The car wash was very successful, taking in approximately $110.00. This year the Sophomores are working hard to have a dance that the alumni, students, and faculty will be proud of.

Don Presley, President of the Sophomore class, would like to thank everyone who worked at the car wash and for supporting the Sophomore class.

CHOIR REPRESENTED AT QUAD-STATE FESTIVAL

Thirteen members of the Lone Oak A Cappella Choir were selected to attend the 19th annual Quad-State Music Festival at Murray State University on November 7, 1966.

Those chosen were as follows: Pat Beaton, Jenny King, Patty Legeay, Linda Box, Kathy Purcell, Gennie Goode, Marvis Lisso, Mark Fleischhauer, Charley Lindsey, Keith Seay, Charlie Graves, DeWayne Burnett, and R. L. Summers. Brenda Canup and Don Presley attended as alternates.

The Lone Oak students met with approximately 310 other choir members to form a tremendous chorus. The group rehearsed several songs during the morning and afternoon hours, and later that night presented a short concert in the Waterfield Student Union Building. The chorus was under the direction of Robert Baar, department of fine arts, Murray State University.

The songs selected were "The Lord is a Mighty God," by Mendelssohn, "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs," by Graun, "Carol, Sweetly Carol," by Ehret, "With A Voice of Singing," by Jennings, and "Sine Nomine," by Williams.

The Quad-State Music Festivals are co-sponsored by the First District Kentucky Music Educators Association and the Murray State University Music Department.

Baker, Perry Win "Debate Of Month"

The debate team of Chris Perry and Steve Baker were victorious in the University of Kentucky sponsored "Debate of the Month" Saturday. The boys received a unanimous vote from the three judges.

The win entitles the boys the right to defend their lofty position again next month. On December 9th, Chris and Steve will debate Lexington Henry Clay. Many believe Henry Clay is the top debate team in the state.

Only last week the boys debated the highly regarded Clarksville, Tennessee team and won.

If the team wins three times, they will participate in the "Debate of the Year" in May.

Students Vote To Extend School Annual

On November 2, the student body voted in favor of the extension of the annual in order to cover the events taking place at the end of the school year.

There are numerous advantages to having a summer delivery of our annual. This year the annual will be much larger than the previous ones. In addition to our colored division pages, there will be two pages in living color. The cost of the annual will be increased along with the quality; however, we will get a discount by having the summer delivery.

The Seniors will receive their annuals through the mail in the late summer of 1967. The rest of the student body will get their annuals when they return to school in the fall.

Mr. Trentham, along with the annual staff, would like to thank all the students who participated in the voting to help make your annual the greatest!

1966 Graduate.. Gary Fields Elected To M.S.U. Council

GARY FIELDS

Gary Fields, a 1966 graduate of Lone Oak High School, has been elected Vice-President of the Freshman class of Murray State University. Gary conducted a vigorous two-week campaign of appearances and speeches in order to defeat four other nominees for the office.

Evidence of the success of Gary's campaign lay in the election results. With about one-third of Murray's 2,700 freshmen voting in the class election, Gary's 294 votes represented a decisive plurality of 114 votes over his nearest opponent.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fields, Jr. of 2901 Oregon Street. While at Lone Oak, Gary was a member of the concert and stage bands, and was elected president of the Beta Club. He has one brother, Don, who is also attending Murray State University.

When asked about the election, Gary said, "It was a long, hard campaign, but was worth it. It was a pleasant experience to meet the teachers and students. I am honored and pleased to receive this office of my Freshman class."

What Is A High School Newspaper

How do the students of Lone Oak evaluate the Oak 'K'? Do we read the entire paper and then offer helpful suggestions to the staff? Or do we complain about the paper to our friends after just glancing at it? Only by reading the entire publication can we get a real view of our school paper. The staff welcomes suggestions from the students, but only after they have been carefully thought about.

Do we try to understand the problems of financing a school publication? Or do we criticize the paper for having "too many ads?" The expense of publishing a school paper is more than many of us realize. Only by selling and printing advertisements can our newspaper be printed.

Do we realize that the Oak 'K' reflects the principles of our school to whomever may read it? It is read by many people outside the school. What it contains is most important; many people draw their opinions of our school, students, and faculty by what they read in the Oak 'K'.

Do we see the importance and purpose of many of the articles in our school paper? Or do we wish it to be merely a "funny paper" or a "gossip column?" The humor in our paper may not be evident to many of our readers, but it is there. Though "gossip columns" will usually excite comment among student readers, they may just as readily bring embarrassment to some students. For this reason the Oak 'K' has chosen to exclude such material.

Probably the primary function of our paper is to reflect the activities of our school. The stories concerning activities which are most important to Lone Oak are given the most prominent display, but all activities are reported.

The Oak 'K' should serve as an instrument of education. It strives to educate the average student in the resources of our school and in its needs. Our school paper strives to educate our mothers and fathers by informing them of the school system and its activities and accomplishments.

Particularly, the Oak 'K' should serve in promoting school spirit. Many times it is hard to weld the students closely together on matters that concern our school, and the newspaper is one of the most valuable agencies for bringing about this unity of spirit. The Oak 'K' strives to do this by trying to arouse student interest in projects that are for the benefit of Lone Oak, by commending good scholarship through the "honor roll", by stimulating student pride in our school, and by acquainting the students with the activities of Lone Oak through club news, sports news, and the work of various departments.

The Oak 'K' should serve as a guardian of the rights of the students of Lone Oak. This is done through our column "As We See It" and various editorials.

It should also serve as a weapon in fighting harmful influence that may make its ways into our student body. This is done through interviews, feature articles and editorials.

Although the scope of its activity is restricted to a small field, the Oak 'K' can carry out all of these services. This is a paper for the community, as well as for students.

"Criticisms of high school newspapers will not cease until the readers become more con-

Clubblicity

The clubs of LOHS are now in full swing. Almost all clubs have projects planned or in action.

The Hi Y and the Tri Hi Y are sending several delegates to a mock United Nations convention in Louisville. The Tri Hi Y is collecting canned goods or money for their annual Thanksgiving Baskets.

Lone Oaks' Junior Beta Club will be selling booster pins before and during the ballgames this year. The pins are inexpensive and should really give school spirit a boost.

Our Future Homemakers have really gotten down to business. They have discussed and prepared all their projects for the coming year. The club is also going to give Thanksgiving baskets to a nursing home.

The FTA's chief project is selling pennants to raise money for their annual scholarship. This $100 scholarship will be given to a deserving member of the club.

Several members of the FBLA Club are going to answer telephones for the annual "Telethon of Stars" this year. Also the club is giving Thanksgiving baskets to some needy people of our community. The Future Business Leaders are striving to be a Gold Seal Chapter.

THANKS TO MRS. MILLER

For the last two months, Lone Oak High School has not been the same. The change hasn't been noticeable to everyone, but to the people who have worked with Mrs. Miller—in class and out—this school has been at least a little more exciting. For some, English has become real, instead of just a book. For others, her direction of "The Lottery" has given drama a meaning.

On the day "The Lottery" is presented, Mrs. Miller will conclude her student teaching under Mr. Bolton. She will then return to school to finish work on her degree.

With her bubbling personality and the ever present sunglasses, Mrs. Miller has come to mean a lot to Mr. Bolton's students. She had a subtle way of getting what she wants from her students. Quality is her qualification.

scious of the standards set up for their paper, and learn to evaluate their newspaper in terms of these standards."

The Old Stairs

By MARY DAVIDSON

Where once we trod with sodden feet,
Upon the stairs whose wooden squeak
Made us remember what time it was,
And that our excuse would say,
"Because"

There now stands twelve feet of white plaster wall.
The very same our grimy hands used to maul.
Where is the banister whose dark wooden hue,
We plastered with gum when we couldn't chew?

Gone now is the closet beneath
Where seventh and eighth graders used to sneak.
The colorful traffic jams of people and feet
Are no more—shall we weep?
I can see no friends upon the stairs
Where once we met and tarried there.

There is only a hard, wood floor
To fill the place where we once roared
Down the stairs and out the halls
To get to class and have a ball.
Gone! Swept away! They are no more!
The faithful stairs, we're in mourning—sore!
As you walk over the beloved spot,
Remember this, but tarry not —
"The glory that was Greece,
The grandeur that was Rome . . ."
So were the stairs, and all are gone.

Long Hair, A Hazard?

By NANCY HULETT

Today, a familiar school scene is that of the long-haired girl attempting to get a drink of water from the water fountain.

She attempts to balance an armload of books in one arm, her purse with the other, and tries to find a free hand with which to turn on the water. Of course, she needs still another hand to hold back her hair.

But alas, what usually happens is that she gets wet hair, no drink, and drops at least one book.

Actually, having four hands would solve this particular problem, but think of the ones it would create. Who wants to iron a shirt with four sleeves—or for that matter make one? Can you imagine having to untangle your arms?

It appears that the easiest solution to this problem is one that requires masculine attention.

Whereas, a boy strolls up to the water fountain unconcerned with the problem at hand, and since he has one free hand anyway, the logical solution is that he gallantly offers to hold the lady's hair back while she gets a drink.

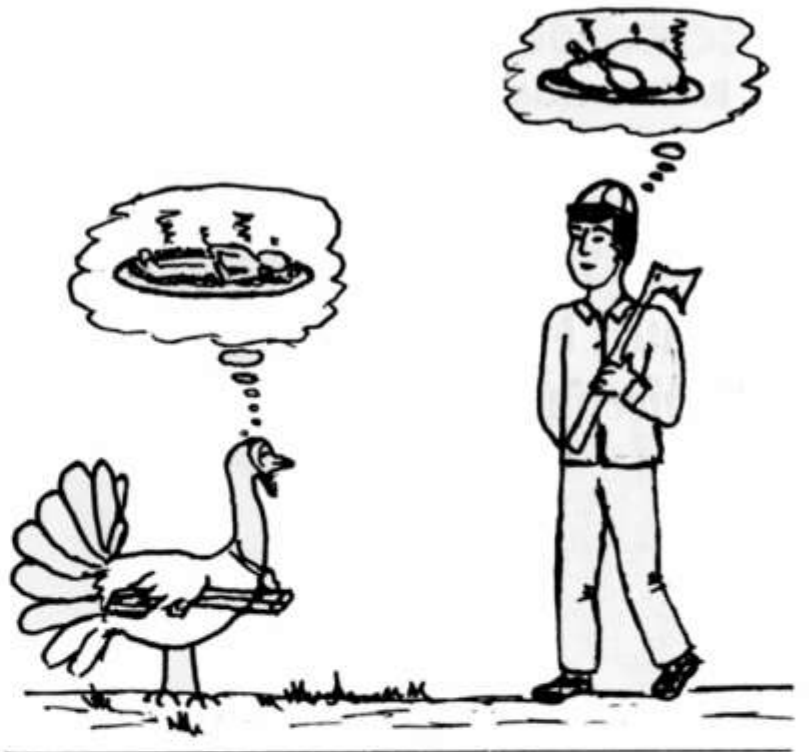

Not only will this save him the time spent watching her vain attempts, but it should bolster his male ego.

This problem is not only of importance to the girl with the wet locks, but involves each and every one of us.

Suppose that several strands of this hair goes down the drain each time the long tressed girl tries to get a drink. Our sewers could soon back up and drown us all.

Still another point to be considered—with today's long hair trends, boys may soon need assistance in getting a drink, too.

So boys, please come to the aid of these struggling (and thirsty) girls. Remember, the life you save may be your own.

Students For Council

By Stewie Gillen and Brenda Wurth

The "As We See It" question for this month is, "Are you in favor of a Student Council at Lone Oak?"

Don Presley — (Sophomore) — Yes, I am definitely in favor of a student council. My reasons are: If a proper and complete constitution is drawn up, this council will be effective in that it will bring the student body and faculty closer together in their understanding of each other. I believe even greater accomplishments can be made for Lone Oak through a student council. Another of my reasons is that less griping will be done behind the backs of people, because these suggestions and gripes will be brought out in the open by the council and solved effectively.

Rodney Messic — (Sophomore) — Yes, I am in favor of a student council. I think any comprehensive high school the size of Lone Oak should organize a student council, as it would provide an effective and beneficial means for representing and guiding the student body. Through the use of a student council many things could be accomplished, both for the school and for the community. There are numerous jobs and tasks in a high school that could be handled through the use of a student council. New clubs and activities could be organized, programs in accordance to student interest and requests could be scheduled, and interesting displays exhibited. Through a conscientious effort and co-operation, I believe such a program can be attained.

Pat Parker — (Freshman) — Yes, I think we should have a student council at Lone Oak. In meeting the important educational aim of developing citizenship, some high schools have organized a system of student participation in school government. This system is a student council. In meeting this important educational aim, our school should organize a student council.

Randy Bowling — (Sophomore) — Yes, I am in favor of a student council at Lone Oak. A student council can help a school in many ways if the people on the council are dependable. A student council helps to set up rules for the students, and strives to help the students understand these rules. At all of the other schools I have gone to, they had a student council and it worked. The student council helped to get money to sponsor dances and it informed the students on what was happening around the school through the paper. In all, a student council would be very good if the people serving on it were not elected by popular vote.

NFL Takes Honors

The Lone Oak High School debaters took all honors at the Bellarmine Student Congress in Louisville on October 29.

Participating in the annual contest were approximately 60 students representing 12 schools.

Steve Baker was elected President of the Senate, while Douglas Myers was chosen Speaker of the House. Receiving "best speaker" awards were Charley Lindsey in the House and Chris Perry in the Senate. Chris and Doug also acted as committee chairmen.

Magazine Drive

The Junior class has concluded a very successful magazine drive. Each year the Junior class strives to sell more magazines than the preceding class and this they did! The class is looking forward to the annual banquet and prom when the Juniors will entertain the Senior class of 1966-67.

The Juniors would like to thank every person for purchasing a magazine and especially those who gave contributions. They would also like to thank their sponsors: Mr. Adams, Mrs. Goheen, Mrs. Dunn, Mrs. Martin, and Miss Stewart.

LOJHS ACTIVITIES....

The various departments at LOJHS are beginning to take part in the school events sponsored by other area schools. On Monday, October 31, the student librarians from our school took part in the "SLACK"—(Student Librarians Association Club of Kentucky) at Murray University. The day was well spent as the student librarians feel they learned much that will help them in their work in the library.

Those in attendance were: Mrs. Williams, librarian, Nancy Alexander, Jeanna Snyder, Jackie Hulett, Alice Garnett, Martha Wamstad, Jane Dunbar, Brenda McIntosh, Kay Uvanni, Susan Hatchett, Debbie Turley, Debbie Finnell, and Jerri House, student librarians.

The Speech Department is active in speech contests. Mr. Jerry Harris, speech teacher, and a group of students took part in a novice speech contest at Grove High School in Paris, Tennessee recently. This was the first contest that our Speech Department has taken part in this year. Students participating in the contest were: Pat Williams, Pam McLaud, Jill Thompson, Jill Brooks, Oteka Chenault, Karen Wilkins, Jill Clark, Kathy Runge, Eddie Ellis, Steve Ross, and Karen Baker.

The Junior High Beta Club, sponsored by Mrs. Kelley and Mrs. Carr, had a meeting to explain Beta Club membership. The meeting was attended by 75 interested students. An invitation will be issued to the students whose grades average 2.5 for last year's work.

Congratulations are in order for Pam Hellyer, Ellen Goldsmith, Dwayne King, and Mark Fowler for being winners in the Halloween Art Festival Contest from LOJHS.

Basketball is in the air, as everyone knows. The boys from LOJHS are working hard to be worthy representatives of our school. We also have some young ladies that are working just as hard—the cheerleaders. The election of cheerleaders was held in a democratic fashion, 109 girls went out for the preliminary contest. From this group the student body chose 30 finalists.

The final election was held, again by secret ballot of the student body, and the following girls were chosen to represent LOJHS: Lita Duncan, Kathy Hunt, Lyn McKinney, Debbie Rendleman, Nancy Alexander, Karen Cathy, Jill Brooks, Debbie Boyd, Shelia Buchanan, and Debbie McDougal.

Representing the school in any area is an honor. However, to be chosen by your fellow students is a special honor and a big job to fulfill. We are proud of these girls and especially proud of the student body of LOJHS for the fine job in choosing these representatives.

Freshman Cheerleaders

On Thursday, October 21, the Freshman class elected six girls to serve as Freshman cheerleaders for the 1966-67 basketball season. They are: Patti Bailey, Cathy Bass, Teresa Harned, Debby Lowery, Marcy Maddox, and Kathy Stanley.

The girls were judged on individuality, group co-ordination, jumps, pep, and definite motions.

They were graded on a point system with three points meaning excellent, two points-good, and one point-fair.

Band to March

On November 19, Paducah will have its annual Christmas parade. Our Marching Band will participate in this event, as they have for each of the six years since Lone Oak's band program was begun.

Our band recently marched at Murray State University's Homecoming Parade. The band also participated in a marching contest in Bowling Green, where they introduced their new hats to this area.

Flash to Play In Holiday Tournament

Lone Oak has been invited to participate in the St. Mary Thanksgiving Tournament, November 24-26.

Teams participating in this tournament will be Lowes, the defending champion, St. Mary, Mayfield, Ballard, Fulton City, Carlisle, South Marshall, and Lone Oak.

A drawing will pair the teams for play at a meeting to be held at Potter's Restaurant, Sunday, November 13.

Junior High Notables

PHILLIP SPEES

MARSHA CHAMPION

Phillip Spees, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Spees, has been chosen "Junior High Boy of the Month". This 8th grader has maintained straight "A's" except for one "B+" since he started to school at Freemont in 1959. Phillip, who is hoping to become an airplane pilot, is an active sports fan. His favorite food is steak, his favorite T.V. shows include "Get Smart" and "Hogan's Heroes", and his pet peeve is having to write essays.

Marsha Champion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Champion, has been chosen "Junior High Girl of the Month." Marsha, a 13-year-old graduate of Lone Oak Elementary, has maintained a straight "A" scholastic standing through the 7th grade and thus far this year. Marsha is a Junior High Beta Club member and her ambition is to be a first grade teacher. Her favorite activities are skating and just "fooling around". Her favorite food is pizza, favorite T.V. programs include "Family Affair" and "The Monkees", and her pet peeve is—you guessed it—homework!!

Mr. Robinson Honored At Murray Homecoming

Mr. Robinson was one of the 23 lettermen, from the years 1923-28, to be honored at half-time activities of the Murray State University Homecoming, October 22.

The Thoroughbred Club presented Mr. Robinson, who lettered in baseball, a plaque and a life-time pass to all activities at Murray.

PARENT CHEERLEADERS

PTA BALLGAME, A HUGE SUCCESS!

On Tuesday, October 25, basketball was set back fifty years in two hours at the LOHS gym. The occasion was the Parent-Teacher Basketball Game, the proceeds of which went to the John Robinson Scholarship Fund.

Serving as officials for the game were Mr. McKinney and Mr. Trentham. The coaches were: Mrs. Douglas—women teachers, Mrs. Broyles and Mrs. Harned—women parents, Mr. Petty—men teachers, and Mr. Shelton—men parents.

The women's game began at 7 P.M., and triggered on by their enthusiastic cheerleaders, the parents jumped out to a quick lead with 23 seconds left in the first quarter. The teachers came roaring back in the second quarter to take a 3-2 lead and hung on to win 12-8.

During the second quarter an illegal player was found among the ranks of the parents' team. To the surprise of the audience it was found that Bula McIntosh's first name was John, and he was forcibly removed from the game. He didn't mind though, for due to Mrs. Nagel's questionable basketball techniques he was near death. The second quarter was also the scene of the audience controlling a toss-up between two players after Referee Trentham bounced the toss off the ceiling.

Anyone who came in during the middle of this game probably thought they were viewing a tag team wrestling match.

As a final effort to stop the parent attack, Coach Douglas came in with 17 seconds left to go in the game to lead her team on to victory.

Both teams substituted freely, but the parents carried it a little too far, having nine men on the floor at one time in the ballgame. The parents also created two new positions with Mr. Shelton playing foul line and Mr. Lindsey being player and assistant referee.

The game was suddenly stopped in the third period with the score 37-22 to clean Referee Trentham's sunglasses.

The "star of the game", Referee Trentham, had this comment about the game, "It is nice to know the rules!" When asked if it was hard to referee wearing leotards and using a faulty whistle, he commented that it was. He was asked if it was hard to referee in sunglasses and he surprisingly said that he didn't even know he had them on. When the players continually ignored his calls, Referee Trentham exclaimed that he could care less! When asked what was considered his greatest accomplishment during the game, Referee Trentham stated, "Never at any time did I loose my hat!"

Mr. Petty, the winning coach, had this comment about the game, "I had a tough team and we can beat the parents anytime." When asked if he thought there is any chance of a return match, Coach Petty commented that he believed everyone would enjoy having it as an annual affair. His advice for the losing team was, "If they can get out of bed tomorrow morning, they'll be doing good!"

The men's game was just the opposite—it being a surprising display of skill and talent from both teams. The parents again jumped out to an early lead and held it until midway of the first quarter. Then the teachers started a surge which sent them into a lead that they never relinquished, winning 66-41.

Flash Scores 34 Points At Heath

A capacity crowd watched Lone Oak's Purple Flash take honors at the annual Heath Jamboree, October 28. This was the kick-off game for many of the surrounding teams.

Lone Oak scored a total of 34 points against Sedalia in a 12 minute quarter, winning the game ball for the highest scoring team.

Our team was never behind after scoring their first two points. Sedalia used a tight 1-2-2 zone, which caused Lone Oak to do most of their scoring from the outside.

Kerry Via led the scoring for Lone Oak with 10 points and was closely followed by Val Moore with 9 points.

Other winners in the Jamboree were: Heath over Calloway County, 23-21, Carlisle over Reidland, 23-12, and Ballard upsetting St. Mary 22-17.
