Dedicatory

"To Know Him, Was To Love Him".

We the senior class of Lone Oak High School have known and loved him, and because of this we wish to dedicate the sixth annual "Senior Spotlight" to the memory of Randy Carr, who lost his life in an accident January 13, 1961.

To The Senior Class of 1960-'61

You are one of the best classes that has ever graduated from Lone Oak High School. Each of you has a fine family and a wonderful background. You have been brought up in one of the best communities and best schools in our land. You have lived in a good State, and the greatest country in the world. With all these things each of you should make a great success in life. I personally, wish each of you happiness and success.

Sincerely,

JOHN ROBINSON

Class History

The history of our class is not unlike the history of other classes, yet to us it has a special significance. In reading our history, may each member of the class recall pleasant incidents that have gone into the shaping of this history, and may those who are not members of our class recall pleasant memories of their own school days.

We began our high school careers as Freshmen in 1957. We didn't know where to go or what to do, but somehow we managed. To lead us as class officers, we elected Sam Riley, Johnny Overton, Sheila Winters, and Shirley Rushing.

Our sponsors were: Mr. Felix Holland, Miss Lucille Peeples, Mrs. Jo Lovett, and Mr. Garvice Douglas. Cheerleaders chosen from our class were: Pam Leeper, Shirley Rushing, and Janice Boaz.

As we entered our Sophomore year, we began to feel at home. We had as our sponsors: Mrs. Jo Henderson, Mrs. Alberta Gill, Mr. Lester Goheen, and Mrs. Gwen Helfer.

Our officers were: Dick Thompson, president; Charles Shields, vice-president; Donna Kay Englert, treasurer; and Kay Hartwell, secretary. Pam Leeper, Laverne Kindred, and Shirley Rushing represented our class as "B" team cheerleaders that year. We were also well represented on the ball team.

In our Junior year we presented the play "Headin' for a Weddin'" which was a great success. Our sponsors were: Mr. Elbert Crooks, Mrs. Zitell Gohzen, Mrs. Zula Edwards, Mr. Jack Blackburn, and Mr. Jess Hall, Jr. We elected Dick Thompson president again, Danny Kelley vice president, Dianne Hastings secretary, and Donna Kay Englert treasurer.

Laverne Kindred was an "A" team cheerleader that year. Varsity ball players from our class were: Taylor Phelps, Charles Dallas, and Jim Johnston.

One of the main tasks of the year was the annual magazine drive in which we earned money to entertain the Seniors at the banquet. Our banquet and prom were very successful. This was the first year that the parents had planned all-night activities for prom night.

At times we thought it would never arrive, but finally our Senior year came. Even as we entered our Senior year, graduation seemed to be far distant.

Our sponsors were: Mrs. Mary North, Mrs. Neville McCracken, Mr. Garvice Douglas, Mrs. Alena Cole, and Miss Wylma Stewart. Dick Thompson was elected president for the third consecutive year. Working with him were: Garry Blagg as vice-president, Dianne Hastings as secretary, and Donna Kay Englert as treasurer.

Charles Dallas, Charles Shields, Johnny Overton, Jim Johnston, and Taylor Phelps played varsity basketball. Pam Leeper and Laverne Kindred were cheerleaders.

We presented the play "Almost Summer" under the direction of Mrs. Mary North.

The Junior class entertained us with the annual banquet and prom. Again all-night activities were enjoyed by all.

While Seniors, we chose as our motto "In ourselves the future lies." Our colors are red, white, and blue, and our class flower is the red rose.

In all four years of high school, our class was well represented in the various clubs, having several to serve as officers of these. Many of us will never forget the club conventions. Through our high school years, many of us received awards and honors.

Twenty-four of us have a special love for our Alma Mater, for we started here in the first grade and have been in school here every year since.

Even though at the beginning of our Senior year graduation seemed a long way off, it was surprising how time flew and it was time to make that long march down the gymnasium floor and receive our diplomas.

We will never forget the years of joy, sorrow, success, and failure at Lone Oak High School, or the teachers and friends here who have meant so much to us. We wish all the classes which follow us as much happiness and success as we have enjoyed at Lone Oak High School.

Class Prophecy

Dear Mr. Robinson:

We, Pam Leeper and Kay Hartwell Ligon have been chosen by Harvard University to make a special report for them. In this report we are to tell what the members of our 1960-61 graduating class have accomplished in the last 10 years.

JIMMY TATE has just completed his first major business transaction—that of purchasing the Cabana Club. SAM RILEY, who has worked his way up to manager of Kroger's, has half interest in this venture as a silent partner and bookkeeper. Two more of our former classmates have jobs there. TERRY COLEMAN is combination doorman and bouncer. As cigarette girl, we find SHARON WETTON working her way to the top—top man that is! Currently starring nightly at the club is JOHNNY WALKER whose recording of "Come On To My House" flip side "Never Mind I'll Come to Yours" is now the number one song on WKYB's Top Fifty-seven.

Speaking of WKYB we want to tell you that BILLY HERZOG is now the head disc jockey and DAVID EMERSON is newscaster. Working in the control room is BILL PALMER.

LOREE FAITH has just been named City Editor of the Sun-Democrat. SHIRLEY RUSHING is the Sports Editor and CHARLOTTE SINQUEFIELD has her own column on the Values of Art.

WILMA SCHMITT and JUDY BRYAN are working in the front office at WPAD. TAYLOR PHELPS is now playing the role of Captain Ebb Tide on the ever-popular Popeye series.

FAYE FOSTER Dixon and BRENDA JEFFERS are both going similar yet separate ways. Their husbands have made a career out of the armed services—Fay's the Army and Brenda's the Air Force.

On recruiting posters all over the country we see the picture of JACK OSBORNE who has made a sensational career out of the Army.

JERRY HINES and LARRY PECK are becoming successes at national and international rodeos. In a fast draw contest one day Jerry pulled the trigger before he got his gun out of the holster and shot his foot. Attending the rodeo and coming to his rescue was DR. DONNA KAY ENGLERT, now a skilled surgeon.

Mrs. Garry Blagg, the former CAROLYN CLYMER is home making Clymer's famous pizzas while her husband, GARRY, is out in the Pacific commanding a submarine.

Miss PATTY CROSLY is in New York on a buying trip for Watkins. While there she will probably see JANE ALEXANDER and KAREN EBY. Karen is starring at the Metropolitan Opera House and Jane has gained great fame at a ballet star. The Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra is directed by CHERYL CUNNINGHAM.

On her way around New York Patty may run into LLOYD HOUSMAN who is a very successful painter. His last well-known painting is that of the Empire State Building which he started immediately after our graduation.

At the airport in New York, we find KENNETH HARPER and LARRY WILKINS returning from a big hunting expedition in South Africa. Their guide for the expedition was ANN STRONG who could even fight her way out of the jungle single-handed. Kenneth had seen FRANCIS PIPPIN and CAROLYN NANNEY as missionaries in Africa and said that they were successful in training the natives to be civilized.

The pilot of the airplane was none other than JERRY DREADON. His co-pilot was C. A. BELL. NANCY CRAVER was the airline stewardess.

In another part of the world we find JOE GILL and STEVE ELLIOTT selling hot tamales in Cuba. LARRY COLE and J. B. CHAMPION are making plans to overthrow the Cuban dictator DON BRINDLEY who is presently under the psychiatric care of DIANNE HASTINGS.

Back in the United States at Cape Canaveral we find rocket engineer ALICIA ENGLERT preparing to send our fiftieth monk . . . I mean man, JERRY JETT into space. Calling out the count down and still a clock-watcher is JOHNNY OVERTON. Yes, you guessed it, the rocket was delayed because Johnny had to comb his hair between 5 and 4.

Also in Florida we find CHARLES SHIELDS managing his five fruit farms as well as his five children.

In Miami Beach we find the largest beauty salon in the country being operated by SANDY COLE Gilbert and her famous hair styling husband, Freddie.

We seem to have quite a few of our former classmates in Florida. As the head basketball coach at the University of Florida we find JIM JOHNSON.

JUDY JOHNSON and BETTY HOOK are life guards at a popular Tennis Club and teach surf board lessons in their spare time.

Speaking of clubs, we hear that PAUL JETT now owns the Paducah Country Club where he is champion golfer. BILLY RITCHIE and TERRY LAWRENCE are following in his footsteps—caddying for him that is.

As co-owner of A & W Root Beer, MARTHA WYATT Jeffrey has just hired two of our former classmates, PHYLLIS BYRD and DONNA HARDING as car-hops.

Nearby at Cardinal Lanes, we found DALE STRATTON as pinboy.

Speaking of pins, DON TABOR and DORA KAY TAYLOR are setting pins too. In baby diapers that is.

At City Hall, DORTHA DYKES is now a police woman. Her duty at the present time is giving drivers tests.

GINGER BEAN is court stenographer under County Judge TROY BARKLEY. CHARLES DALLAS has just been appointed chief highway engineer under Kentucky's new governor DICKIE THOMPSON.

DANNY KELLEY is now the State Superintendent of Schools and has recently revised the complete educational system. He advocates a twelve-month school year. He seems to be having trouble with elementary school teacher, LINDA SHEPHARD who likes long vacations.

BETTY WEITLAUF is now in charge of the Betty Crocker Foods Kitchen and does many demonstrations for television.

Since her life's dream has finally come true, we found LAVERNE KINDRED Brown spending much time in the kitchen feeding her ten little Browns.

As we passed a newstand we happened to notice CLARINDA KRINARD'S picture on the cover of Hot Rod magazine. She was recently nominated as Best Driver of the Year in the Indianapolis Speed Race.

ANNA HARDING and DIANNE KENNERLEY were judges at the World's Fair in New York for the Talking Marathon which was won by WANDA CRUSE.

SHARON BOULAND and husband Ted were in charge of announcing the International Championship Basketball game at the World's Fair. JUDY VINCENT was in charge of the International Style Show and the model representing the United States was SYLVIA TAYLOR.

We were happy to hear that DR. NICKEY CLOYES and DR. LARRY JOHNSON were both nominated for the Noble Science Award for their outstanding work in Chemistry and Physics. It is a known fact that Nickey has one of the largest and most well-equipped laboratories in the world.

LARRY WILLIAMS now owns a chain of drug stores and ROBERT HERNDON is a soda jerk for Larry's store in Lone Oak.

MARY JANE WESSON, JUDITH LAMM and VADIS OTEY are drug store clerks and still trying to finish college in between having children.

JIM MITCHELL is owner of the Foster Farms in Mayfield where BEVERLY PIPPIN is employed as his bookkeeper. WALTER CAMPBELL is in charge of the dairy part of Jim's farm and he and GENE ADAMS milk 114 cows daily.

As you can readily tell, Mr. Robinson, the Lone Oak class of 1960-61 have all accomplished much in working toward the goals they have set in their lives. As far as we know, we have found no bad reports on any of our former classmates.

KAY, who is now teaching school in Southern Illinois, and myself, an elementary teacher in Western Kentucky, have greatly enjoyed compiling this report of our former classmates.

Before sending this report to Harvard, we thought you would enjoy reading it.

Sincerely,

Kay Hartwell Ligon and Pam Leeper

Senior Class Will

Ladies and Gentlemen, Distinguished Guests, Faculty and Friends:

In the school year of 1960-61, many spectacular events have taken place. The Soviet Union sent the first man into space and brought him safely home. A new administration came into power in the White House with the election of President John Kennedy. We, as Seniors, have come to realize that the world of today could be completely demolished. We see the need for shaking ourselves from our complacent way of life and accepting, in part, the responsibilities for spreading the idea of democracy. We have taken on new goals. As Seniors we have recognized our national goal and have consecrated ourselves to it.

As the Seniors of 1960-61 leave this school to follow our respective paths, we would like to leave to its inhabitants the following ideas as expressed by each individual in his will.

I, Shirley Rushing, do hereby will my seat in bookkeeping under George Washington's picture to any Junior who thinks they can sit there and cheat and not have a guilty conscience.

I, Pam Leeper, will to anyone who thinks they may need it, my ability to go through three years of trials under Mrs. Goheen and one under Mrs. McCracken and still love them.

I, Phyllis Byrd, with unsound mind, will to any Junior the ability to keep girls like Judy Johnson and Betty Hook from storing their Coke bottles in my locker.

I, Dick Thompson, will my wonderful experiences and friends, to anyone next year who can appreciate them so much as I do.

I, Ann Strong, will my watch to any individual who can be late on time as many times as I have been in my twelve years of school.

I, Jerry Dreadon, will to any capable Junior the pleasure of putting up with Miss Stewart two classes in succession.

I, Donna Harding, do hereby will what little brains I have to be left to any Junior who thinks he can stretch them into seven periods. (As I couldn't)

I, Larry Johnson will but they won't.

I, Donna Jeanne Yates, will my position as advertising manager on the Oak "K" to my friend, Carole Smith, in hopes that she does a better job than I.

I, Kenneth Harper, being of sound mind and body will my position of Mr. Flirt to anyone in the Junior class that thinks they are worthy of this great honor.

I, David Emerson, will my ability to be named "Mr. Apple Polisher" without being "duly" deserving to Houston Godfrey.

I, Jack Osborne, being of large body and questionable mind, will if I can.

I, Taylor Phelps, will my ability to get my beauty sleep in study hall to David Nelson. He needs it.

I, Walter Campbell, being of sound body and mind will my seat in Miss Stewart's class to anyone who wants to learn good English.

I, Robert Herndon, will if I can.

I, Jerry Hines, will my seat in second period study hall to Jimmy Bruce. The table is not as hard as his head so he should be able to sleep pretty well.

I, Joe Gill, will my 500 acres of farming land on an 8 x 10 sheet of paper to any boy in agriculture that thinks he can make better than $300 per acre profit by raising hogs and corn.

I, Laverne Kindred, will my ability to know everything that goes on at Lone Oak High School and have my nose in three-fourths of it to my favorite Junior, Carol Wells.

I, Charles Dallas, will my seat in Mrs. McCracken's Honors English class to any Junior who thinks he knows English well enough to pass.

I, Clarinda Krinard, will my pig embryo to any future advance biology student who likes the smell of formaldehyde.

I, Larry Williams, will Jimmie Harris a place in Miss Stewart's English class, he deserves it.

I, Larry Cole, will my seat in Office Practice to any Junior who can do as little as I did.

I, Paul Jett, being nearly of sound mind, will to Jimmy Harris my ability in Math.

I, Anna Joyce Harding, being of strong body and sound mind do hereby will my ability to get a top locker all four years of high school to any Junior who can be that lucky.

I, Dora Kay Taylor, will to anyone unlucky enough to have my luck at getting a bottom locker every year like I have.

I, Jerry Jett, will to any Junior kid my Practice Set in hopes hat he will turn it in for me.

I, Gene Adams, will to any Junlor the privilege to have a class under Mrs. North.

I, William A. Palmer, upon my graduating leave to the future students of Lone Oak High School, the finest teachers I have ever known.

I, Kay Hartwell, will to my brother, Charles Hartwell, the toil, sweat, tears, and joys of a wonderful senior year; and to my teachers I give my gratitude and appreciation for all they have done in helping me to accomplish my goals.

We, Judy Johnson and Betty Hook, will our honorable seats in Mrs. Cole's fifth-period "Romper Room" to anyone who thinks they can be as good as we were.

I, Nickey Cloyes, being of sound mind? ? ? will my No-Doz tablets to anyone who needs them as much as I did.

I, Wanda Cruse, will my place in Mrs. McCracken's Spanish class to anyone who can get more out of it than I.

I, Loree Faith, will to all seventh through eleventh graders this one thought, "Prepare now, and learn all you can while in high school so that you will be better equipped to pass from the care free life of a high school student, to the adult responsibilities that you must face upon your graduation from Lone Oak."

I, Sharon Bouland, will to my brother, John Bouland, the wonderful times I have had as a senior, and to my teachers, my thanks and gratitude for the help they have given me in my four years at Lone Oak.

We, Jimmy Tate, Terry Coleman, Sam Riley, Charles Shields and Johnny Overton having sound minds and strong bodies do hereby will our paint brushes to the Senior Class of 1962.

I, Johnny Walker, will my can of paint to go with Jimmy, Terry, Sam, Charles and Johnny's brushes.

I, Frances Pippin, being a very questionable shorthand student, hereby will to any Junior the ability to do things in class not concerning shorthand and get by by saying "Dortha Did It."

I, Nancy Craver, will to anyone who has as many problems as I had or can get in as many "jams" as I did, my good fortune to have a sympathetic friend like Sharon Bouland, sit at my study hall table and solve them for me.

I, Donna Kay Englert, will to Gail Stratton my ability to feel 9 feet tall in my senior year despite my actual 5 feet height.

I, Karon Eby, will to all the Juniors, the happiness and relief of being a senior.

I, Ginger Bean, will to Linda McGregor all my books in hope that they will make it through the fifth year better than our American History book did.

I, Brenda Jeffers, will the ability to have Mrs. North five periods a day and wish I could have her six periods.

I, Jim Mitchell, will to the FBLA some male members for next year's club because of the desperate need in the disaster area.

I, Linda Shepherd, will to any Junior that takes English under Miss Stewart next year, my ability to sit on the last seat on the second row, get caught in a stampede and still be in front in the lunch line.

I, Diann Kennerley, will my locker No. 48 to anyone who can keep it cleaner than I have.

I, Judy Bryan, will not will my will to any Junior because I do not have a will to will.

I, Dortha Dykes, being of unsound mind, will to any Junior who takes shorthand, my ability to say "No" when Mrs. North asks the question "Will you read?"

I, Beverly Pippin, will to any Junior my literature book and hope they do better in it than I.

I, Carolyn Nanny, will to a Junior boy my shorthand book and pad so Mrs. North will not have to go through another year with an all-girl class.

I, Charlotte Anne Sinquefield, will my ability to Sibyl Whittaker and Kathy Goldsmith so that they can try to organize a riding club in the Lone Oak district for all who own and enjoy working with horses.

I, D. C. Brindley, will my favorite teacher Miss Stewart to every Junlor unlucky enough to get her.

I, Alicia Englert, hereby will to Rickie Lyles, and all the other lucky freshmen girls my regrets on leaving them here with all my good-looking freshmen boy friends.

I, Judith Lamm, will my ability to stay in the Beta Club my last two years of high school to my sister, in hopes that she will continue to make higher grades than I.

I, Betty Weitlauf, will to Janice McKenzie my unlucky luck to get a front row center seat in chemistry, be in the main line of fire, dodge flying tin cans, and still recuperate in time to graduate.

I, Wilma Schmitt, will to any Junior who is lucky enough to get a bottom locker and keep it as neat as Linda Shepherd kept hers.

I, Cheryl Cunningham, will a weekly car wash to Mrs. Edwards so she won't gripe about her dirty car to next year's trig. class.

I, Vadis Otey, will my place in Honors English class to any Junior who has the desire to rewrite all through his senior year.

I, C. A. Bell, will my spare "Chevy" parts to Jimmie Harris who really needs them.

I, Don Tabor, will my will to Larry Burnette in hopes that he will will my will to someone who truly deserves my will.

I, Terry Lawrence, will my seat in Mrs. Cole's study hall to anyone that will take it and use it better than I.

I, Steven Elliott, will my ability to buy a car, have it three months, wreck it three times and a woman back into the car to any Junior that wants to try it.

I, Billy Ritchie, will my seat in Mrs. Cole's study hall to the next poor senior.

I, Billy Herzog, being of questionable solicitude, whatever that means, will to Mrs. North a grandfather's clock and a long chain so she can see how late next year's bookkeeping class can arrive each morning.

We, Troy Barkley and Jim Johnston, being of more body than mind, will our ability to go through twelve years of school without having a serious disagreement to any two starting to school this year.

I, Jane Alexander, being of sound body and some mind, will my ability to keep the librarians mad at me to anyone who likes to torment Mrs. Hefler.

I, J. B. Champion, will my seat in English and World History to any Junior who can do better than I.

I, Carolyn Clymer, after being scared to death my freshman year, embarrassed beyond recall at South-Hopkins my sophomore year, being driven to my wits ends by Mr. Crooks my Junior year, and securing locker number 13 my senior year will to any brave Junior my regards and good luck.

I, Dianne Hastings, will to Mrs. McCracken, my trust and faith in the human in hopes that she will have the privilege of making many many cakes.

I, Patty Crosley, will to anyone who will be appreciative, my good fortune to have such wonderful teachers and friends throughout my school life.

We, Sharon Wetton, Sandy Cole, and Sylvia Taylor, do hereby will our seats in music to any deserving girl who thinks she can sit in there and keep her mind on music.

I, Judy Vincent, will the ability to take bookkeeping first semester, then quit bookkeeping second semester, and still have to work on chapters, practice sets and what have you for the rest of the second semester, to Carole Smith, hoping that she will not be crazy enough to take it in the first place.

We, Faye Foster and Danny Kelley, will the wine glasses acquired at the Beta Convention back to the Sheraton Hotel.

I, Larry Peck, will my ability to stumble through the 12 years of school, discovering the last six weeks of school I was blind.

I, Larry Wilkins, will to all the bums in the boys' rest room one pack of cigarettes each.

I, Dale Stratton, will the bottom locker next to the study hall door to any Junior who wants to be hit on the head and back all year.

I, Mary Jane Wesson, will to any Junior girl my ability to work in the office two years and not develop a complex, after hearing everybody's complaints.

I, Martha Wyatt, will to any Junior my ability to make book reports every two weeks in Miss Stewart's English class, without reading the complete book.

I, Lloyd Housman, will my ability to be the last to turn in my will to the slowest Junior.

I, Garry Blagg, being of sound mind and considering what is best for Lone Oak High and the teachers therein do not will any of my abilities to anyone.

Bcsides these gifts, we leave—not of necessity but of our own free will—our blessing, tender memories of our pleasant associations together, and our forgiveness for anything that we may not have exactly appreciated in the demonstrations of the past and a pledge of friendship from henceforth and forever.

And we do hereby constitute and appoint the said Principal sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, We, the testators, have to this our will set our hands and seal this twenty-third day of May, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one.
