WINETTA WILKERSON CORONATED

On the night of February 20th, the radiant Miss Winetta Wilkerson was crowned as Basketball Queen of Lone Oak for 1962. Although the ceremony lasted for only a few moments, long hours of work and judgment went into the process of elimination, which began much earlier.

On February 9th, a general election was held for home room representatives. Immediately following this election began the campaigning for class representatives. Each class voted by secret ballot for one of the girls from their respective home room. Each of these girls would actually be a winner for even if they were not elected as queen, they would serve as attendants to the queen in her court. The girls elected to represent their classes were: 7th grade, Julie Hulsey; 8th grade, Dianne Morris; 9th grade representative, Lynda Harris; 10th grade representative, Margaret Knight; 11th grade representative, Kay Shields, and 12th grade representative, Winetta Wilkerson.

On February 16th, the direct voting for queen of the basketball season was held. The day was hectic and nerve wrecking for the nominees. The winner of the title "Basketball Queen" was not announced until an assembly that Friday afternoon. When the announcement was made, the queen, Miss Wilkerson, burst into tears of joy and pride. Her attendants were announced in the following order: 1st attendant, Kay Shields; 2nd attendant, Margaret Knight; and 3rd attendant, Lynda Harris. The other two previously elected attendants were Julie Hulsey and Dianne Morris.

The true glory and honor of Lone Oak's Basketball Queen was not fully shown until the night of February 20th, when the atmosphere in the gymnasium was soft and glowing and brought out the true beauty of the coronation service.

As the court entered, the first to be seen was the varsity cheerleaders and their escorts who are Lone Oak basketball players. Becky Johnson entered, escorted by Roy Rushing; they were followed by Rickie Lyles who was escorted by Jimmie Hicks, and Elaine Shoemaker escorted by Kenneth Grief. The cheerleaders were donned in their uniforms and boasted large mums of purple in a corsage trimmed with gold streamers. Next entered Julie Hulsey with her escort, Pat Hawley. Julie wore a semi-formal of pastel blue and carried white carnations. They were followed by Dianne Morris wearing a pink and white lace formal, carrying white carnations and escorted by Charlie Brown. Next in view was Lynda Harris escorted by Larry Kaler. Lynda wore a white lace formal and carried pink carnations. Now entered Margaret Knight and her escort, David Shelton. Margaret wore a beige formal accented by a red satin cummerbund and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Kay Shields and Billy Hopwood followed. Kay was wearing a white chiffon semi-formal trimmed in lavender and carried pink carnations. Immediately behind Kay came two flower girls in party dresses, one of pastel blue and the other of green. They were Ann Shields and Nancy Alexander and were followed by the crown bearer, Eddie Jarvis.

Silently, all eyes focused on her majesty, the queen, in white chiffon with iridescent sequins. Queen Winetta received a large bouquet of red roses and was crowned while kneeling on a white satin pillow. Miss Wilkerson was escorted by Ron Alexander who placed the rhinestone crown on her. Queen Winetta reigned magnificently over the night, commanding and receiving a basketball victory over the opposing Wingo team.

Tribute Paid Where Tribute Is Due

Little recognition has been given our librarian, although in the past five years she has accomplished much.

Mrs. Boyd Helfer is the person of whom we speak. Among her achievements are: the doubling in size of the library, tripling of circulation, workroom and storage spaces added, supplying monthly bulletin boards, many filed magazines covering the years 1959 through 1961.

Mrs. Helfer was born in Detroit, Michigan, where she lived during her first eight years of schooling. She then moved to Folsomdale, where she attended Lowes High School from which she graduated in 1950. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Murray State College and is now doing graduate work toward her Master's degree. Mrs. Helfer has been with Lone Oak for the past nine years. Upon her arrival, she taught the fifth grade for a period of three years, she then started as librarian in 1956.

She is the mother of one daughter, Kim, age two and a half. The Helfer family presently resides at Folsomdale, but they are in the process of building on Pepper Lane. The Helfers attend the Liberty Baptist Church where she is assistant teacher of her class. She is also a member of the Order of Eastern Star, which is affiliated with the Masonic Lodge.

She finds thorough enjoyment in reading and traveling, the latter of which she has indulged in by visiting such places as Niagra Falls, Washington, New Orleans, Florida, Smoky Mountains, Chicago, and numerous others.

Her other hobbies include any kind of hand-craft, especially knitting, weaving, and painting. She also collects salt and pepper shakers from many different cities. She prefers the shakers be typical of their origin or home town.

As she travels to increase her collection, she studies the people and their behavior, and then likes to do research and reading on a particular place before making a visit there.

CHEERLEADERS AND PLAYERS GIVEN SUPPER

On the night of January 30th, immediately following the Lone Oak and North Marshall ball game, all Lone Oak ball players, cheerleaders, coaches, sponsors, and managers, were honored with a steak supper at Potter's Restaurant. Mr. Petty, Mr. Buckingham, and Mr. Keeling completed the guest list.

The supper consisted of a salad, steak, French-fried potatoes and onions, rolls, pie, and a choice of beverage.

The supper, given by Mr. Robinson, took place in a large reserved area of the restaurant, was for no particular purpose other than providing an opportunity for the people immediately involved with the basketball presentation for informal conversation and a simple good time.

Are You A Leader?

By Randy Mabry

What is a leader? You read and study about leaders all of the time. I think everyone considers George Washington as a great leader and certainly being the President of the United States today requires a good leader. We have many good leaders in our own city government as well as in our schools and churches.

You may ask yourself, "Just what is a leader? How does a person become a leader?" To begin with, leadership can be defined as the art of influencing people to think and act in ways which, because of the leader, they come to believe are good for them.

A person must have initiative and a sense of mission to be a good leader. A good leader must have a well-organized plan which meets the needs of the people with whom he is working.

A leader must be someone his followers would want to look up to and try to be like. Certainly they wouldn't want to be like a person who has a poor outlook on life and is constantly criticizing everyone and everything.

There is a difference between a good leader and a bad one besides his ability to manage people. A good leader must have good moral character. There are many "good" leaders in underworld gangs which the world could do without. These people may have all of the qualities I have mentioned but they are harmful in their leadership instead of helpful.

A true leader must have plenty of physical energy, a compelling urge toward some specific goal, have some way and means of achieving the goal he is after, he should be able to capture the confidence and loyalty of those who become their followers, and he should be exceptionally persuasive in getting others to support the cause they are working for.

How can we, students of Lone Oak High School, train ourselves to become leaders of our generation? By striving to be trustworthy, to use our initiative wisely, to plan our day's work, to gain and give the most of our ability, and keep our disposition under control thus assuring a pleasant personality, we can achieve much in having a happy life.

ADVANCED BIOLOGY CLASS DISSECTS PIG EMBRYOS

The new equipment purchased in the last few years for the Science Department has made possible the addition of science courses. One of these is Advanced Biology, taught by Mrs. Wayne Henderson. It was begun last year after several students had requested such a course, and is an advanced extension of the regular Biology course. It is designed to help those who want to enter the various fields of Biological Science, such as: Medical Technology, Biochemistry, Medicine or Nursing, and prove as beneficial to them as it has to those who took it in 1960-'61.

One of the major projects of the class of '62 is dissecting pig embryos. They use pigs because their body structure is very similar to the structure of the human body.

During the year doctors come from the hospitals to lecture and give demonstrations. Also the entire class visits and makes a tour of the laboratory at Western Baptist Hospital.

Life of Ernest Hemingway

Ernest Hemingway was an American novelist. He was born Ernest Miller Hemingway in Oak Park, Illinois near Chicago. He was the son of Clarence and Grace Hemingway. He was educated in the Oak Park public school and did some desultory studying in France. In Oak Park, Hemingway contributed to "Trapeze," his high school newspaper and he wrote the class prophecy for the 1917 yearbook.

Hemingway got the background for his short stories that appeared in "In Our Time" from his hunting and fishing trips in Horton Bay, Michigan.

He got a job soon after he finished high school as a reporter on the Kansas City Star. While he worked as a reporter he began to develop the style which eventually became as distinctive as Shakespeare's and which influenced scores of writers.

He served as an ambulance driver in World War I but soon transferred to the Italian infantry. This gave him the background for his book "Farewell to Arms."

His first books were published in Paris, and it was there that he formed part of the world of expatriates who became the people of his first successful novel, "The Sun Also Rises." His absorption for bull-fighting also appears in this book.

At the beginning of the Spanish Civil War, he went to Spain and wrote the commentary for the film, "The Spanish Earth." His book "For Whom the Bell Tolls" was written about this war. This book is about a young American man and a Spanish girl who share their love and life together in four days before he has to blow up the bridge. His mission must be done right because the face of the human race depends upon it.

After World War II he wrote a novel about an aging soldier

"Across the River and Into the Trees." Two years later, Hemingway published "The Old Man and the Sea." This was a story of an old fisherman's struggle to bring into port a giant marlin which he caught out in the Gulf of Mexico.

In 1953, he was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in fiction and later in 1954 he won the Nobel Prize for literature.

Another of his books was "To Have and Have Not." This is a book of a man who owns a boat he charters to people but he loses his money and tries to make some illegally and has his boat taken away.

Did somebody mention the Southern Association?

Seventh Grade Quotes

An undersized flight boy in the seventh grade was feverently searching through an encyclopedia with a look of disgust. The teacher noticing his fidgeting asked if she might help. The boy replied: "yes, could you tell me if Marilyn Monroe is in the encyclopedia?" The teacher replied that Marilyn Monroe was not listed. The boy looked at her with dismay and said: "I found the Monroe Doctrine and I thought sure I would find her under that."

During a typical English class, in which the parts of speech were being studied, a student was asked to name a few that he could remember. He answered without hesitation, "verbs, adverbs, and proverbs."

The library assistants are responsible for our fine bulletin board in the study hall and the one downstairs near the seventh and eighth grade rooms. They have used many unique ideas for the attractive bulletin boards that we have enjoyed this year. The bulletin board downstairs is prepared to appeal especially to the seventh and eighth grades.

Pythagorean Club

On January 23, 1962, Dr. Sullivan and Mr. Dillon, of Lourdes Hospital, talked to the Pythagorean Club concerning the math needed in majoring in a Medical field. It was a very interesting and informative talk. On the 6th of February the Club made plans for inviting schools to the Math Tournament which will be held May 4, 1962, at Lone Oak High School. The Club decided not to order any pennants this year, as most everyone has theirs from last year.

LONE OAK NIPS TILGHMAN IN OVERTIME

The Lone Oak Purple Flash used a last second 25-foot set shot by guard David Shelton, plus their phenomenal foul shooting (16-18), to edge past the Tilghman Tornado, 62-61, on January 19, on the Tornado's home court.

The Flash trailing by six points 56-50 with less than two minutes remaining in the game went to work and tied the score at 56-all at the end of regulation play. The Oaker's were trailing 61-60 with less than five seconds remaining when Shelton hit his dramatic game clincher.

The Tornadoes were able to get the ball to mid-court but time ran out for the Big Blue before they could get off a desperation shot.

"The entire game was played without the facilities of a clock, due to an electrical short in the wiring system, thus causing a wild state of confusion during the entire game, especially in the waning seconds of regulation play and the overtime period.

Lone Oak led by 5 points at the end of the first period and increased this lead to 10 points at the half-time intermission. The Flash built up a nine-point lead early in the third period only to see the Tornado whittle this margin to one point at the end of the third canto.

Tilghman took the lead early in the fourth quarter and led until the final minutes of the game, when Lone Oak knotted the score at the end of regulation play and won it in overtime. Ron Alexander 6-1 Lone Oak senior forward was the big gun for the revived Flash as he poured through 25 markers and did a yeoman's job on the boards.

Scrappy Bill Hopwood turned in a fine floor game and added 19 points, 10 of which came in the third period alone, keeping the Oaker's in contention. Big Gary Overton led the Tornado's attack with 22 points while jumping Bill Connors added 17.

LONE OAK UPENDS REIDLAND

Lone Oak avenged an earlier 20 point defeat at the hands of Reidland by defeating the Greyhounds 75-69 at Reidland on January 26. The Oakers used a five-man double figure scoring attack and a sparkling 50 per cent (26 of 52) of its field-goal attempts in beating Reidland. The Flash also made good use of a 3-2 zone as the Oakers evened their season record at 9-9. The victory was the fourth straight for Lone Oak and seventh out of its last ten outings.

Lone Oak jumped out front, 17-11, at the end of the first period and led 35-29 at the half-time intermission. The Flash upped the gap to 57-46 at the end of the third quarter and held on for the win.

Ron Alexander was the big gun for the revived Purple Flash as he swished the nets for 21 points and pulled down a whopping 17 rebounds. Pat Hawley and David Shelton added 16 points each while Billy Hopwood and Charlie Brown added 12 and 10 points respectively. Bobby Brewer paced the losing 'Hounds with 22 points.

Lone Oak Slips Past Benton

Lone Oak bounced back from their heart-breaking 49 to 48 loss to Lowes to defeat Benton 47 to 44 at Lone Oak on January 16th. Lone Oak moved ahead of Benton in the second period after the two teams were tied at 6-all, at the end of the initial period. Lone Oak forged into a 19 to 15 half-time lead and held a 38 to 32 third quarter margin. Benton knotted the score at 43-all late in the game, but Lone Oak shoved in four points in the final minutes while holding Benton to one to wrap up the game. Ron Alexander led the way for Lone Oak with a 15-point effort while Billy Hopwood chipped in with 11 and David Shelton added 10.

Lone Oak Tops Ballard

The Lone Oak Purple Flash ran their season record to 8-9 by downing Ballard 60-56 at Ballard on January 23. Lone Oak led 11-10 at the end of the first period only to see Ballard forge into a 27-26 half-time lead. The Bombers were in command of a 44-38 third quarter lead before Lone Oak rallied to win. Lone Oak and Ballard were tied at 56-all with 1:38 left in the game when Lone Oak scored two quick baskets while holding Ballard scoreless to ice the game.

Billy Hopwood was the key performer for Lone Oak, as he hit 10 points in the fourth period alone and finished with 18 points and game scoring honors. Ron Alexander and Pat Hawley aided the Oaker's cause with 14 points each.

Lone Oak Downs Hickman County

Lone Oak used a 17-point fourth quarter to pull away from a troublesome Hickman County five and defeat the Falcons 58-50, at Lone Oak on February 2. The Oakers were uncanny at the foul line where they connected on 22 of 30 attempts. Lone Oak forged into a slim 14-13 first period lead and upped their gap to two points 26-24, as the two teams trooped to the dressing rooms at the half-time intermission. Revived Flash Goes Above .500 Mark

The vastly improved Lone Oak Purple Flash ran their season record to 11-10 with a stunning 67-59 come-from-behind win over the St. Mary's Knights at the Academy gym on February 6. The Oakers trailed 10-9 at the end of the first period and were on the short end of the score 28-24 at half-time. The Knights were enjoying a nine-point lead at 47-38 with 2:42 remaining in the third canto when the Oakers spurred to cut the deficit to one point at 47-46 as the third quarter came to an end.

The determined Oakers continued to play good ball the last quarter and finally overtook the Knights at 50-49. School was out for the Knights at this point as Lone Oak slowly pulled away, ending up with a hard-earned eight-point win, 67-59.

The Flash had all five starters in double figures. Ron Alexander led the Lone Oak attack with 21 points. Bill Hopwood and David Shelton chipped in with 13 and 11, respectively, while Pat Hawley and Charlie Brown added 10 points each. Mike Legeay paced the losing Knights with a 22-point effort.

Oak's lead in half to 42-41 at the end of the third canto but the Flash warmed up in the fourth quarter to even their season's record at 10-10.

Ron Alexander paced the Oaker's scoring attack with 18 points followed closely by David Shelton with 16. Billy Hopwood rounded out the double figure scorers with 12. Preston Overstreet was the stand-out of the game, bagging 29 points for the losing Hickman County five.
