Dedictory

Death comes respecting neither age nor accomplishments. The sick and the strong, the rich and the poor are swept away teaching us to be prepared for death.

To the memory of Patsy Green, Larry Morgan, and John Smith, we dedicate this annual "Senior Spotlight." They now have new friends, but those friends of old will never forget them.

To The Senior Class of 1962-1963

You are a wonderful class, you have fine parents and have been brought up in one of the best communities and best schools in our country. You have lived in a good state and the greatest nation in the world. Be sure to live, so that you can make the world much better than you found it. Remember that the whole world is depending on your generation to keep the world democratic. I personally hope each of you much success and happiness in life.

Sincerely

Your principal,

JOHN ROBINSON

Class History

Freshman year:

Can you recall that very first day, August 31, 1959, when we, 117 happy but confused freshmen entered into the halls of dear old Lone Oak High School? Sure it was new and difficult, but we managed to struggle through with the help of our sponsors: Miss Patricia Watts, Mrs. Janet Kelley, Mrs. Nancy Crass, and Mr. Kean McKinney. Elected for our class officers were: President, Joe Sloan; Vice-President, Pat Hawley; Secretary, Phyllis Overstreet; Treasurer, Sharon Merrick.

We were well represented in sports that year with Larry Jarvis, Jimmie Hicks, and Kenneth Grief playing on the baseball team. Freshmen serving as B-Team cheerleaders were: Linda Cole, Elaine Shoemaker Overton, Kay Shields Walton, and Carolyn Douglas. Gayle Crews was our attendant in the Queen Coronation.

This year we were initiated into the FHA, FFA, Tri-Hi-Y, Music, Hi-Y, and Pep Clubs.

Sophomore year:

As we entered our Sophomore year, we had 110 "Silly Sophomores" who really did live up to their titles. Pat Hawley led our class as President; Eddie Taylor was Vice-President; and Carol DeVillez was Secretary-Treasurer. This year, our class sponsors were: Mrs. Alberta Gill, Mrs. Joyce Byrd, Mrs. Gwen Helfer, Mrs. Jo Henderson, and Mr. Lester Goheen.

As before, our class was well represented in sports. On the baseball team were: Jimmy Hicks, Charlie Brown, Larry Jarvis, and Kenneth Grief. Playing B-Team basketball were: Larry Jarvis, Roy Rushing, Jimmie Hicks, Kenneth Grief, Pat Hawley, and David Saucier. Charlie Brown played A-Team basketball.

Backing our boys as B-Team cheerleaders were: Carolyn Douglas, Linda Cole, Elaine Shoemaker Overton, and Kay Shields Walton. Our Sophomore Queen attendant was Kay Shields Walton.

Junior year:

As we advanced to be "Jolly Juniors," we again decreased in number, having 103 in our class. Leading us through this hectic and busy year were: Mrs. Zula Edwards, Miss Wylma Stewart, Mrs. Zitell Goheen, and Mr. Jack Blackburn. Larry Burnett, Pat Hawley, and Carol DeVillez were elected as class officers.

Pat Hawley, Roy Rushing, Jimmy Hicks, Kenneth Grief, David Saucier, and Charlie Brown were on the Varsity Basketball team. Pat Hawley, Charlie Brown, Kenneth Grief, Mike Padon, Jimmie Hicks, and Larry Jarvis were on the Baseball team. Kay

Shields Walton and Elaine Shoemaker Overton were Varsity cheerleaders and again, Kay Shields Walton was our Queen attendant.

Under the direction of Miss Wylma Stewart, we had a very successful Junior play entitled "Who Done It." Included in the cast were: "Hoodie" Allen, Jackie Williams, Mike Padon, Diana Blackburn, Mike Purcell, Carolyn Douglas, Eddie Taylor, Elizabeth Housman, Joe Sloan, Carol DeVillez, and Joyce Sherron. In addition to this play, we also enjoyed a one-act play entitled "Guest House, Very Exclusive," presented by the Speech class. Three Juniors, Jan Newman, Sharyon Schnell, and Joe Sloan participated in this production.

With the help of Mrs. Zitell Goheen, we sold $1,200 worth of magazines and were able to give the Seniors an outstanding banquet and prom. The theme of our banquet was "April Showers."

Diana Blackburn and Judy Garrett were chosen to attend Girls' State that year. Andy Palmer, Mike Kellen, and Joe Sloan attended Boy's State.

As always, members of our class took part in the various clubs offered and the following people were honored by being accepted into the Beta Club: Joe Sloan, Betty George, Phyllis Overstreet, Jackie Williams, Carol DeVillez, Judy Garrett, Judy Matlock, Randy Mabry, Martha Rose, Paulette Lamm, Elaine Shoemaker Overton, Gayle Crews, Carolyn Douglas, Eddie Taylor, and June Burks. Also, we were very proud to have Joe Sloan chosen as Vice-President of the Beta Club.

Phyllis Overstreet honored our class that year by receiving a NOMA spelling certificate.

Juniors serving on the Oak "K" Staff were: Martha Rose, Paulette Lamm, Donna Rees Botkin, Pat Hawley, Randy Mabry, Phyllis Overstreet, Bobby Lane, and Larry Jarvis. Junior majorettes were: Bonnie Gatlin, and Patty Adams.

Senior year:

This year the dream of 92 students has finally come true. At last we have reached the last step in our high school education. Our sponsors this year were: Mrs. Neville McCracken, Mrs. Mary North, Mrs. Landa Nagel, and Mr. Garvice Douglas. Thanks to their guidance and leadership, we have had a wonderful and overflowing year of activities and success. Our officers this year were: President, Joe Sloan; Vice-President, Pat Hawley, Secretary, Phyllis Overstreet; and Treasurer, Carol DeVillez.

This was the last year for Pat Hawley, Roy Rushing, and Charlie Brown to represent our class in basketball and for Larry Jarvis, Charlie Brown, Kenneth Grief, Gerald Smith, and Roy Rushing to represent us in baseball. Linda Cole has done a wonderful job in leading us in support of our team, and Bonnie Gatlin has been a fine majorette.

Our Senior Queen attendant was June Burks, and the Senior Band members were: Patty Adams, Bonnie Gatlin, and Gaylen Hargrove.

Those of our class again in the Beta Club were: Joe Sloan, Phyllis Overstreet, Jackie Williams, Carol DeVillez, Betty George, Judy Garrett, Judy Matlock, Randy Mabry, Martha Rose, Paulette Lamm, Elaine Shoemaker Overton, Gayle Crews, Carolyn Douglas, June Burks, Patty Adams, Diana Blackburn, Bill Lindsey, and Elizabeth Housman. Seniors eligible for Quill and Scroll National Journalism Society were: Martha Rose, Randy Mabry, Pat Hawley, Kay Shields Walton, Paula Edwards, Phyllis Overstreet, Joyce Sherron, Paulette Lamm, and June Burks. Other clubs and their Senior officers were: Beta Club—President, Joe Sloan; Secretary, Carol DeVillez; Corresponding Secretary, Phyllis Overstreet; Treasurer, Jackie Williams; NFL—President, Carolyn Douglas; FBLA—President, Phyllis Lane; Secretary, Linda Cole; Treasurer, Phyllis Overstreet; Reporter, Kenneth Grief; Tri-Hi-Y—President, Teresa Schmidt; Vice-President, Judy Garrett; Secretary, Diana Blackburn; FHA—President, Gloria Henson Harris; Math Club—President, Randy Mabry; FFA—President, Larry Burnette; Biological Club—Treasurer, Sharyon Schnell; and Hi-Y—President, Andy Palmer; Vice-President, Pat Hawley; Secretary, Jackie Thompson; Treasurer, Mike Purcell; and Chaplain, Larry McCracken.

Our senior play entitled, "The Unsuspected", directed by Mrs. Mary North, was a huge success. Members of the cast were: Judy Garrett, Andy Palmer, Gayle Crews, Larry McCracken, Bonnie Gatlin, Mike Purcell, Carol DeVillez, Sharyon Schnell, Teresa Schmidt, Kenneth Grief, and Joe Sloan. Those who worked behind the scenes of the play were: Student director, Betty George; Assistant director, Rosemary Redfern; ake-up, Janet Jones; Sound, Mike Kellen; Sets, Jackie Wesson, Richard Rendleman, and Reedy Morris.

The following boys had the honor of being chosen Junior Rotarians of the month: Kenneth Grief, Pat Hawley, Jimmie Hicks, Joe Sloan, Randy Mabry, and Mike Kellen.

NOMA certificates were given to Rosemary Redfern in Spelling and to Phyllis Lane, Danny Hook, Carol DeVillez, and Kenneth Grief in Math. Phyllis Overstreet was chosen as the outstanding business student for the year, 1963, by the NOMA Association.

During our high school days, some of us have received honors we could never forget and being selected to attend a convention is one of these. Seniors attending conventions were: FBLA—Phyllis Lane, Rosemary Redfern, Linda Cole, Phyllis Overstreet, Kenneth Grief, Joe Sloan, and Mike Kellen; KYA—Judy Garrett, Jackie Williams, Diana Blackburn, Teresa Schmidt, Carol DeVillez, and Andy Palmer; KUNA—Larry McCracken, Richard Rendleman, Diana Blackburn, Jackie Williams, and Jackie Thompson; Beta—Randy Mabry.

Seniors on the Oak "K" Staff were: Paula Edwards, Kay Shields Walton, Linda Cole, Denise McClure, Janet Jones, Marice Childress, Joyce Sherron, June Burks, Pat Hawley, Andy Palmer, Richard Rendleman, Roy Rushing, Mike Purcell, Jackie Wesson, Jackie Thompson, and David Saucier.

Carolyn Douglas left Lone Oak at Mid-term to enter U.K., and Elaine Shoemaker Overton is attending P.J.C.

Elaine Shoemaker Overton, Kay Shields Walton, Becky Siegel Brown, Gloria Henson Harris, LaNell Gibson Stubblefield, Sharon Gill Vaughn, and Judy Davidson Ladd have taken roles as devoted wives while Charlie Brown and Max Dodd are showing their true qualities by being obedient husbands.

In closing, we would like to acknowledge our sincere and grateful thanks to our teachers and sponsors. Without them we would be nothing, but with the help they have given us, we can be something. They have made these past years successful as their help will make our future successful. Through them we have come to realize that we are not finished but that we have just begun.

As long as we live, there will always be a warm spot in our hearts for Lone Oak High School, its principal, its teachers, and its students. We, the 1963 Senior class, leave with them best wishes and good luck for the future.

Class Prophecy

BONNIE GATLIN and GAYLE CREWS were taking a vacation from family life and discovered a fellow passenger, BILL LINDSEY on the same rocket. Since all were headed for the Miami World's Fair, we decided to tour it together.

To our surprise, we found that the pilot of our rocket was BETTY GEORGE. She always did have high ideas. Assisting her as capable co-pilot was JUDY GARRETT. Fortunately, there is no gear shift on a rocket so she didn't have much trouble getting her pilot's license. We thought the pilots did fine, but two astronauts, RANDY MABRY and JOHN MILLER, were on board and took tranquilizers all the way.

Our hotel sent their little TR-3 (with a back seat) to pick us up. It was chauffeured by Lone Oak's Merit Scholarship finalist, JOE SLOAN. We always knew he would go places.

We checked in at the Castaways where we recognized our bellhop as ANDY PALMER. We learned that he is the only bellhop in the world with a lawyer's degree and a huge one acre farm which is completely covered with old Chandler buttons.

In the dining room, we saw the famous singing chef, DANNY HOOK. We not only had to suffer through his food, but we had to listen to his off-key rendition of "Danny Boy". We also saw the manager, PAULA EDWARDS, who is busy even in her spare time. She is still trying to teach REEDY MORRIS the things he didn't know about selling ads in journalism.

On the Star-Lite Roof, we saw GAYLEN HARGROVE and his famous orchestra playing "Prelude and Fugue in G-Minor." Wonder why nobody was dancing?

We decided to rent a car and drive downtown. We walked to a place known as the "Lucky Luther's Car Lot." We finally found the owner, L. E. CARNEY, parked in the back.

On the way downtown, traffic was held up when CHARLIE and BECKY BROWN were caught with their many little Browns in the middle of the street when the traffic light changed. Nobody was injured thanks to two excellent law officers, ROSEMARY REDFERN and PATTY BEARDEN. We heard later that women were used in Miami to direct traffic because they were naturally good at telling people how to drive.

We passed by an arena where LARRY "SLUGGER" McCracken was receiving top billing as the local fisticuff artist. Waiting outside with his little black bag was DR. JIMMIE HICKS. Jimmie is now a successful doctor; he has lost only three patients in the last two days. DR. RICHARD RENDLEMAN, renowned dentist, also follows Larry around so he can pick up the loose teeth to make new dentures.

As we headed back for the hotel, we passed a theater. It was running a stage production of "Gypsy" starring none other than CAROL DEVILLEZ. Her co-stars were BOBBY LANE, JOHNNY BROWN, LEWIS HODGES, and BILL MILLER. That must be some show!

Back at the hotel, we stumbled into a party given by the President of "Quicktan" Tanning Lotion Corporation. To our surprise, it was MIKE PURCELL. Mike first became acquainted with this business while on a trip to Florida during his senior year. His entertainment was MAX DODD and his Swingin' Surfers who consist of BILLY ANDERSON on sax, MORRIS HESTER on clarinet, EDDIE WALLS on piano, EDDIE DUFF on drums, and we were "lucky" because they were running their famous feature JEAN BRIDGES on violin.

The next day we went to the fair. The first familiar face belonged to HOODIE ALLEN. He was walking around outside the entrance trying to sell senior sweatshirts. (63!??)

Just as we entered, we saw another familiar face. It was SHARYON SCHNELL walking around with an armload of trophies. Wonder where she got them?

The feature attraction of the fair was a huge 600 foot tall replica of a porpoise with a revolving restaurant on its nose. The famous architects that designed it, MICKEY CRUTCHER, GERALD SMITH, and BILLY McBRIDE, were quite upset because they had caught LINDA COLE climbing it in order to mark out "Poopsie" which was painted on top. (wonder why she ever did that?) They also apprehended LANELL GIBSON STUBBLEFIELD as an accomplice because she was standing on the ground with a paint brush in her hand.

We left this amusing spot and went to the International Fountain. We saw PAT HAWLEY testing his new waterproof watch that he won in a contest. Wonder how they ever got him to register?

We passed a Hungarian restaurant, and we decided to eat some real Hungarian food. Somehow, obviously by mistake, the cooks turned out to be PHYLLIS OVERSTREET and JACKIE DON WESSON. We decided that the cooks were definitely in the wrong field.

While we were eating we saw a strange sight. ELIZABETH HOUSMAN walked in with a masked escort. She explained that he was masked because not everyone had an escort, and she didn't want to advertise hers.

After that "meal," we decided that we had better visit the first aid station. The nurses were JACKIE WILLIAMS, DIANA BLACKBURN, and PATTY ADAMS. We didn't get much help because they were too busy drooling over the new Dr. Kildare, LARRY JARVIS.

We were nearly trampled by the crowd that was surrounding the great new author, PERRY JOYCE. His new romantic novel has made quite a hit with the older couples. Some of the ones trying to get their copies autographed were: JUDY DAVIDSON LADD, GLORIA HENSON HARRIS, SHARON GILL VAUGHN, and KAY SHIELDS WALTON.

We decided to take a tour of one of the "avenues of the world" where various countries have displays typical of their country. The booth from Spain was represented by MIKE KELLEN. Those one-semester Spanish courses must be wonderful.

The adjoining booth was sponsored by Scotland. We found that DAVID "SILAS" SAUCIER was demonstrating a new electronic penny pinching machine. Needless to say, he enjoys his work tremendously. It keeps his two bookkeepers, BRENDA McMANUS and TERESA SCHMIDT busy keeping up with the pennies he's pinched.

We saw the President and his wife, DENISE McCCLURE touring the displays. Denise had her hairdressers, PHYLLIS LANE and JANET JONES, with her. Despite McCracken's predictions, Denise is not bald from ridding her hair. Also in the President's party were DICKIE THORNE and BILL TORIAN who are home on leave after studying juvenile marriage customs in Lower Limbo for 10 years. Trailing close behind was the famous society column editor, PAT DOWDY.

Next we took a tour of the industrial displays. We saw MAURICE CHILDRESS as the President of IBM Corporation. He and his secretary, CLAUDE ALLEN were using one of his computers to try to finish their practice sets.

PAULETTE LAMM and MARTHA ROSE certainly were not creating good will by giving out samples of their burnt sugar cookies. Their employer thinks they are excellent, but the adjoining booth which was staffed by LARRY BURNETTE, GERALD DAVENPORT, and CHARLES JETT was crowded with people seeking samples of bicarbonate of soda.

Representing the Metrecal Company were: SANDRA CLARK and PATSY FIELDER. JUNE BURKS was pestering them for wholesale rates on cases of it. It seems as though that candy bar in biology class every day finally caught up with her.

At the last display, we saw CARROLL CHANDLER who is President of Chandler Radio Corporation. We knew he'd make it in radio because he practiced every day in Mr. Crooks' study hall.

We decided to return to Paducah, and the rocket on which we traveled showed an excellent movie. It was a mushy love picture starring JUDY MATLOCK. JACKIE THOMPSON was taking a busman's holiday as he passed out popcorn during the show.

We passed city hall where we heard the Mayor, ROY RUSHING, making one of his long-winded speeches. He was upset with his city council which includes: ROY CUNNINGHAM, CHESTER CUMMINGS, and DON STRATTON. We never did understand what he was upset about because his secretary, MARTHA LYNN TREVATHAN, didn't get his speech straight when he dictated it to her.

We heard that there had really been some changes at Lone Oak so we decided to see for ourselves.

KENNETH GRIEF is the new speech teacher. His new word "mon-stro-shus" rattled Mrs. McCracken to the point that she had to retire and was replaced by CAROLYN DOUGLAS. Carolyn told us that she doesn't believe in term papers so that makes everyone happy.

The school secretary, ELAINE OVERTON, wouldn't let us in the office to see the principal, SANDRA NANCE. Sandra was busy explaining to the school board investigating committee consisting of BECKY McBRIDE, VIVIAN MARTIN, and SHARON SHAFFER why one of her drivers, JOYCE SHERRON, had wrecked five helicopters in the last month. The committee thought that since they didn't use buses any more that the drivers shouldn't have wrecks in all that air space.

Senior Class Will

Ladies and Gentlemen, Board of Education, Principal, Teachers, and Friends. In this year 1963, the Senior Class has decided to journey to the peaks of the Himalayan Mountains, where we will make our home, in order to study the Abominable Snowman in a venture for mankind. Before leaving, we, the Senior Class of 1963, wish to draw up this last will and testament to divide and distribute all our earthly possessions.

I

To all the classes that follow, we bequeath our will to become educated along with our loyalty, not only to Lone Oak High School, but also to our country.

II

To the Junior Class we leave our ability as Seniors to be outstanding leaders and set examples for the lower classmen.

III

To the Sophomore Class we will our ability to become Seniors, which two years ago seemed impossible.

IV

To the Freshman Class we will our ability to struggle through high school for four years of hardships and studies.

V

To the Eighth Grade we leave our ability to make the right decisions in school and in life.

VI

To the Seventh Grade we leave the ability to prepare themselves with an eagerness to learn upon entering high school.

VII

To Mr. Robinson and the faculty of Lone Oak High School, we leave our deepest and sincerest gratitude for working with us and helping us through twelve years of school.

Hereby: the 89 undersigned people being of sound mind and body, do bequeath the following earthly possessions:

I, Martha Lynn Trevathan, will Mrs. Nagel's seventh period, first semester English class to anyone who thinks they can start a conversation and get out of having class every day.

I, Gerald Davenport, will Miss Wilma A. Stewart to Sawanee, an all boys' college.

I, James Walls, will Get Out of Here!!!!

I, Jeanne Bridges, being of a cultured mind, will to Mr. Blackburn all the refinement I've received from listening to WDXR radio, in hopes he will someday also know what truly great music is.

I, Gaylen Hargrove, will my ability to squeeze the biggest instrument in the band into the smallest car, to any one with the energy to try it.

I, Patricia Ann Dowdy, will my ability to keep my books straight and locker clean to any Junior that wants a locker partner who constantly messes it up.

I, Sharyon Schnell, being of sound mind, will to Rodney and Gary my position as chief coffee pourer and my front seat in Mrs. McCracken's Dragon Wagon.

I, Gerald Smith, will the Lone Oak High School basketball team of '62-'63 to the Lone Oak Elementary School.

I, Becky McBride, will to any Junior lucky (?) enough to get it, my locker, number eleven, that has no panel in the side and a door that won't close.

I, Sharon Gill Vaughn, will to Susan Vaughn the ability to arrange it so she can have her study halls in the restroom all year and not get caught.

We, Joyce Sherron and Janet Jones, will all our good times with Jackie Don Wesson to Paula "Poopsie" Burks.

I, Louis Hodges, will find out if one can make a living without working.

I, Randy Mabry, will my bottom locker, to any undeserving Junior with a round head, because it won't be (ouch!) round for long.

I, Mickey Crutcher, will everything that I don't need to anyone in the Junior class who needs nothing.

I, Teresa Schmidt, being of a grateful heart, will my ability to get a top locker at least three years to any 8th grader who suffers from headaches, concussions, etc. from hard knocks on the head.

I, Max Dodd, will to Bartholimue Swatzill, a dumb rabbit.

I, Eddie Duff, will to Bartholimue Swatzill, a box of Trix.

I, Hoodie Allen, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the heavyweight champion bluff of Lone Oak a girdle; he's too fat!

I, Bonnie Gatlin, being of weak mind and sound body, will to Mr. Crooks all my patience and understanding, since he doesn't have any at all.

I, Luther Ernest Carney, being of a sound mind and a strong body, do hereby will to any dumb Junior, namely Leslie Walls, my bookkeeping seat, practice sets, ruler, pencils, all my tests, and on top all this, the ability to listen to Mrs. North preach to you because you popped your chewing gum, in hopes that he will be able to stand it better than I did.

I, Carolyn Douglas, will my cold, grape-stained hands and one snow cone dipper to Rodney Mabry and Gary Detraz.

I, Patrick Hawley, hoping for a taller basketball team next year, will my 6 foot, 8 inch, 240 pound body to Freddie "Spiderlegs" Howard, who is a mere 6 feet, 4 inches.

I, Jackie Thompson, being of cracked mind would will if I could will, but being as I don't have anything to will, I don't guess I will will, will I?

I, Betty June George, will to any fourth period librarian who wants to take the responsibility, my job of running ERRANDS for some of the teachers.

I, Andy Palmer, will——on second thought, I won't. You ain't getting none of me.

I, Joe Sloan, will an autographed picture of myself, as well as the remains of the Beta Club, Beehive, and Class of '63 to the buzzards, namely the class of '64.

I, Claudene Allen, refuse to will anything as I need everything that I have gotten in my last twelve years.

I, Judy Garrett, will my seat, the second from the front, in Honors English, to Lynn Boyd in hopes that she has less trouble occupying it than I did.

I, Patty Adams, being of sound mind and short body, do hereby will to any underclassman that will have him, my good English, Sociology, and Government buddy, Joe Sloan, that is if you can stand his conceit and superiority.

I, Gloria Henson Harris, hereby will to Pam Henson my good fortune of having a very close friend by my side throughout my past twelve years of school; with the hopes that she will appreciate it as much as I did.

I, Phyllis Overstreet, will to any Junior girl my ability to have Mrs. North three classes out of five and learn as much as I did. (If she thinks it's worth it.)

I, Charlie Brown, being of sound mind and very keen eye, will to Elbert Crooks a paper doll in hopes that he will keep his eyes on this instead of the senior girls.

I, Paula Edwards, will my ability to get in trouble with my parents, boyfriends, etc. to anyone who thinks they can survive the ordeals I have been put through.

I, Chester Cummings, will to any funny Junior the ability to leave his shirt tail out and get away with it.

I, Elaine Overton, will my crazy schedule to anyone in the Junior class that doesn't mind being late all the time.

I, Bill Miller, will to Elizabeth Sullivan my school picture in hopes that she will get more pleasure from it than I did.

I, Becky Siegal Brown, did.

I, Larry Burnett, will to Mark Dodd my position in third period study hall in the storage room. I hope he enjoys it as much as I have this past year.

I, John Miller, will to any Junior my excellent reasoning power and all of the intelligence that somehow I didn't manage to get.

I, Judy Matlock, will to any Junior, who can live up to it, my ability to stress a point at the wrong time.

I, Roy Rushing, being of sound mind and strong body will my height to Jay Burnett for I know he will need it.

I, Kay Shields Walton, being very happily married, will my ability to make better grades after marriage than ever before to anyone who can't understand it any better than I.

I, Vivian Martin, will to Yvonna Dowdy, Mrs. Goheen in hopes that she can get away with things like our Senior fourth period Home Economics class did.

I, Bobby Lane, will to Mrs. North's next year's bookkeeping class a copy of the record entitled "What Will Mary Say."

I, Elizabeth Housman, being of dubious health do bequeath my former singular position in Physics class to Maritom Sinquefield.

I, Sandra Clark, being of sound mind will my seat, third from the front in Mrs. Nagel's class, to any one willing to put up with her.

I, Gayle Crews, being of sound mind will the Senior class theme song "The Wedding March" to P.T.H.S.

I, Roy Cunningham, will Charles Jett formerly Flatheads Anonymous to any employer who thinks he can stand the sound of his '52 Mercury.

I, Patsy Fielder, will to any junior girl the ability to eat as much candy out of Mrs. North's candy room as I did and not get as big as one side of a red barn.

I, Johnny Brown, being of brilliant mind and very unsound body will my extraordinary ability to contend with Mrs. McCracken for two classes in the same year and still retain all my mental faculties to any junior who thinks he would enjoy being the victim of her fangs.

We, Martha Rose and Paulette Lamm, will our jobs as cafeteria assistants to anyone who really wants to get out of fourth-hour Home Economics class with Goheen's permission, naturally, and is willing to face a chewing each day following from Goheen for skipping class.

I, Mike Purcell, being a perfect physical specimen will two points to the common people.

I, June Burks, will my dancing ability to all the "left-footed" juniors.

I, Danny K. Hook, being of sound body and a litty-bitty mind, but with a real big heart will my red, black, and blue striped tennis shoes, my pink polka-dot wool socks, my green sweater, my Lone Oak Senior '63 purple and gold sweatshirt, my solid red undershirt with black trimmings, my chartruse pair of pants with the burnt orange pockets, my pair of pink insulated underwear, my golden brown house shoes, my Sherlock Holmes pipe, a can of Sir Walter Raleigh pipe tobacco, a penny box of matches, my hair brush with a tube of Brylcream, a small bottle of Jermiah Peabody Poly-Unsaturated Quick-Dissolving, Fast-Acting, Pleasant-Tasting, Green and Purple Pills, a recording of "Danny Boy," and an eight by ten color photo of myself suitable for framing to any teacher that I have had in high school.

I, Phyllis Lane, being of perfectly shaped body will the ability to become engaged four times in my Senior year to any junior that can endure it.

I, Perry Joyce, being of strong mind and muscular physique will to Mr. Elbert Crooks one pair of arch supports and a new supply of intestinal fortitude for his next trip to Mayfield.

I, Linda Cole, being of sound mind and big body will to Teresa Hicks all my clothes and books in hopes that she will use them with a better purpose in mind than I did.

I, Maurice Childress, will my ability to yawn in Mrs. North's Bookkeeping class and get by with it to anyone who wants to try it.

I, Kenneth Grief, being of sound mind and body and because of my sound mind and acting for the betterment of Lone Oak and the people of this school do hereby exile the dear and beloved Mr. Elbert Crooks and Mr. Wallace Adams to the Humane Society for their Rabies Shots to help cool their hot tempers when they throw their fits in the hall during the lunch hour to any student who thinks he can get them to the dog pound.

I, Rosemary Redfern, will to Leslie Orin Walls the ability to grow up both mentally and physically during his Senior year as he has not been able to do so in his past eleven years of school.

We, Bill Torian and Dickie Thorne, being of brave mind and strong body will our ability to paint bridges and hang dummies in the Lone Oak High School gym to any juniors that can do as good a job and get away with it as we did.

I, Rhey Hesler, being of almost sound mind and body will my ability to make just about straight A's in Algebra class to anyone who is dumb enough to take it and also my ability to eat candy in Mrs. Nagel's English class without getting caught.

I, Charles Jett, will my anonymous flathead cars to Eugene Boaz in hopes they will run better for him than they have for me.

I, Denise McClure, will my favorite paragraph, "The gum chewing student, the cud chewing cow are somewhat alike yet different somehow. Just what is the difference I think I know now, it's the clear, thoughtful look on the face of a cow", to Reva Crooks in hopes that she will have to write it as many times as I did for her dear old Dad.

I, Bill Anderson, will English class to anyone who can stick to studying with Mrs. Nagel.

I Reedy Morris, will if D.S., will.

I, Bill Lindsey, will my position as official typist for Mrs. McCracken to any junior who can get the job done after being told at the last possible moment that she needed it twenty minutes ago.

I, David Saucier, being of a strong body and sound mind will my safe driving book to any junior that will study it harder than I did in hopes that they will observe those invisible stop signs better than I did.

I, Patty Bearden, will Bobby Rushing to Mrs. North so that she may take him under her wing next year and protect him from all the girls in her shorthand class.

I, Don Stratton will Mr. Crooks to the mental institution in hopes they can quieten him down.

I, Brenda McManus, will to any junior my bottom locker. (Heaven help your head!)

We, Richard Rendleman and Jackie Wesson, being of a strong mind and stronger body will Mr. Crooks and Mr. Adams to the Humane Society because their barks are worse than their bites.

I, Mike Kellen, will Mr. Crooks a new pair of hands as his old ones must be getting worn out.

I, Sandra Nance, will my Mr. Adams' Romper Room class to anyone who likes to play.

I, Diana Blackburn, being of sound mind will to any freshman the ability to have a bottom locker all four years of high school.

I, Carol DeVillez, will all my wonderful teachers to my brother in hopes that he will learn as much from them and get as much from them as I have.

I, Billy McBride, will to all the juniors who take Bookkeeping next year the ability to finish their practice sets which I had a time finding within my ability.

I, Larry McCracken, being of a sound mind and a broken heart (over leaving) will my ability to get along with Mr. Crooks to Sondra Thompson and Joyce Siress. (They need it more than I do.)

I, Judy Davidson, will to Linda Harris my office practice typewriter that skips two spaces every time you hit the space bar and my worn out eraser.

I, Sharon Shaffer, will to the juniors my good fortune of having such wonderful friends during my school life.

I, LaNell Gibson Stubblefield, will my ability to be the worst typist on the Oak "K" staff to any junior who is strong enough to put up with Mrs. Nagel for a whole year.

I, Carroll Chandler, will my ability to get away with listening to the radio in Mr. Crooks' study hall to anyone who can get away with it.

We, Larry Jarvis and Jimmie Hicks, being of hyperdormitional and passing through four years of high school only through valiant efforts of our teachers to pound abstruse knowledge into our adamant heads, plus being overloaded with mental ability, will leave Dear Ole Lone Oak High School with a bellicose attitude and a drastic past involving so many scandals it would be impossible to count them all. Right Mr. Crooks!!

I, Jackie Williams, will to a certain business teacher a tape measure so that he may verify his so-called 32 inch waist.

And we do hereby constitute and appoint the said Principal, Mr. Robinson, sole executor of this our last will and testament.

In witness whereof, We, the Class of 1963, the humanitarians, have to this will set our hands and seal this twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three.

WITNESSES:

Mary North
