INTRODUCING...

It has been the custom to introduce and tell a few facts about each new teacher. In accordance with this custom the following teachers were interviewed. I must say that these new teachers are the most cooperative that I have ever encountered. I would like to thank each one publicly for being so cooperative. It was a pleasure to talk to each and every one of you.

Name: Mr. Robert Ross

I hardly think that Bob needs much introduction at Lone Oak, for he was born, raised, and graduated from Lone Oak, class of 1955. Mr. Ross was born in 1936, which would make him 23, going on 24.

He graduated from Georgetown College holding a Bachelor of Arts degree.

Mr. Ross married the former Barbara Craig. They have one son, Randy, who was born in Nazareth nearly a year ago. He teaches Junior English and speech.

Mr. Richard Petty, although a stranger to us at first, we can no longer say this. I met him for the first time when I interviewed him, but when I left, it seemed like I had been talking to a friend I had known all my life. He has a wonderful personality, of course, I don't have him in class, but I'm sure his students would say the same.

Mr. Petty is 23, and married. His wife, Rita, is the Physical Education teacher at our rival school, "Reidland."

He is from Effingham, Illinois, graduated from Effingham High School, but attended and graduated from our local college, Murray State, with a degree in Bachelor of Music Education.

This is Mr. Petty's first year of teaching as he just returned from the Army. In addition to his choral work at school, Mr. Petty also directs three choirs in Mayfield.

NOTE OF INTEREST: Mr. Petty's pet peeve is gum popping students.

We are also honored to have Miss Wylma Stewart teaching Senior English, Freshman English, World History, and American History. She graduated from Paducah Tilghman High School, then went on to graduate from Murray State with a B.S. degree. This is her first year to teach.

Miss Stewart is presently living at 151 Blandville Road.

Mrs. Mary Beckman has replaced Mrs. Street as an 8th grade teacher. This is not her first year of teaching however, for she has taught at Symsonia, and also for five years at Reidland.

Mrs. Beckman is a native of Symsonia, graduated from Symsonia High School, then got her B.S. degree from Murray.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckman, who live in Cherokee, have three children, all boys, ages 6, (first grade at Lone Oak Elementary), 4, and 1.

Another newcomer to our teaching staff is Mr. David Spahr. The first thing we will say, he is 24, married, his wife's name is June, and they have a little boy who is 2 months old. Mr. and Mrs. Spahr live at 121 Burger Road.

Mr. Spahr is originally from Hayti, Missouri, but graduated with a B.S. from Murray.

LONE OAK BAND

The Lone Oak High School Band was formed officially on September 20, 1960, but planning for the band began a week before school started. In the first stages of planning, Mr. Robinson and I (Mr. Petty) had planned on a forty (40) piece band. Today we have 81 and we are expecting five to ten more by the end of the week.

Getting this many students in the band was achieved by the high interest of the parents, and by a high quality of recruiting. In recruiting these students we tested all the 7th, 8th, and 9th graders. (There are also 3 sophomores in the band.) After testing these students, certificates were sent to the ones who made A's and B's. Then each and every person who was interested in the band was tried out. Post card reminders were sent to the parents about the band, and the personal interviews, were held on Saturday, the 18th, with the band director.

September 19, Monday afternoon, from 3 until 9, instruments were available to rent or buy, according to how the parents wanted to arrange it. The school has bought two French horns, two Bass horns, one Baritone horn, a Bass drum, two field drums, a set of cymbals, and 24 stands.

In the band we have clarinets, flutes, cornets, trombones, basses, baritones, French horns, drums, alto saxophone, tenor saxophone, and we are hoping to have an oboe.

The band will play at ball games and give concerts during the year. Next year the band should be ready to enter contests.

It takes time and money, but if you give the band the proper support, any school can have a band to be proud of.

Mr. Petty

COMMENT: Be looking for the reviews it will have in the SUN-DEMOCRAT in the years to come. We could even bet that it will beat the Tilghman band in contests in the not too far future.

LOREE FAITH NAMED OAK "K" EDITOR

This year's staff of the Oak "K" was selected on Wednesday, September 8. The people who will edit our paper for the 1960-1961 school term were chosen from the senior journalism class and they are now working on plans to make this a better year for your school edition.

Heading the Oak "K" staff as Editor-in-Chief is Loree Faith. Loree is active in N.F.L. and Beta Club. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Faith of Route 1, and was one of the main characters in the Junior Play last year.

Betty Weitlauf is filling the position of Front Page Editor. Betty is active in the Beta Club, home economics and F.H.A. She was also a main character in the Junior Play.

For you sports fans, Jerry Dredon is the person to see, and his sports columns will fill you in on what happened. Jerry also writes the article, "Car of the Month."

Advertising, business and the exchange of papers with other schools, will be handled by Donna Yates, Larry Wilkins and Jack Osborne, respectively.

CALENDAR GIRL

We have chosen for our calendar girl this month, Lavern Kindred. Lavern is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kindred of Conrad Heights.

Lavern is 16 years old, weighs 95 pounds and is 4' 11" tall. Her subjects are: Advanced Government, Advanced Biology, Honors English, Bookkeeping, and A Cappella. Her favorite subject is Advanced Biology.

Lavern is active in her school work and liked by all the students.

Don'ts For High School Students

Don't get to school until 8:04 in the morning, for the tardy bell won't ring until 8:05, and it will give the teacher lots of pleasure to mark you present after having marked you absent.

Don't neglect to slam your locker whenever opportunity permits; there is seldom any commotion in the halls, and such a light noise can't make much difference.

Don't fail to whisper in the study hall: no one goes there for study anyway.

Don't pick up any waste paper you see lying around; leave it wherever it may be, because janitors are hired to pick up scraps of paper, and the smaller the pieces, the more interesting the work.

Don't fail to walk with a heavy tread when coming into the study hall late. This does not disturb those who already are interested in their work.

Don't fail to deposit your gum in the fountains, the sight of it adds much to the pleasure of those who come to drink.

Don't let anyone beat you to the lunchroom when the lunch bell rings; it's your right and privilege to get there first, even if you have to knock several other students down in the rush.

(Central High News, Minneapolis, Minn.)

F.B.L.A. News

During the summer, the F.B.L.A. Club did not hold any business meetings. The only event which occurred was a dinner held at Potter's restaurant. Attending the dinner were the club officers, members, and sponsors, Mrs. North and Mrs. Cole.

If you are a business student, join F.B.L.A. It is a national organization.

Two N.F.L. Students Honored

The first two weeks of June found two Lone Oak students in Athens, Ohio, attending the debate workshop held at the Ohio University. Dianne Hasting, senior, and Gregory Weitzel, junior, represented the year-old speech department from Lone Oak.

Dianne wishes to thank the Lions Club for sponsoring her on this trip. Greg and Dianne both spoke at a meeting of the Lions Club during the summer to explain and relate the happenings of the two week workshop.

Since the twenty-third of July, N.F.L. has held meetings to find and discuss material for the 1960-1961 debate topics. The two were of invaluable help to the others who were just becoming acquainted with the topics which are:

Resolved: That the UN Should Be Significantly Strengthened.

Resolved: That NATO Should Be Placed Under Federal Control.

From The Editor

The time of year has arrived when we must once again buy our pencils and paper and begin to look at the educational side of life. It will be hard to get back in the swing of things after three months of leisure, but have you ever thought that anything worthwhile which you accomplish is hard? If everything in life was easy what a grand world this would be!

To make matters worse, the weather has been insufferably hot. We must realize that it is not only difficult for the students, but it is relatively hard for our teachers.

Instead of griping, raving, and in general, making everyone you associate with miserable, along with you, let us hide our feelings and have a smile and a cherry word for sweating classmates.

THOUGHT—If all the students were like me, what kind of a place would school be?

Sincerely
Loree Faith

It Is Not Easy To—

- apologize,
- begin over,
- take advice,
- admit error,
- be unselfish,
- be charitable,
- be considerate,
- keep on trying,
- profit by mistakes,
- forgive and forget,
- think and then act,
- shoulder a deserved blame,

BUT

It always pays.

Digger O'Dell's Strange Actions

Digger O'Dell has been living in tombs, vaults, under water, in show cases and on flag poles the biggest part of his life. He says he does it just to make a living. He does this sort of thing about three times a year.

Digger was born in Columbus, Georgia, but now makes his home in Daytona, Florida. He is thirty-two years old, isn't married so therefore he has no family.

Digger O'Dell has displayed his strange feats in such places as St. Louis, Missouri, Memphis, Tennessee, and in all parts of Texas.

For a few facts on where he has been and how long. He has been in a concrete vat for as many as thirty-two days. He hopes to break his record this time. Digger spent fifty-seven days under the ground, twenty-six days under water, thirty-three days in a glass show case, and one hundred-nine days atop a flag pole.

Puns About People

By Jack Osborne

Captain John Smith was the first of a long line of Smiths who came to this country to keep up with the Joneses.

Washington: The colonists needed a leader, and who was better known than Washington, whose picture was on stamps and dollar bills. He was also of great physical strength, having cut down a cherry tree when he was a small boy.

Custer and his last stand: The badmen were usually defeated by the goodmen and the redmen by the whitemen, but occasionally there was a temporary setback, this was the permanent setback in the case of Custer, who bravely stood up in plain sight and fought against all sorts of odds, including an indian named Crazy Quilt. His last stand was at a place of uncertain size called Little Big Horn.

John D. Rockefeller: He made his money in oil, which he discovered at the bottom of wells. Oil was crude in those days, but so was he. Now both are considered quiet refined. Almost everyone called him "John D." but a few called him something else but never to his face.

Henry Ford: He manufactured one of the early cars, known as the model T. This led to such modern conveniences as traffic tickets, parking tickets, back seat drivers, and carbon monoxide. In time it came to replace the horse, in every way except in horse meat.

First President: George Washington was the first President and would have stayed in office for life, but he wanted to get out and get some fresh air. Furthermore he had prepared an eloquent farewell address, which he was impatient to deliver.

Alexander Graham Bell: The phone revolutionized American life, and introduced such improvements as the party line, the wrong number, and the busy signal.

The second Adams: John Quincy Adams was the 2nd Adams to become president. He is not to be confused with his father, John Adams, who was the first Adams but the second president, or with his Uncle Sam Adams (who was not the real Uncle Sam, except to his nieces and nephews). It was fortunate for us if not for the second John Adams, that he had the Quincy, which the first John did not.

The Muckrakers were exceedingly fond of muck, which they rake up into larges piles and gazed at admiringly.

The Communists: They owe their origin to Karl, the oldest of the Marx brothers, who described the rest of the world in a book called DAS KAPUT-ALL. Although no one has ever read it, it is widely discussed. Communist go around with clenched fists and thus are terribly hard to shake hands with.

Truman: A not yet classified president: Near the end of World War II, Harry S. Truman stepped into F.D.R.'s shoes, since he had once owned a Haberdashery, he knew that the shoes did not fit, and said so. Truman was an accomplished pianist, but there is a difference of opinion as to what else he accomplished.

SPORTS REVUE

Our sports this month consist of three baseball games. Teams played were Ballard, Heath and Reidland. This marks up three wins for Lone Oak thus far by defeating Ballard 10-6, Heath 8-7, Reidland 3-2. Lone Oak seems to have some up-coming players among the underclassmen. For the benefit of the students who don't know who plays on the ball team they are as follows:

- Pitchers — Jim Johnson - David Shelton
  - Catcher — Jimmy Hicks
  - 1st Base — Jimmy Baumgardner
  - 2nd Base — Ronnie Alexander - Jackie Thompson
  - 3rd Base — Mike Austin
  - Shortstop — Donald Shelton Johnny Overton
  - Left Field — Larry Jarvis - Roy Rushing - Troy Barkley
  - Center Field — Kenneth Grief
  - Right Field — John Bouland
- These are more or less the outstanding players of the Lone Oak baseball team for this year.

Inquiring Reporter

By Larry Wilkins

If you were voting in the Nov. 8 election, would you vote for the individual or for the party? Why?

Kay Hartwell:

I would vote for my party instead of for the "best man" because I have enough knowledge of my party's principles, platform and past history to know they will choose the best suitable man.

Ronnie McIntosh:

I would vote for the candidate because a certain party might not have the right specifications for the office.

Faye Foster:

I don't feel that a person's being a member of a certain political party necessarily makes him qualified to be president, so I would vote for the individual with whose principles and policy I agree.

Kenneth Harper:

I would vote for the best qualified candidate, whose ideals and policy would better benefit our country, because the party may have a platform with which I do not agree, as well as an unqualified candidate.

Mr. Blackburn:

The American political Party is basic to our democracy so if one is to choose, it would have to be the party.

What Is It?

The following people were asked what they would do if they were handed a nautilus.

Taylor Phelps — Go sell it, I need the money

Linda Cole — Scream!

Charles Dallas — Put it over the garage door

Kay Shields — Give it to Mrs. Gill

Bill Palmer — Send it to Russia

Winetta Wilkerson — Get in it and sail

Troy Barkley — Stomp it

Pam Leeper — Ask it questions

Sam Riley — Put it in a watermelon patch

Carolyn Clymer — Give it to Gary

Jimmy Tate — Drink it

Miss Stewart — Refused to answer

Johnny Walker — Give it to Faye

Becky Johnson — Fire it

By the way a nautilus is a snail.

N.F.L. STUDENTS HONORED

We are looking forward to having a very successful debate team this year. State champions in fact. Last year, with only a beginning team, we nearly made state honors, but this year, with the experience we gained last year, should prove to be a highly interesting event.

Anyone interested, particularly freshmen and sophomores, in learning more about debate and speech events, should contact Mrs. McCracken, or any N.F.L.

INTRODUCING . . . .

We might add that Mr. Petty and Mr. Spahr were in the Army together.

Mrs. Joy Cooper took a year off from teaching to begin to raise her family. Rev. and Mrs. Cooper are the parents of a year old boy named James Michel. Rev. Cooper preaches at Calvary Presbyterian on the south side of Paducah.

Mrs. Cooper teaches freshman English.

Mr. Doores was graduated from Kirksey High School, also Murray State College. He holds a B.S. degree, but is working on his M.A.

He has previously taught at Edin, Ohio. Sorry girls, but he's married.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, are newcomers to our community. (Mrs. Sarah Jones teaches an 8th grade class). They are the parents of a 4 year old child. The family presently lives in Fernwood Apartments.

Note: Mr. Jones, a chemical engineer, works with Mrs. Henderson's husband at Carbide.

The next teacher in the spotlight is the 7th grade teacher Miss Vivian Rogers. Miss Rogers, too, is a local yokel, being born in Cunningham, but she went to college at Searcy, Ark., but returned to graduate with a B.A. in English and speech from Murray. She also has 25 hours of library science.

He graduated from Wingo, class of '48, and also from Murray State, 1960.

Mr. Johnson may be a new teacher to Lone Oak, but he has taught school in Graves County for 2 years (Dublin Elementary), Carlisle Co. for 2 years (Milburn High School), and McCracken Co. for 1 semester (Forrestdale Elementary) before coming to Lone Oak.

Mrs. Lucille H. Harris has five children, Mike, 11, goes to Lone Oak Elementary, Tony, 18, attends P.J.C., Larry, 24, goes to St. Anna College in Los Angeles, Frank is a senior at the University of Kentucky, and her daughter, Pat, is Mrs. Don Askland Fullerton.

Mrs. Harris has taught at Lone Oak High, and then at Lone Oak Elementary before coming back to the High School.

We are sorry we were unable to make connections with Mrs. Barker, but we hope to have her biography in the next paper. Mrs. Barker is the seventh and eighth grade music teacher, and also goes over to the grade school to teach the music there, too.
