each of you has a fine family and a wonderful background. You have been brought up in one of the best communities and best schools in our land. You have lived in a good State, and the greatest country in the world. With all these things each of you should make a great success in life. I personally, wish each of you happiness and success.

Sincerely,

JOHN ROBINSON

Class History

In 1956 our class began a freshman year 142 strong with Mr. Douglas as our sponsor, and we elected the following class officers: President, Ande Clark; Vice President, Fred Elliott; Secretary, Betty Curd; and Treasurer, Tome McIntosh.

This first year in high school Bennie Brown, Larry Davis, Ike Huff, and Kenneth Rushing represented us on the basketball team. Ike Huff was on the baseball team. Danette Littleton was a varsity cheerleader, while Gale and Phyllis Hopwood Bash yelled with the B-team. Danette Littleton and Betty Curd modeled in the Sportsman's Beauty Contest. This was the year we were initiated into FHA and FFA. We also participated in Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y, music and A Cappella Choir.

As Silly Sophomores we were guided through our second year in high school by Mrs. Gill and our class officers: President, Ande Clark; Vice President, Fred Elliott; Secretary, Shirley Moore; and Treasurer, Tome McIntosh.

We struggled through Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" and from there went on to help win the District Championship with Cecil Duncan, Kenneth Rushing, Larry Powers, Tome McIntosh, Ike Huff, Elvin Overstreet, Jack Gilbert, Ande Clark, Bennie Brown, Ernie Owen, and Larry Davis on the basketball team. Once again Danette Littleton was elected as an A-team cheerleader and Gale Kelley, Molly Trainor, and Terry Wyatt were on the B-team. This year Ike Huff, Ronnie Hodges, Phillip Clark, Bennie Brown and Jack Gilbert played on the baseball team.

In 1958, we took the school by storm and fulfilled our title of Jolly Juniors.

Our class was represented well on the varsity basketball team by: Kenneth Rushing, Ande Clark, Jack Gilbert, Larry Powers, Tome McIntosh, Ernie Owen, Ike Huff, Larry Davis, and Bennie Brown. Larry Scoggins, Ronnie Hodges, Wayne Andrews, Ike Huff, Bennie Brown, Phillip Clark, and Jack Gilbert played baseball. Danette Littleton once again achieved the honor of being varsity cheerleader.

Under Mr. Hall's sable direction, we presented our hilarious hill-billy comedy, "The Thread That Runs So True." About twenty-five members of our class participated in this play.

We sold $2,500 worth of magazines. The purpose of our magazine drive was to raise money to give the seniors a banquet.

With Mrs. Goheen's guidance, we gave a very outstanding banquet and prom. The theme of our banquet was "Hawaiian Cruise."

We were represented at Boys' State by Jack Gilbert, Tommy Holshouser, Emmett Clark, and Ande Clark. Our representative to Girls' State was Gale Kelley.

For the second time in succession, we elected for our officers: President, Ande Clark; Vice President, Fred Elliott; Treasurer, Tome McIntosh, and Secretary Shirley Moore.

It is now 1960 and we are seniors! Our class is the first to have over one hundred graduating students.

This year our class is under the guidance of our very capable and hard-working sponsor, Mrs. Mary Allen North.

Realizing the importance for good leadership, we elected for the fourth year: Ande Clark, Fred Elliott, and Tome McIntosh as officers. Gale Kelley fulfilled the position as secretary.

Bennie Brown, Ike Huff, Larry Powers, Tome McIntosh, Larry Davis, Jack Gilbert, Ande Clark, Ernie Owen, and Kenneth Rushing represented our class on the varsity ball team. Danette Littleton and Gale Kelley were on the varsity cheerleading squad. We were runner-up in the Christmas Tournament. Our ball team also won the District championship, and were runner-up in the Regional Basketball Tournament. We had one of the best basketball teams in the state of Kentucky.

One of the highlights of the basketball season was the election and coronation of a basketball queen. Linda Saucier, a senior, was elected and crowned on January 29, 1960. Joe Alexander, Wayne Andrews, Ronnie Hodges, Ike Huff, and Phillip Clark were on the baseball team.

Gale Kelley was the only one in our class to secure her State Degree. She was also a delegate to both the State and National FHA conventions.

Our delegates to the Model United Nations meeting in Lexington, were: Kay Williams, Gale Kelley, Ronnie Hodges, and Patty Miller. Also, Sherron Slusmeyer, Orlane Darnell and Linda Saucier were delegates to the FBLA State Convention in Louisville.

Chosen to take the NOMA test at Paducah Junior College were: Sherron James, Anna Edwards, Rachel Grimes, and Phyllis Whitmer.

Seniors completing four years of math from Heath, Reidland and Lone Oak competed in a Math Tournament in the latter part of the year.

We had three students in the class who were eligible to be members of the National Forensic League. They were Emmett Clark, Carol Clark, and Ande Clark.

The following boys were chosen to be Junior Rotarian of the Month: Jack Gilbert, Larry Powers, Emmett Clark, Fred Elliott, Ande Clark, Tome McIntosh, Ike Huff, and Tommy Holshouser.

Those representing the seniors on the student council were: Ande Clark, Fred Elliott, and Gale Kelley.

Many new clubs were organized at Lone Oak this year. The Beta Club which is an honorary club, as organized with the help of Mr. Blackburn, who was the sponsor. The seniors who were eligible for this honor were: Lyndol Baumgardner, Ande Clark, Carol Clark, Emmett Clark, Fred Elliott, Ike Huff, Gale Kelley, Bobbie Knott, Danette Littleton, Tome McIntosh, Patty Miller, Larry Powers, Carolyn Reeves, Joe Sanderson, Molly Trainor, Phyllis Whitmer and Larry Yates. Other clubs and their senior officers were: Tri-Hi-Y — President, Molly Trainor; Jan Nolte, District Manager of Tri-Hi-Y. Hi-Y — President, Tommy Holhouser; Treasurer, Jack Gilbert; Sgt.-At-Arms, Bennie Brown and Tony Harris. FHA — President, Gale Kelley; Reporter, Sherron Slusmeyer. FFA — President, Tome McIntosh; Vice President, Jerry Houser; Treasurer, Carrell Childress; Reporter, Smitty Simons. FBLA — President, Phyllis Whitmer; Vice President, Linda Saucier; Secretary, Joyce Kennerly; Treasurer, Shirley Gott; Reporter, Frances Hamm. Music — President, Danette Littleton; Vice President, Jon Harrison; Secretary-Treasurer, Rachel Grimes. Foreign Language — President, Patty Miller; Vice President, Kay Williams; Secretary, Carolyn Reeves. Aviation — President, Glen Simmons; Vice President, Ronnie Hodges; Secretary, Sylvia Rogers; Treasurer, Joe Sanderson. Quill and Scroll — President, Carol Clark; Vice President, Sherron James; Secretary-Treasurer, Sue Puckett; Reporter, Phyllis Edwards. First Aid — President, Anna Edwards; Safe Driving — Vice President, Ike Huff. Physical Science — Vice President, Bobbie Knott; Secretary, Gail Holt. Math — President, Lyndol Baumgardner.

The Senior Play, "The Whole Truth" was presented May 10, 1960, under the direction of Mrs. Mary North. The three act comedy was presented by twelve of our class members.

The Journalism classes were responsible for our school newspaper, the "OK", and the "Senior Spotlight." We think they have done a very fine job.

The girls taking roles as devoted wives were: Shirley McManus Gott, Nancy James, and Joyce Harper Kennerly.

The highest honors that can be bestowed to any person, are to be Valedictorian and Salutatorian. This year Ande Clark and Molly Trainor were our Valedictorians, and Phyllis Whitmer was our Salutatorian.

We are very grateful to all our sponsors and teachers that we have had during the last four years. Without their supervision and patience our years would not have been successful ones.

There will always be a warm spot in our hearts for Lone Oak High School, its principal, teachers and students. We the 1960 Senior class leave with them best wishes and good luck for the future.

Class Prophecy

It is now 1970 and we are the first to land on the moon. As we look back, we see all our former classmates leading their humdrum lives from day to day down on that small planet called Earth.

Down Mexico way, we see Larry Scoggins running a hot tamales stand. Assisting him in his prosperous business is Norman McGregor. Acting as temporary car hop is Shirley Riley. Marcella Rudd, the regular car hop, will be back in a short time after having taken a thirty days' vacation in Tia Juana.

Just across the border in El Paso Jack Gilbert, Tony Harris, and Patty Miller are all working in the oil fields. It seems that Beverly Hunt's oil wells have over flowed again and ruined their pastures.

Working in the cotton fields of Alabama are, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Powers (Gale Kelley) and all twelve of their little cotton pickers.

La Grange, Georgia is the location of The Knotty Pine Reducing Salon. None other than Bobby Knott is the proprietor. On taking a tour of the salon, we see Larry Yates sweating it out in the steam room. Exercising with bar bells are Rachel Grimes and Sylvia Rogers.

In Corinth, Mississippi, we see Tommy Holsouser, Justice of the Peace, preparing to perform another one of his shotgun weddings. Phyllis Edwards was used as witness but Tommy had to fire her because of her high salary. He has now gone back to using "HARVEY."

Joe Pat Brittain has reached his peak of success. He always wanted to design cars, so he is now working on the assembly line in Chrysler Corporation. He screws the loose nuts down on the carburetor. Fredricka Hawes is the private secretary to the Chrysler Corporation's BIG executive, Bobbie Sullivan.

Relaxing on the placid waters of Lake Michigan are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Purcell (Sue Chambers) in their new yacht. Acting as chief cook and bottle washer is Paul Pippin. Poor thing has so many bottles to wash with the four sets of twins of the Purcells'.

Looking very stately in his Mounted Police uniform is Ande Clark. He is on the trail of the famed Volkswagen Kid, Shirley Atkins.

As we look over the government of the country, we see some of our classmates as politicians. Phyllis Whitmer is the governor of Kentucky.

On a deserted street in Fargo, North Dakota, there is a small veterinary office where Carrel Childress, the able veterinarian, is operating on Mrs. Eddie Gamblin's (Sharon James) French poodle.

Back in Melber, Kentucky, we see Lawrence Otey as organist at the Melber Baptist Church. Acting as the choir director is John Houser. It seems as though the choir can never please John.

Melber has grown considerably. There are five able bodied men on the street cleaning detail. They are: Ike Huff, Luther Green, Jerry Adams, and Donald Powers. Their executive is Louis Tubbs.

In Paducah, Virginia Wilson, Ronnie Baldree, and Julia Ingram are still circling Sims trying to find someone to join the beatniks with them. Since Eddie works most of the time, they have almost persuaded Joyce Kennerly to join.

A new business establishment is open in Paducah. Michael Presley has opened "The Pad." His waitresses are: Sue Puckett and Betty Reynolds. His dancing bouncer is Jerry Sullivan.

Teaching school is Frances Hamm. Her psychology class is now examining the inner most part of Buddy Bell's brain.

Working on the staff of the Sun-Democrat is Wayne Andrews. He is the head sports editor. Orlane Darnell is the society editor. She is now publishing a new section for the designs by Betty Poat.

Wandering from our homeland again, our eyes catch a familiar sight on the corner of Main Street in Nashville. It is none other than Johnnie Davis selling comic books. He no longer rents the stand from Molly Trainor; he bought her out.

Joe Sanderson and Joe Alexander are partners in a very successful business. The sign says "Sanderson and Alexander, Pawn Brokers."

In a small dusty town on the great plains, Smitty Simons and Jerry Houser are dealers in junk. Linda Saucier lives just across the road. Her main purpose in life is to patch up old inner tubes for Smitty and Jerry.

Kay Williams always was a peach. Her great ambition was to own a large peach orchard in Georgia. She finally got her wish. Larry Davis, Ronnie Hodges, and Donald Massey are her peach-pickers.

Flowers! Flowers! cried Anna Edwards. She is now making her living as a flower vender on the streets in Birmingham. She is married to a garbage collector and they have three lovely children. They cannot afford a sitter, so her god friend, Velma Bechtold, does it for nothing.

Tommy McIntosh has a mink ranch near Denver, Colorado. He makes and processes all the fur coats. They are modeled by four former classmates of ours: Frances Adams, Betty Clark, Kay Gordon, and Jan Nolte.

Robert O'Brien is now a wine merchant for the California Winery. Employed as taste tester is Junior Overstreet. (Imagine that!)

Cape Canaviral is very busy now. They are preparing Irvin Tucker and Larry Vaughn to go around the world in 80 seconds.

"A ballerina she will always be" is what people used to say about Linda Spears. True enough, she is now touring the country with the Chicago Ballet.

Martha Thompson is a cook in the cafeteria at the De La Salle School for Boys in Detroit, Michigan.

Peeking out from under his jockey's cap is Ronnie Charlton. He has just won the Hialeah Sweepstakes, riding one of Clifton Buchanan's fine horses. The trainer, Victor Carmichael just walked up to congratulate them. I see Eugene Littleton walking up to the $5.00 window. Oh, that sad look.

Down in a small kindergarten, we see Mrs. North's Romper Room. Darrell Crews and Gale Holt are listening to the Story Book Hour while they finish up their bookkeeping.

Janette Herndon is living in California. She sends her twins to the McNeil School of Acting. Faye McNeil is the owner. Her leading man is Tommy Walters. Glenn Simmons is the producer and the director. He likes to wear the big sun glasses.

Marcia Fitzsimmons and Myra Robertson are living at Ft. Campbell, Kentucky. Myra is teaching little paratroopers and Marcia is working in the hospital there.

Terry Wyatt and Maggie Hayes run a nice club. It is for sweet little old ladies. Any of the old maids who want to join may contact Maggie and Terry.

Shirley Gott is a happy housewife and mother. She has seven little Gotts and is expecting triplets.

Sara Ross and Betty Vaughn are librarians in Hong Kong. It seems they won a trip there on the famous television quiz program, "I Choose You." The tickets were only one way, we are sorry to say.

Schools are well blessed out in Arizona. Lyndol Baumgardner is teaching spelling. Lyndol always said, "All is well that ends well."

Carol Clark and Edward Harmon are doing well in the field of science. They are experimenting with a drug that will make miniature cats.

Sandy Moore is issuing driver's license now. She likes to meet the young people. Shirley Myrick runs the concession stand in the McCracken County Courthouse.

As we travel around the earth, visibility is becoming more dim and we can no longer recognize the people which still inhabit the earth and what they are doing, however, it was an unexpected pleasure for us to look into the lives of our classmates on earth.

Senior Class Will

Ladies and Gentlemen, Board of Education, Principal, Teachers, and Friends. In this year 1960, the United States has decided to make one last nuclear test. The Senior Class has given themselves as guinea pigs to help science learn what the effects will be on humans. Before we give ourselves to this test, we, the Senior Class of 1960, wish to draw up this last will and testament to divide and distribute all our earthly possessions.

I

To the classes that follow, we bequeath our undying will to become educated, and we leave our will to make better, not only our school, but also our country.

II

To the Junior Class we leave our class spirit, and our ability to proceed on despite failures and hardships.

III

To the Sophomore Class we bequeath our ability to become Seniors, and our ability to obtain the most of any situation.

IV

To the Freshmen Class we will the ability to make the right decisions in becoming Seniors.

V

To the Eighth Grade we leave the ability to acquire an adult mind and be a model high school student.

VI

To Mr. Robinson and the faculty of Lone Oak we leave our deepest and sincerest gratitude for being such understanding people in helping us struggle through our twelve years of school.

Hereby: the 109 undersigned people being of sound mind and body, do bequeath the following earthly possessions.

I, Frances Adams, will my scatter brained brain to any junior who has the time to keep going back after things they've forgotten and looking for things they've lost.

I, Carol Clark, will my 3 hours a day with Mr. Crooks and 2 hours a day with Mrs. McCracken to anyone who is willing to work.

I, Jan Nolte, will my ability to say the preamble to the Constitution for talking in study hall, to any junior who talks as much as I do.

I, Sue Puckett, will my ability to eat any kind of fattening food I want, anytime I want, and still not gain a pound, to Sharon Wetton in hopes she may continue to do so too.

I, Gail Holt, being of weak and unstable mind, do hereby will my ability to Kay Hartwell, to get into more messes than possible, but somehow manage to get out.

I, Velma Bechtold, will to Phyllis Byrd my seat in Shorthand in hopes that she will fulfill it a whole year.

I, Danette Littleton, having great patience and a profound capacity to endure, do hereby will to Judy Womble, my position on the cheerleading squad with high hopes and great expectations that she may have better luck in her association with Becky (BB) Johnson than I did!

We, Myra Robertson, Frances Hamm, and Ann Fitzsimmons, will all of the good times that we have had together this year to any three juniors who are as good friends and who have as much in common as we.

I, Phyllis Whitmer, will my scholastic average due to long hours of hard study every night of the week to any junior who is dumb enough to do the same.

I, Shirley Riley, will my ability to skip study hall and never get caught but once to any junior.

I, Betty Vaughn, will my bookkeeping book to any junior who can understand it.

I, Linda Spears, will my bottom locker to any junior who doesn't mind getting hit on the head.

I, Melinda Brown, will the ability to sit in Journalism class all year chewing gum without having to write sentences to Sharon Bouland.

I, Rachel Grimes, being of a very shrewd character, will to Gayle Crews and Janet Wyatt the ability to have 7th period study hall under Mr. Hurley, so that my boyfriend can come to see me at 2:30.

I, Sheron James, will my ability to receive an engagement ring during my senior year, to Sandy Davis, in high hopes Jimmy will present her with one when she reaches that stage in life.

I, Faye McNeil, will to Wilma Schmitt my ability to be able to go steady with two guys without getting caught.

I, Beverly Hunt, will all my good luck and fortune I've had this year to anyone brave enough to want it.

I, Sylvia Rogers, will my place as soloist on Temples Eternally to Laverne Kindred in hopes that she will do a better job of it than I did.

I, Shirley Gott, will to my sister the good times that I have had as a senior.

I, Patty Miller, will to Jane Alexander, my glasses since I won't be needing them any more, in hopes she can use them to find a boyfriend like Ronny.

I, Elaine Hayes, will my ability to keep my books straight to any junior who is unlucky enough to get a locker partner who is constantly getting her books mixed up.

I, Shirley Myrick, will my ability to chew gum in Mrs. McCracken's study hall without being caught, to any junior stupid enough to try it.

I, Sara Ross, will my typewriter No. 9 to the senior next year who is stupid enough to accept it.

I, Phyllis Kay Edwards, of unsound mind and body, will the intelligence I didn't get to any junior who might need it.

I, Bobbie Theron Sullivan, will to Pencil David Shelton, one-half of my fat and my lockers that I have never used.

I, Paul Pippin, will my ability to get a top locker for four years to anyone who thinks they have enough pull to do so.

I, Tommy Walters, will my place in 7th period English to any junior who wants it.

I, Buddy Bell, will to any junior who wants it the privilege of being elected the Loudest Senior.

I, Carrell Childress, with weak mind and sound body, will my seat in bookkeeping to "anyone" who can get away with as much foolishness in Bookkeeping as I did.

I, Kenneth Green, being of broken down, beyond repair, mental condition and, huge, blob physical condition, will if you will.

I, Glenn Simmons, will all of my past success in high school to each and every freshman hoping they will succeed greater than I.

We, Larry Davis and Wayne Andrews, being prisoners in the dungeon of Chillon at fourth period, will to any hungry junior boys, our hopeless fight of talking Mrs. McCracken and Mr. Desilvestro into leaving early for lunch.

I, Victor Carmichael, will to any junior my ability to listen and study hard but learn little.

I, Norman McGregor, will my seat in Mr. Desilvestro's 3rd Period study hall to anyone who enjoys interesting conversations.

I, Benjamine Brown, being of brilliant mind, sound body and above average sportsmanship, do hereby will my ability to keep my head and temper and restrain from fighting while participating in sporting events associated with our beloved school, to Ron Queen Alexander.

I, Phillip Clark, will my place in Safe Driving Club to Billy Yates.

I, Ande Clark, will to the Seventh graders the foresight that they may realize what they don't know and do something about it before they become seniors.

I, Tommy McIntosh, being hyperdomentional and passing my senior year only through valiant efforts of my teachers to pound abstruse knowledge into my adamant head, do leave Dear Ole Lone Oak High School with a bellicose attitude and a drastic past involving many scandals.

I, Larry Powers, refuse to will because I need everything I have and I fear if I did will something the beneficiary would not accept it.

I, Jack Gilbert, will my senior books to myself because it looks like I'll be needing them next year. McCracken.

I, Larry Yates, being of small mind and large body, will my ability to tear out transmissions to anyone who wants it.

I, Jerry Houser, will my ability to get out of Mr. D's Class to anyone smart enough to go to town every evening to get a suit.

I, Smitty Simons, will my ability to own the oldest car ('35 chevy) in high school to anyone who is unfortunate enough to want it.

I, Clifton Buchanan, guess I will.

I, Fred Elliott, will to anyone who will be appreciative, my good fortune of having such wonderful friends during my school life.

I, Kenneth Rushing, will my English book to Johnny Overton in hopes he can do better than I.

I, Tony Harris, will Lone Oak High School to the termites due to the fact that they're the biggest part of it already.

I, Wilford Davenport, will to Larry Peck and Billy Herzog my '48 Ford Bomb because it looks like one exploded in it and hope they have better transportation to school than I did.

I, Ronnie Charlton, hereby will my ability to drag race in front of school, get caught in front of school, and not get sent to the office, to Billy Yates who will probably need it.

I, Raymond Purcell, will my two years Junior English to Don Tabor.

I, Ernie Owen, will to any junior who needs one, my six feet eight inch, two-hundred and fifty pound body guard, Brad Grey.

I, Jerry Sullivan, in my last will and testament do will to all the juniors my Journalism Book and my great Journalistic ability.

I, Nancy James, will my superlative standing as Lady Beautiful to Judy Reynolds.

I, Joyce Kennerley, will my office as secretary in F.B.I.A. to any deserving junior who thinks they can keep up with what happens during the meetings as I never did.

I, Kay Ann Gordon, will to Glenda Courtney my ability, to get in more jams and then somehow to work out of them.

I, Oriane Darnell, will my ability to run around with girls like Sherron, Joyce, and Frances and still keep my sanity to anyone who is fortunate enough to have such good friends.

I, Carolyn Reeves, will miss Mr. DeSilvestro's 3rd Period S. H. (Social Hour).

I, Molly Trainor, will my ability to turn the chemistry lab's faucets off to any chemistry student who can get wetter in one period than I.

I, Sherron Slusmeyer, will my ability to go through high school and have all good study hall teachers and then my senior year end up with Mr. Crooks to anybody who likes to talk and wander around as much as I do.

We, Shirley Atkins, Julia Ingram, Ronnie Bal-dree, and Virginia Wilson, will Lone Oak High School to anyone who can run it as smoothly as we have.

COMPLIMENTS OF JUNIOR CLASS

I, Terry Wyatt, will to Mr. Blackburn a door knob in hopes he will keep it in case the one in the Sociology room is ever missing again.

We, Barbara Puckett, Marcella Rudd, and Betty Reynolds, will to the three juniors of our crowd, Sandy Cole, Judy Reynolds, and Sylvia Taylor, the ability to get along with each other after we're gone.

I, Fredricka Hawes, will to Ginger Bean my ability to get through senior English under Mr. DeSilvestro and not fail.

I, Betty Clark, will my list of books to Shirley Housden in hopes that she gets more read than I did.

I, Gale Kelley, will my ability to major in extracurricular activities in high school to anyone who is able to afford enough shoes to qualify.

I, Kay Williams, do hereby will my ability to argue with Gale Kelley everyday in Sociology about politics and segregation to anyone who has a friend that is a Republican and an intergrationist.

I, Linda Saucier, do hereby will my crown to the lucky girl who is chosen basketball queen next year.

I, Sandy Moore, will my locker to anyone who can keep a boy like Tony Harris from filling it full of his old papers.

I, Jeanette Hendron, will my ability to get my bookkeeping in on time to my brother, Robert Herndon, in hopes he can do better.

I, Betty Poat, will to Shirley Rushing a place on the cheerleading team that I didn't have in hopes you may have better luck than I did.

I, Sue Chambers, will my seat in Mrs. North's Romper Room to any deserving junior.

I, Martha Thompson, will my English Literature book to any junior who can understand some of the stories in it.

I, Anna Edwards, will my bottom locker to Phyllis Byrd, in hopes that she has a football helmet to protect her head.

I, John Thomas Holshouser, being of unsound mind, body and everything else, do hereby bequeath my ability to talk my teachers out of almost anything, to Billy Hopwood, because he has two more years to go.

I, Robert O'Brien, will to Johnny Overton and Taylor Phelps one pack of Salem cigarettes in hopes that they will quit bumming their favorite brand from me.

I, Robert Knott, will my well-used, worn out books, my ability to have a good time, talk constantly and never get caught, that is most of the time, and my ability to get my lessons, to Nickey Cloyes.

I, Bobby Anderson, will my ability to sleep in Mr. Crooks' class to anyone who can get by with it.

I, Lyndol Baumgardner, will leave Mrs. McCracken a bunch of Golden Rods.

I, Lawrence Otey will my ability to write 2,000 sentences in Mr. Crooks class to whoever is dumb enough to write them.

We, Jerry Adams and Donald Powers, will if you will.

I, Mike Presley, will to any junior boy with a car my parking place that I never can find.

I, Jr. Overstreet, will my crepe sole shoes to anyone who has the honorable Mr. Crooks in study hall.

I, Jon Harrison, being of sound body and mind, will to James Littlejohn my ability to go to lunch early every day all through high school.

I, Emmett Clark, will my ability to flunk French tests and still pass to anyone stupid enough to take French I or II under Mrs. McCracken, namely John Bouland.

I, Ronni: Hodges, being of larger body than mind, do hereby will to the junior class our loveable English teacher Neville McCracken.

I, Joe Pat Brittain, will $3,000,000 a small part of my fortune, to the decrepit teachers of Lone Oak for retirement. And they are lucky I didn't cut them off completely!

I, Danny Tubbs, will my will to Donnie Tabors in hopes that he will will my will to someone who truly deserves it.

I, Larry Scoggins, of sound mind, will to the juniors my senior teachers.

I, John Houser, do hereby will my ability to pester Mr. DeSilvestro and have a total of 2,000 points taken off my grade to "Fats Jon."

I, Johnnie Davis, being of sound mind (?) leave what is left of the physics lab, when I am finished with it, to all the students who are going to take physics next year.

I, Ike Huff, will to Johnny Overton, my seat at the end of the bench on the basketball team.

I, Edward Harmon, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will to Taylor Phelps my seat in Mrs. McCracken's first period English class.

I, Joe Sanderson, being of weak mind from locker doors, will to Jim Johnston all of my senior text books, if he has enough money to pay for them.

I, Luther Green, being of unsound mind and body, will to Walter Campbell my ability to make C's every six weeks and still fail English.

I, Irvin Tucker, will Mr. DeSilvestro back to the Navy.

I, Don Massey, will to anyone my ability to skip 4th period English.

I, Eugene Littleton, being of little mind and weak body, will my Journalism Book to Joe Gill in hopes that he can get away with as much as I tried and still make passing grades.

I, Larry Vaughn, will my ability to ship school 6th period.

I, Joe Thomas Alexander, will my ability to be the last one to turn my will in, to William Arthur Palmer.

I, Darrell Crews, being of strong body and weak mind, will my ability to turn my will in after Joe Alexander to anyone who thinks Joe will be here next year.

And we do hereby constitute and appoint the said Principal, Mr. John Robinson, sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, We, the Class of 1960, the human guinea pigs, have to this will set our hands and seal this seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixty.
