

RICKIE LYLES IS ELECTED QUEEN!

On February 12, 1963, Lone Oak High School held its annual Basketball Queen Coronation in the Lone Oak gymnasium. Miss Rickie Lyles was crowned queen during the interval between the A and B team games.

The service began as Joe Sloan, President of the Beta Club, which sponsored the coronation along with the band, welcomed the large audience to the occasion.

Next, Noel Gatliff and Charlie Lindsey rolled out the carpet for the queen and her court. They were both selected from the Junior High Beta Club.

PROCESSION

The cheerleaders and basketball players headed by Linda Cole and Charlie Brown entered next. Linda wore her cheer-leading uniform with a corsage of large gold mums; with purple streamers. All the cheer-leaders were dressed in this fashion.

Margaret Knight and Roy Rushing entered next and were followed by Lynn Boyd and Hank Shepherd. Ann Hara Price and Frank Harris ended the procession of cheer-leaders, and the Junior High attendants entered.

The seventh grade attendant, Janice Gallemore, and her escort, Jay Burnett, entered. Janice's dress was of white tiered chiffon, and she carried one dozen long stemmed pink carnations.

Celia Owens from the eighth grade and her escort, Keith Mason, entered next. Celia's dress was of tangerine organza, and she carried white carnations.

Then the Senior High attendants made their appearance. Freshmen, Paula Metzger, in a dress of yellow satin with a sheer overlay, entered with her escort, Billy Harper. Paula's flowers were pink carnations.

Nan Smallman from the sophomore class and her escort, John Beaton, followed. Nan wore a pink embroidered dress with a bell skirt and carried pink carnations.

The queen's first attendant, senior, June Burks, entered next with her escort, Pat Hawley. June chose a white organza and taffeta formal and carried red carnations.

The flower girls, Lynn Jenkins and Kim Morris, came next. They wore dresses of blue and white sheer cotton and carried baskets of rose petals to shower the path of the queen.

The crown bearer, Ricky Buchannan, wearing a white coat and black pants and tie followed. On a white satin pillow, he carried the crown of rhinestones.

QUEEN

As the band began to play the Alma Mater, the queen entered. She is Miss Rickie Lyles, a junior, and was escorted by Freddie Howard, who is also a junior. Rickie was adorned in a gown of flowing white organza over satin. After kneeling in front of the throne, Rickie was crowned by Freddie and was presented one dozen long stemmed roses as the band played "Stardust." Her reign had begun.

Many hours were spent in preparation of the ceremony which lasted some twenty minutes. Beta and band members decorated the stage with a Valentine theme. Over the queen's throne, there was a large red heart supported by cupids. On either side of the stage, there

STUDY OF COMMUNIST METHODS

Editor's note: The following is the first installment of a series by Major William E. Mayer, M.D. It covers "Brainwashing" from the frightening viewpoint of an Army doctor who served as chief neuro-psychiatrist in charge of the rehabilitation of American prisoners of war. This was the man who worked with released Korean war prisoners and probed into those minds twisted by Communist techniques. This address by Major Mayer was originally given as a radio broadcast before the Freedom Foundation and provides, we feel, a way to understand what Major Mayer calls "Communism . . . this severest and most competent of all the tyrannies which have been imposed upon human beings."

I am going to talk about Communist indoctrination, for the very simple reason that only in the last few years have we really had a chance to learn anything about it that wasn't just horror stories or the sometimes objective, but statistically insignificant, stories of individuals who'd been held in Communist captivity.

Communist indoctrination and its methods present to us the Communists' primary weapon, the weapon with which they've done this fabulous thing that's been expanding to such an incredible degree just in the last few years.

Our primary weapon in this country, despite the fact that everything you read and see and hear is about guided missiles and push-buttons and gadgets, is still the human being; and the quality of the human beings which make up our defense establishment is something that has to be scrutinized from time to time and really continuously, and the attempt to make him into a finer instrument for the preservation of our freedom against foreign intrusions is an effort that can never be let down.

We've reason to believe, I think, that this weapon needs some work. What I'm about to say will be drawn primarily from data which was collected officially by the United States through military and some civilian agencies. The facts I will give are facts. The opinions and the conclusions which I will draw are mine and not necessarily those of any agency of the United States, particularly the Department of the Army or the Department of

The cheerleaders of L.O.H.S. wish to thank every loyal fan for their kind support in previous ball games. A special vote of thanks from the B-Team for the support given them. Very seldom do you find a school that will back their B-Team as Lone Oak does.

SEARCH FOR HAPPINESS

Robert Lough

If only I lived by the misty seas, Where silence reigns, where the soul runs free,
Perhaps I'd find my solace there,
Perhaps by the sea I could learn not to care.

Once I was a happy lad,
To me the world could hold no bad,
I'd wander far through the hills and trees,
Through the joys of boyhood,
through the soft summer breeze.

But then as time rolled on, it seems,
There came an end to my boyhood dreams,
For racing into my carefree life Came a word of sorrow, a word of strife.

Now it may seem strange for you to hear
That one little word could cause
a tear,
But I swear by earth and heaven
above,
That the word of sorrow was the word called love.

I suppose that things would have been alright,
If she'd said she loved me when I asked her that night,
But instead she shattered my hopes of life,

She told me never could she be my wife.

'Tis true, she thought me a noble
king,
With all my royal grandeur,
But I'd never make the gallant knight
Which she some day hoped to procure.

Yes! A knight in shining armor, Mounted proudly on a white Arab steed,
'Twas the only love she was looking for,
Not the boy whose heart she had caused to bleed.

But love comes once, then never again,
That's why her hand I still hope
to win,
So I'll keep on fighting till her wedding day
For the place by her side that's been taken away.

Now perhaps you'll understand why to live by the sea
Would be a comforting life for me,
For, if only there I could learn not to care,
Then of this girl I might never be aware.

FBLA

The FBLA met February 8, 1963, at 1:30 in the club room. In the business meeting the point system was revised and each member totaled the points they have made so far. Some are already eligible to go to the convention. The requirement is 1500 points. We will enter contestants in the spelling, arithmetic, public speaking and scrapbook contests. Members which will represent the club in the contest were picked from the ones having the points and their eligibility in spelling, etc.

A DREAM COME TRUE

By Martha Rose and Paulette Lamm

Many of us either drift or struggle through twelve years of elementary and high school education with the supreme hope of some day entering college.

Such a dream was Carolyn Douglas'. After years of work Carolyn has taken her forward step into college as she entered the University of Kentucky at the beginning of this semester in the 1962-'63 school term. She was allowed to enter before graduation due to the fact that

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL FORMS BETA CLUB

The Junior Beta Club for seventh and eighth graders was formed the first semester of this school year, however the seventh grade members were only allowed to join at mid-term. This is due to the fact that they can't be rated on their previous elementary grades.

The eighth graders must maintain a 2.2 standing while seventh graders must maintain a 2.5. This is due also to the adjustment from elementary grading. The seventh grade will probably meet separately from the eighth grade because of inadequate space. There are 37 eighth grade members and 34 seventh grade members.

The Junior Beta Club has been doing an excellent job this year. At their meetings they have a business session and then a program. On these programs, high school topics are discussed and carried out very well.

COMMUNIST METHODS . . .

Defense.

I couldn't agree more that Americans are in danger of something connected with lethargy. We've been manifesting a good bit of lethargy recently about civil defense, for one thing. For about twenty years we have been manifesting a good bit of it about Communism. This was partly by design of the Communists. Their program of tyranny is clothed in such complicated and often boring and repetitious and abstruse economic and political theory that a great many people who could understand Communism simply abandon the attempt because it gets so complicated that it's almost not worth the effort and you get lost, and we're content to call it names and realize and agree among ourselves that it's bad, and yet we are terribly unrealistic about it . . .

It's time that we slipped out of the lethargy a little and tried to understand Communism, its mechanics and its intentions, in a much more specific way. We have never before overcome any kind of an adversary by calling it names and then trying not to think about it and hoping it will go away.

were smaller hearts. White wrought-iron furniture and fencing entwined with red roses completed the decor. Some of the workers were: Gaylen Hargrove, who headed the lighting committee; Janice Floyd and Linda Churchwell in charge of decorations; Nancy Godfrey, Rebecca Blackston, Lynette Davis, Georgia Dunlap, Iris Hargrove, Charles Graves, Mike Boren, Mike Harton, Don Green, James Collier, Juliana Wenzel, Danny Huff, and Eddie McDougal.

Names omitted do not mean people were unrecognized for a job well done but all names cannot be mentioned. All who helped have the thanks of Mr. Blackburn and Mr. Petty and many others. Congratulations on a most successful coronation.

Soo, Pig! . . . This chant is not too familiar around the advanced biology classroom because all the students are much too busy with their dissection. As anyone can easily see the students are "enthralled" with the inset piggy picture.

VALENTINE PARTY HONORS LOGAN

A Valentine Tea was given by the Future Homemakers of America on February 14 in the home ec. department. The hostesses were: Joyce Siress, Shelia Friedmann, Georgia Dunlap, and Delois Tucker.

The table decorations followed the Valentine theme. The center-piece was of red satin arrows. Other table decorations included red candles in crystal holders and white cloth.

The FHA sponsors, Mrs. Lester Goheen and Mrs. Tommy Logan were presented with corsages of red carnations and pearl hearts by Delois Tucker and Shelia Friedmann.

During the day approximately 150 people attended the tea.

STUDENTS QUIZZED ON FITNESS CRAZE

What do you think about the new craze on physical fitness?

Mr. Crooks—"Just because the Kennedys say walk is not reason enough."

Bill Lindsey—"I think it's a good idea but too much like a fad now."

Patty Adams—"I think it is a good idea, but it can be over-done."

Larry McCracken—"It's for people just like Mr. Crooks."

Bill Miller—"A little exercise never hurt anybody."

Dwight Woodford—"I don't think they have good sense."

NFL Travels

Blues Sneak Past Flash

The Flash, a ball club that has proven itself to be inconsistent throughout the entire season, seemed to be incapable of holding onto the ball Friday, February 15, and as a result they were decisively trounced, 63-37, by a strong Tilghman quintet.

Charlie Brown and Pat Hawley led Lone Oak in scoring with 13 and 10 respectively. Big Jim Gordon, Tilghman, was high in the game with 20 points.

The Flash couldn't hold their offense as the Jets went on to win 74-54.

SMA Downs Flash

St. Mary's defeated Lone Oak 76-45 in a game at the St. Mary's court on February 5. St. Mary's was in complete control of the game from the first. St. Mary's led at the end of the first quarter 20-8; at the half-time the lead was 13, 19-32. The St. Mary's offense was too much for the Flash as they built their lead to 21, 52-31 at the end of the third quarter. The host continued to up their gap as they went on to win 75-44.

Mike Taylor poured in 23 points to pace the St. Mary's offense. No Lone Oak player managed to hit double figures but Pat Hawley and Roy Rushing led the scoring with 9 and 7 respectively.

Flash Defeats Reidland

On Tuesday, February 12, a revived Lone Oak team avenged an early season loss by beating Reidland decisively 64-49. It was the first win for the Oakers since January 8, when they defeated highly regarded Heath. Lone Oak led most of the way in gaining the victory. They led by 8 points at the half and gradually pulled away as the game progressed. The game was a preview to the Reidland-Lone Oak clash which will take place at Tilghman in one of the opening round games of the district tournament.

Lone Oak was led by Senior Pat Hawley, who scored 21 points. Reidland's Keith Lambert made 16 points. Miss Rickie Lyles, a Junior, was crowned basketball Queen in a ceremony which took place between the A and B games.

SYMSONIA HANGS ON FOR WIN OVER FLASH

Lone Oak, after giving Symsonia an even battle for the whole game, went down to defeat by the slim score of 56-51. The Oakers had a two-point advantage at the end of the first period, but the Rough Riders led at the half-time by 29-23. The Rough Riders stayed in front the rest of the second half by about a six-point margin, except for the time when the Oakers put on an all-court press to tie the game up at 45-45.

Symsonia then again edged away slowly to take home the hard fought victory over Lone Oak.
