Colonels Win National Honors

By: Carla White

The Lone Oak Band was proclaimed national champions at the annual Cherry Blossom Festival held in Washington, D.C. recently.

The marching Colonels scored higher than twenty-seven other bands in the field marching competition and received one of only six superior ratings given in the concert competition.

On the peak of its return, the band was met by a motorcade with police escorts to accompany them into town and was greeted at the school by about 500 fans.

An appreciation banquet was held in the cafeteria on April 15. Each member received a trophy inscribed with "L.O.H.S. 1980 Grand National Champs Cherry Blossom Festival." Several members of the board of education attended the banquet and letters of congratulations were received from the Athletic Boosters, Martha Lane Collins, Walter D. Huddleston, Board of Education, John Y. Brown Jr., Carroll Hubbard, and others.

Two days after the return from Washington D.C., the band boarded buses once again and traveled to Murray State University for yet another concert competition. The Colonels received superior ratings from all four judges.

Meet the Students

By: Donna Groves

Seniors, what are your plans for the future?

Carol Garnett - to attend P.C.C. in the nursing program and to try to receive my RN degree.

Cindy Gilbert - I plan to attend the Operating Technician Class at the Paducah Area Vocational School.

Tanya Jackson - I plan to take some courses this summer at P.C.C. and then pursue my career at Murray State University to get a Bachelor of Science Degree in Nursing.

April Keown - To go to P.C.C. for one year (major in Biology), then to transfer to Centre College for the remaining three years.

Keith Kidd - To go to heavy equipment operators school and then to get a job.

Sheree Marshall - I plan to be married in August. Then I hope to fulfill a career in the secretarial field.

Julie McGowan - I plan to attend P.C.C., transfer to Murray State, major in secondary education and minor in business.

Melanie Mueller - Your guess is as good as mine.

Julie Pirtle - I hope to attend Union University and major in elementary education. Then, I plan to teach children in the south somewhere. I hope to get married—someday.

Carla RATHER - To work this summer and to go to U.T.M. this fall.

What effects do you feel the building of the two proposed malls would have on the Paducah area?

Susan Bagwell - I do not think that it will go over because of our economy. There are already merchants from the downtown area going out of business.

Lisa Downey - I think it might help to bring some of the prices down on clothes. It would provide a better selection to choose from.

Carol Garnett - The malls would probably bring in more people to the area but, of course, no one can tell until they are built and, then, we can see what happens.

Karen Gunter - It will have many good effects on Paducah. It will bring more jobs for the public and more attraction to Paducah from the surrounding states.

Larenda Nelson - We would not have to go to another town to go shopping and it would keep our money here.

Renee Pittman - The downtown Paducah area would lose out on business.

Carla RATHER - I think they would help Paducah business. Competition would be keener, consumers would have a greater selection, and people would travel from miles around to shop.

Patty Shelton - It would make Paducah more modern and offer more jobs and more places to shop.

Lisa Thompson - First of all, it will add a little excitement and entertainment for all age groups. Large malls always attract people. Also, it will provide a lot of employment.

Gaye Watson - I don't think Paducah has enough people to need two malls. It would hurt the businesses downtown.

Why do you think so many marriages today end in divorce?

Kim Coleman - What ever happened to the good old "once married always married" routine? It seems that people today think that if their marriage isn't working out the simple explanation is "get a divorce".

Susan Edwards - Kids start dating too young. Then they find someone they think they love and get married.

Scott Hartig - Some people get married too young and don't love each other enough. If a couple loves each other, then I feel they can make it through any trying time in their lives.

Sheree Marshall - I believe that more marriages should have a strong religious background and, for those deciding upon marriage, they should be positive that they love each other.

Julie McGowan - Marriage is not taken seriously enough. It is no longer the "cherished state" that it once was.

Leslie Rodgers - Too many young people get married without knowing what they are getting into and without being prepared financially and emotionally.

Patty Shelton - I think many marriages of today are threatened by pressure problems. People don't seem to take marriage as seriously as they used to.

Kathy Spees - Because the pressures of money and cost of living are so high.

What special treatment do you give your mother on Mother's Day?

Susan Edwards - Mark, Dad, and I send Mom flowers and then we take her out to dinner.

Cindy Gilbert - She gets breakfast in bed.

Melody King - We buy her something she has been wanting and take her out to eat.

Tracy Ligon - I send flowers, do little jobs without her knowing and sometimes buy her dinner.

Susan Minton - I tell her how much I love her and buy her flowers. Dad and I fix breakfast.

Julie Pirtle - I try to give her a day of peace and quiet. I give her roses.

Renee Pittman - I give her the best.

Leslie Rodgers - Last year I sent her a red corsage of carnations.

Patty Shelton - I tell her how much I love her, give her a present and help her any way I can all day.

Lisa Thompson - I give her a nice gift, and a "Thanks" for being a good Mom.

Do you think the United States should ratify the Equal Rights Amendment? Why or why not?

Susan Bagwell - No, I don't care about equal rights. I like our stand as it is now.

Melody King - No, because all it would do is to create more problems. Most women get equal rights without E.R.A.

Sheree Marshall - No, I believe that a woman's place is in the home or on a job and that she has a responsibility to her family.

Shuemaker, Bechtold Take Home the Hardware

By: Tina Mullen

The girls' and boys' basketball teams and cheerleaders were honored at the "first basketball awards banquet" held recently in the school cafeteria.

This year marked the first time there has been a banquet to honor just the basketball squads. Heretofore, the basketball players were honored with all other sports, except football, at the annual spring sports banquet. Football has always had its own individual banquet.

Stan Shuemaker, senior, took top honors for the boys, receiving the "Most Valuable Player" award. Stan also was awarded "Most Assists", with seven per game, and the "Free Throw Percentage Award" by shooting 74%.

Senior Mark Bickerstaff was presented the "Mr. Hustle" award and the "Most Rebounds" by pulling down 9.7 per game.

Another senior, Jerry Baker, was awarded the "Best Field Goal Percentage" trophy for shooting 62% this season.

Junior Wes Hagan's efforts to keep the other team from scoring won him the trophy for "Best Defensive Player".

Freshman Andy Gilland received the "Most Improved Player" award from the Junior Varsity Squad.

Winning the "Most Valuable Player" award for the girls' was junior Kathy Bechtold. She also collected the trophies for "Best Offensive Player", (14 pts.), "Best Free Throw Percentage", (& 76%), and the "Most Rebounds" trophy, (12.8).

Other winners were sophomore Karen Herndon who was named "Best Defensive Player," Tammy Burton, freshman, who took home the "Miss Hustle" award, and Sheri Smith, junior, was the "Most Improved" player.

Another change this year was in the tradition of presenting letter jackets. All varsity ball players who lettered and all varsity cheerleaders were presented a letter jacket.

Models Expand Careers

By: Susan Darnell

Brooke Shields, Shelley Smith, Margaux Hemmingway and Tatum O'Neal are among the ten Best Dressed actresses selected by Harper's Bazaar. Despite their various ages and lifestyles they all have at least one thing in common...success.

Brooke Shield, a promising star at 14, is at her best in front of the camera. Brooke was a model as a child, but her performance in the big film, "Pretty Baby", lured her into the movie industry. She is currently filming "Lifespan" with Peter Fonda and "Blue Lagoon", a remake of the classic adventure about two children on a South Seas island. "Blue Lagoon" was filmed in the Fiji islands and opens this spring.

Shelley Smith, another blonde beauty of the camera, is in the midst of change from a model to an actress. She accomplished the title of top-earning model 1978. Shelley later married producer Jonathan Axlerod. She now stars in the hit series, "The Associates", a comedy in which she portrays a young lawyer.

Recently married to Venezuelan filmmaker Bernado Foucher, Margaux Hemmingway is still the spectacular model she was at 19. The heir to the great writer Ernest Hemmingway is teamed up with Bernado in "The King of the Amazon", a romance/adventure film set in South America in the '30's.

As the youngest actress ever to win an Academy Award - 1973 Best Supporting Actress for "Paper Moon" co-starring with Ryan O'Neal, her father - Tatum O'Neal has made a name for herself. Her next films include "Little Darlings", a summer camp comedy in which she co-stars with Kristy McNichol and "Circle of Iron" with Richard Burton.

Lisa Rose, Pam Hoyt, Melony Houser, Tina Duncan, (row 2) Tim Greenwood, and Stuart Buckingham attended the DECA State Career Development Conference. Not pictured are Mark Rikel and Terry Criswell, who won second place in a Food Marketing contest.

Miss Minton also received the first place trophy at the regional competition at Murray State University. Montgomery won first place regionally in the division of Introduction to Business. Abell competed in Achievement in Business Advocacy, a state contest.

Abell was also elected regional Vice-President at the Murray Conference. Therefore, he will preside at all regional meetings next year and will be a member of the FBLA State Executive Council.

Seniors Lisa Greene, Stephanie Waggoner, junior Jeff Riddle, and sophomores Abell and Todd Dowdy competed at Louisville in the category of parliamentary procedure. The team won second place at the Regional Conference.

Seniors Julie McGowan, Marvin Quertermous, and Lucinda Hawkins each competed in the respective categories of Business Communications, Mr. FBLA, and Stenographer I. Each of the three placed second at the regional contests.

Students show excitement on arrival to Jackson Hole.

Students take interest in Biological films.

Beverly Broyles, Jeff Riddle, and Tim Broyles enjoy the leisure life in Wyoming.

Teton Host Biology Students

Twenty students left L.O.H.S. on April 6, 1980 on two different Frontier Airline flights out of St. Louis, to visit the Teton Science School in Jackson Hole, Wyoming. This was an educational trip sponsored by the Biology Club. The Teton Science School lies in the Teton National Park and conducts programs all during the year. Most of the travel during the week was by cross-country skiing or by snow shoes. In this high country (elevation 7,000 ft. to 14,000 ft.) snow lingers until mid May and at the highest elevation it remains year round and never melts.

While there the students were involved in cross-country skiing, snow shoeing and visiting the National Elk Refuge outside of Jackson. Besides learning about wildlife and their habitats, they also built a quin-zhee, a type of snow shelter, which they slept in overnight. One evening they went into town to enjoy the night life of the city.

Also during the week, there were several side trips to different wildlife viewing areas, films every evening, and various biological experiments were conducted and observed by the group.

At the end of the week prizes were awarded for participating in identifying various specimens that live in the Teton area. Denise Northdurft received the first place award. Barry Henson received second, while Jeff Riddle was presented with third place.

Participants were, Brian Arnold, Greg Austin, Danny Beyer, Lonnie Bloomingburg, Beverly Broyles, Tim Broyles, Jeff Brugger, Tony Finnell, Barry Henson, Dale Howard, Denise Northdurft, Greg Raney, Geabe Reeves, Jeff Riddle, Penny Simmons, Kym Yarbrough and Miki York.

Part of the group returned home on April 12, while some of the group was held up in St. Louis because snow was falling just outside of the city. The groups chaperons were Mr. McGroarty, Mrs. Brugger and Mr. Wells.

Miki York and Greg Austin demonstrate the professional way to ski.

Students Named Finalists at Private Enterprise Seminar

Seniors Ronnie Overton and Cheri Simmons and junior Heather Longton are finalists in the recent RECC Private Enterprise Seminar. They were selected, according to seminar test scores, from a field of fifty students from five McCracken County high schools. Four other County high school students were chosen as finalists.

These seven students are now eligible for further competition, to be held at the University of Kentucky. An all expense paid trip to Lexington is scheduled for June 15-18.

Approximately three hundred other high school juniors and seniors will be competing at the state level. Cash scholarships and a trip to the national seminar, to be held at Pennsylvania State University, will be awarded to nineteen state finalists.

According to Mr. David Blackston, of Peoples Bank, "Mc-Cracken County has always done well at state. We usually have at least two or three students who go on to the national level."

The local program is sponsored by the Paducah Area Chamber of Commerce and Peoples, Paducah, and Citizens Banks. The University of Kentucky College of Agriculture Cooperative Extension Service and the Kentucky Council of Cooperatives sponsor the program at the state level.

Wade McNeill takes a mighty cut during the Hickman County game at Lone Oak's home field.

Two Wins, One Loss Highlight Baseball Action

By: Cheri Simmons

Early highlights from Lone Oak baseball action include victories over both Reidland and Marshall County, and a loss to Paducah Tilghman.

Lone Oak-8 Reidland-4

Lone Oak was down 1-4 with the bases loaded, when sophomore Brian Stevens threw his first pitch ever in high school action. Stevens struck out two batters and walked one. He then held Reidland scoreless to get the win.

Lone Oak's Wade McNeill hit a three-run homer to tie the score at 4-4. Wes Hagan and David Dodd hit back-to-back home runs in the next inning.

Lone Oak-10 Marshall-1

Lone Oak came into the game off a 16-7 loss in their second outing against Reidland. "We had to forget and get all the things we had done out of our minds," encouraged Coach Jim Mizell.

Wes Hagan pitched a three-hitter "that was one pitch away from a shut-out", stated Mizell. "They scored on our only error of the day."

Lone had 15 hits against Reidland's most experienced pitchers. Junior Bud Calhoun was 3 for 3 at the plate, while Hagan had two hits and scored three runs.

"We played good defense and made some real good plays on the infield as well as the outfield," praised Coach Mizell.

Lone Oak-5 Tilghman-6

Coach Mizell beamed, "This was the best-played high school ballgame around here in years. For the first time, we weren't three or four runs down just because we were playing Tilghman."

After adjusting to the larger field, Mark Bagwell made a valuable catch in center field during the fifth inning, with Tilghman up 5-3. Wes Hagan hit a double with bases loaded in the top of the sixth to tie the score at 5-5.

The first Tilghman player got on base with a Lone Oak error. He got to second, then a Tilghman player hit a double. Runners were on 2 and 3 with no outs. Lone Oak walked the next batter to load the bases. Tilghman hit between short stop and left field to hit in Tilghman's last run.

"We lost, but it was a learning experience in the way that we lost it," commented Mizell.

The baseball team's district tournament is May 6-9 at Brook's Stadium. Heath will be the host team.

Boosters Distribute Financial Report

By: Scott Bratton

The Lone Oak Athletic Boosters have distributed a comprehensive report on their finances to all athletic coaches. The report includes how much money was spent by the entire Athletic Boosters program up to April, 1980, and also what the money was spent for.

The Athletic Boosters is an independent foundation run exclusively by volunteers. The officers for the boosters include Mr. Frank Harwood, President; Mr. Richard Byrd, Vice-President; Mr. Bill Buckingham, Vice-President; Mr. James Spahr, Treasurer; and Mrs. Jean Dodd, Secretary.

The "333" Club is a major part of the Booster program. This organization includes about 300 members. Each member pays the Boosters $52 or $1 every week. There is a drawing each week for every "333" Club member and the winner wins $100. The person who sold the winner a membership to this club gets $10. There is a $500 drawing at Basketball and Football Homecoming. The "333" Club brought in $12,883 in revenue and after expenses and the drawings, ended up with $5,417. After including anticipated expenses and income there was $3,637 left in the club treasury.

The rest of the Booster organization had $1,021 in their treasury as of April 1, 1980. After combining the "333" Club money and the rest of the Booster money there was a grand total of $4,658 available for the athletic programs.

The Booster organization after meeting with the athletic coaches decided out of the $4,658 available to give the baseball team $400, both golf teams $ 0, both track teams $ 0, and the boys and girls tennis teams combined received $350. A weight machine usable for all sports will cost an additional $500.

Letter jackets for the football team, boys and girls basketball team, and the cheerleaders cost $2,500 extra. After these expenses the Booster organization was left with $908 for the start of next year's athletic program.

At the beginning of this school year the Boosters had $304 in their treasury. The entire basketball program earned the athletic program $6,245. After adding $3,072 from the "333" Club the Boosters had $9,621 available for use. The Boosters spent $8,600 of the $9,621 available between the beginning of the school year and April 1, 1980. This left the $1,021 that was mentioned earlier in this story.

Out of the $8,600 spent by the Boosters, a tackle sled was bought, the cheerleaders expenses were paid for, the football and basketball teams programs were paid for, and a 16mm television camera was purchased. Telephone calls, toss backs for the basketball program, a rebounding machine for the basketball program, and several miscellaneous bills were also paid for out of the $8,600.

The long range plans for the Boosters organization include building a new press box and boys and girls dressing rooms. To help the track team and to increase the help already given to some sports are other goals.
