YOU'VE GOT THE LOOK!

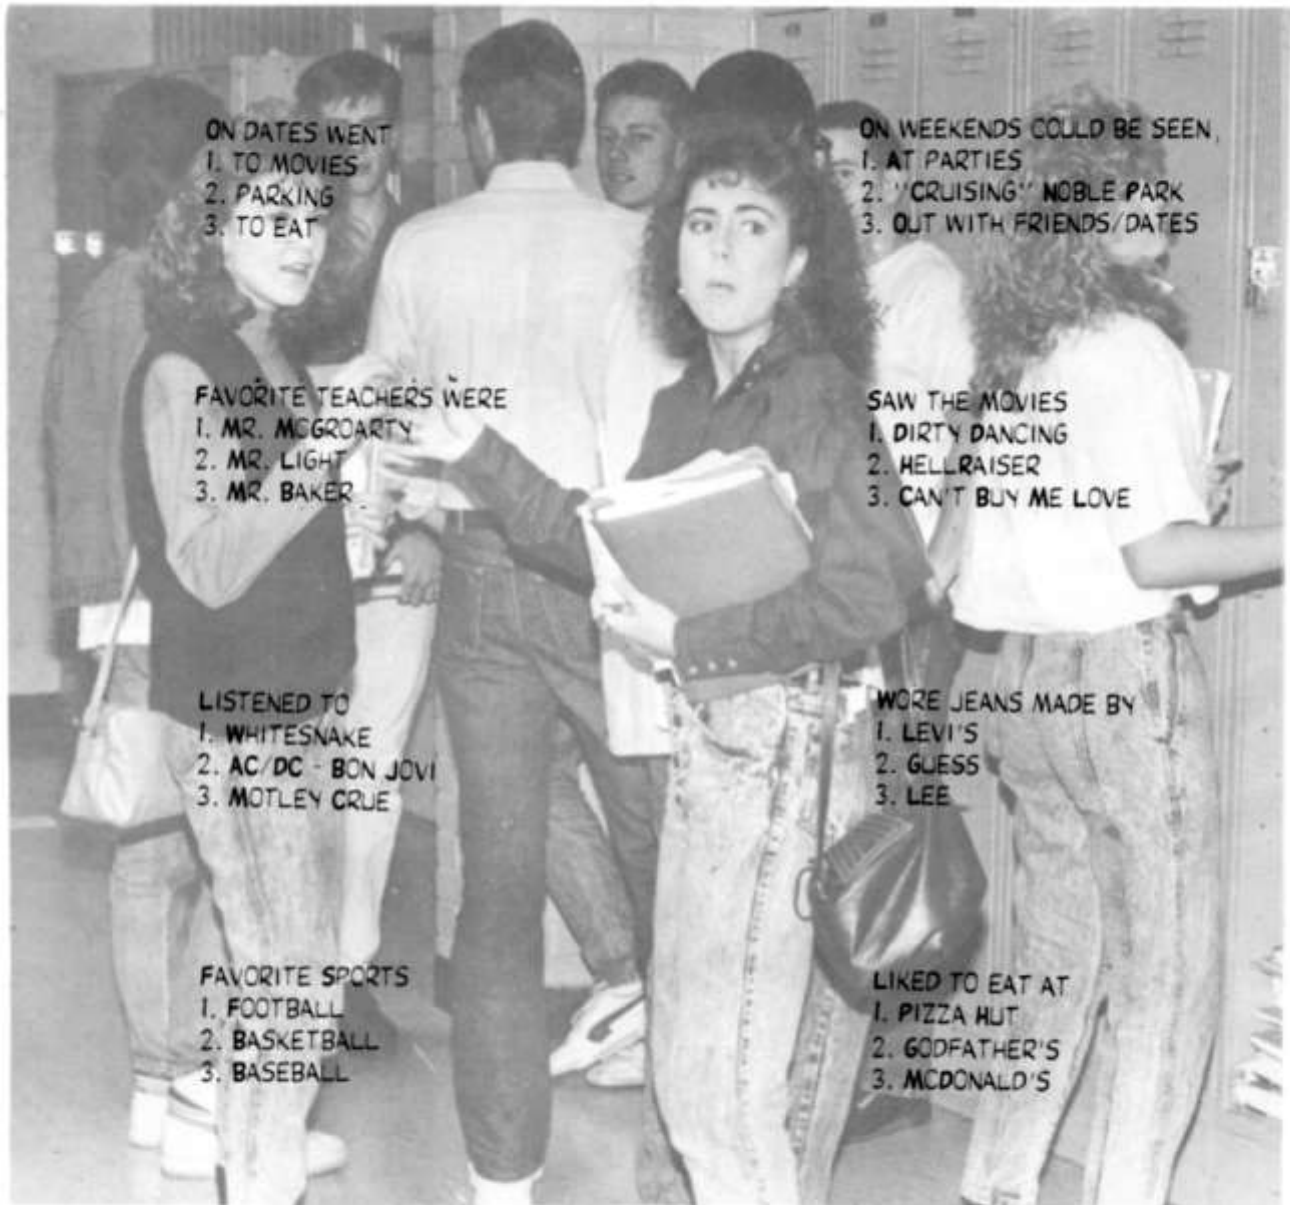

THERE WERE MANY "FADS" THAT MARKED THE 1987-88 SCHOOL YEAR. ANYTHING WENT! HAIR WAS SPIKED, SHAVED, TEASED, MOUSSED, SHORT, LONG, OR ANYTHING IN BETWEEN. GIRLS WERE SEEN "DECKED OUT" IN ANYTHING DENIM, LACE-UP GRANNY BOOTS, MINI-SKIRTS, AND ANYTHING FITTED OR OVERSIZED. OF COURSE DENIM IS ALWAYS "IN" BUT THIS YEAR THE DENIM WAS WORN ACID-WASHED, STONE-WASHED, FROSTED OR DYED. GUYS SEEMED TO LIKE CONCERT SHIRTS, TURTLE NECKS UNDER SWEATERS OR SWEATSHIRTS, EASTLANDS, AND A FAVORITE PAIR OF SLIGHTLY WORN-OUT JEANS. AS ALWAYS JEANS AND COWBOY BOOTS REMAIN POPULAR. KENTUCKY OAKS THEATERS, THE MALL, AND "TOWN" WERE POPULAR PLACES FOR THE OAKERS TO HANG OUT.

MIKE SMITH TRIBUTE

MICHAEL SHAWN SMITH
SEPTEMBER 2, 1969 - JULY 7, 1987

These four pages compliments of Mike's friends

Time, flowing like a river.

Time, beckoning me.

Who knows when we shall meet again,
If ever.

But Time keeps flowing like a river,
to the sea.

Goodbye my friends, the tide waits for me.

Goodbye my friends, maybe forever.

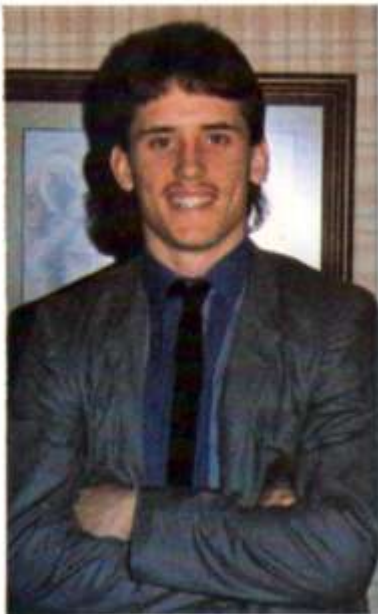

Who knows when we shall meet again,
If ever.

But Time keeps flowing like a river,
to the sea.

Until it's gone forever.

FIRST PLACE

Is it okay to say, "I love you"?
Is it okay to let others see you cry?
Is it okay to feel frightened?
Is it okay to wonder what it is like to die?

Growing up seems difficult to do -
It is what we always tried to ignore.
But when we lost you,
We could not have been forced to grow up, more.

The best of memories,
We will forever embrace.
Remember the time...
We catch ourselves smiling as we stare into space.

Waiting for the big break,
Making the winning play.
We know that is all it would take
To see you smile, today.

We feel you in our hearts and souls,
Your spirit flies so high.
Never will you be forgotten
Forever you are nigh.

Is it okay to say, "I love you"?
We thank God for the privilege
To become your friends.
Michael, we love you
Until we meet again.

The race we are running is so confusing and fast-paced
But even after time passes by, you can never be replaced.
You were always top notch, a number one ace
But now you are the winner...

ACTION ON THE COURTS

Richard dazzles with an underspin forehand.

Chad says "Richard, look what Coach taught me!"

Stephen practices a tough shot.

Shannon says, "Why me?"

Shannon puts forth strength when he swings his racket.

Shari keeps her eyes on the ball.

...AND OFF.

Lana watches her opponnet intently.

Lechelle is ready for a win.

Sheryl blasts the ball with gusto.

Eric's opponnet won't try lobbing him

Dwain likes to take time out to say "hi" to the camera.

MORE

Jody is ready for an exciting tennis match.

Nicky works with his backhand

Joy Beth uses consistency with the ball.

Peyton whams the ball!

Renee uses her break to have her picture taken.

Kori also off the courts.

Kerri uses concentration when she plays tennis.

EXCITEMENT!

Tim says, "Could you ask for anything better?"

Chad says, "How was that?"

Chad likes to pause between matches

Tim hits a backhand volley.

Michael practices volleying at the net.

Rob lets a war whoop.

Todd hits a forehand volley.

Golf

The one and only senior on the girl's golf team is Cherie Mullen. Cherie was medalist on April 19 against Heath, scoring a 38. She was medalist against Fulton City scoring a 33. She was again medalist with scoring averages of 37 and 32. These scores are just from six holes.

The medalist of a golf match is the player that has the lowest score in the match, not just from our team, but the lowest score out of all teams competing.

We would like to express special thanks to all of the staff members. Determination, persistence, and dedication have paid off to bring you, the students of Lone Oak High School, one of the best yearbooks ever! We hope that now and in the many years ahead, when you look through this edition, you will remember all the friends, laughter, tears, and happiness of youth and never forget that we were "Having A Blast!"

We would also like to thank Bill and Harriette Farr and especially Mrs. Janice Foster. Without you, Mrs. Foster, this yearbook would not be possible. Your guidance, support and knowledge helped everyone to strive for the ultimate goal of finishing the yearbook.

Thank You
Mary Stout &
