Little, Rudolph become LOHS's valedictorians

By Derrick Gourieux

Junior class President Jody Tick opened the ceremonies of Senior Class Night, Tuesday, May 10, by greeting guests and introducing the Master of Ceremonies, Senior President Jason Hartig.

After class introductions and musical presentations by seniors, departmental awards were given. Lechelle Yates and Rusty Smith received journalism awards, and Joey Krueger received an award for having the highest average in physiology.

President Hartig then recognized senior superlatives and opened the floor to Mrs. Phyllis Jones and Mr. Dennis

Griffith, who presented students with over $50,000 in scholarship awards.

The program was then turned over to Principal Wallace Adams and Assistant Principal Walter T. Rushing to present the sashes to the Valedictorians, Matt Little and Dan Rudolph, and the Salutatorians, Shelly Gibbs and Joey Krueger, and the honor chords to all honor students.

Mrs. Gwenn Helfer, who organized this year's Class Night, was pleased with the student response to the event. "Student cooperation," she explained, "was the main reason the night went so smooth."

Chris Crockett receives a scholarship from the University of Louisville at Class Night.

Amy Harris

Harris serves as Junior Rotarian

By Rob Wagner

Amy Harris has been chosen this month's Junior Rotarian. Amy is a member of FBLA and has been since her freshman year. She has been a member of both the Beta and Pep clubs.

Miss Harris has received awards for being a honor and outstanding student. She was also in Who's Who Among American High School Students. Amy plans to attend her first year of college at Paducah Community College. From there she plans to attend Murray State University and major in accounting. After college she plans on moving to a larger city and becoming a Certified Public Accountant.

Amy says that her idea of a good student is one who "always does his best. Even if he fails, he keeps trying and doesn't give up."

LO triumphs in SISPA contest

By Rusty Smith

The Oak K staff received eight awards from the Southern Illinois School Press Association (SISPA) judges at the annual school paper contest.

Matt Starling won 2nd place for Best Picture and Caption. Robert Wagner won 3rd place in Cub Division (underclassmen). Derrick Gourieux won honorable mention for Best News Story and for Best Advertisement. Rusty Smith won honorable mention for Best Feature and for Best Advertisement. The paper won an honorable mention award for Overall Front Page Make-up, and The Oak K was deemed a Blue Banner Newspaper.

Lechelle Yates, after many long hours of work, is graduation. Her well-earned position of editor-in-chief is now passed on to Derrick Gourieux. We will miss you Lechelle, and congratulations, Derrick!

Graduation this Friday, 8:00 p.m.

By Jennifer Snow

Commencement of the Class of 1988 is to be held Friday, May 20th in the Lone Oak High School Auditorium.

Reverend R.L. Gaddie of Lone Oak Methodist Church will open the ceremonies with the Baccalaureate. The two Valedictorians, Dan Rudolph and Matt Little will present speeches, as will Salutatorians

Shelley Gibbs and Joey Krueger.

Attending Commencement will be Mr. Bob Rushing and Mr. Jerry Shenwell of the McCracken County Board of Education. Presentation of diplomas will be by Mr. Buddy Rushing, Vice Principal, and Mr. Wallace Adams, Principal. Mr. Jim West, Assistant Superintendent will pronounce each student a graduate of Lone Oak High School.

Underclassmen's Honors Day set for May 24

Outstanding freshmen, sophomores, and juniors will be honored at the awards ceremony on May 24 in the gym.

Honor Students, from each of the three classes, will receive their awards, as well as the students who were selected by their teachers as outstanding in a particular subject. Several club related awards will also be presented.

Senior Wills

I, Dan S. Carden, will my love and wisdom of life to my brother, Tyrone C. Carden, in hopes that his eyes will be opened to the true nature of the world.

I, Leslie Ellis, being of mind and body, leave my seat in calculus to Carolyn Kerins because she told me to, my seat in advanced chemistry to Shannon Stroud if she can make it that far.

I, Rob Cash, will everything to anybody who wants it.

I, Melissa Whalen, Navv woman, will all the good times to my beloved little brother, Puggy. I leave all of my knowledge collected over these four wonderful years to Marcy Turner and Lisa Warner.

I, Holly Warren, being of sound mind and body, leave my position as "Most School Spirit" to Brittany Lawrence for her senior year and my locker to Amy Newton, Laura Cope, and Heather Alexander.

I, Brigette Ann Wood, being of silly mind leave the FRLA trips to Gretchen and Tina, to Rhonda I leave my Ag. notebook, to my "lil' brother" I leave THE "secret to success" on magazines.

I, Thomas Wring, hereby will all of my zero's back to Mr. Wood, so that he might give them to somebody who really needs them because I don't deserve such credit. P.S. Thanks anyway.

I, Craig White, being of tired mind and body hereby leave my position as co-captain of the football team to Brent Gaines and head of the baseball "fun bunch" to Nathan "Fu" Baker.

I, Stephanie Ryan, being of sound mind, do hereby will all my great times during my senior year to Carolyn Kerins, my job at Meis to Jill Green, and my great typing ability to Cheryl Corday.

I, Rusty Smith, being slightly out of my mind do hereby leave to Brent Thurston my parking place, to Rob "Waggoner" my last name so people won't always misspell his, the Key Club presidency to Derrick Gourieux, and the record review to anyone brave enough to do it right.

I, Monica Douglas, being of sound mind and body will to Cheryl Corday my Mario Andretti driving talents and the ability to carry on our crazy conversations, and to Margaret Johnson, my ability to be a compulsive complainer.

I, Jenny Tomes, will to Johnna W. my ability to play ball and to cut up in the dugout. To Michelle C., my talkative and out going attitude, and all my friends to party until the break of dawn.

I, Brent Wright, hereby will my ability to mock Mr. Pope, the "Big Daddy", to anybody who is good enough to sound like him and tick him off the fastest.

I, Tammie Jones, leave my locker in C-Hall to Julie Foster, my seat in Mr. Werner's English class to Brenda Austin, my advanced biology dissecting trays to Lisa Streetman, and to Rebekah Lewis, my parking place.

I, Steve Arant, being of deranged mind and body hereby leave my partying abilities to Chris Clark and Michael Burton and to Chris Clark, a new hair cut.

I, Berry Byassee, of unsound body and twisted mind, will my never ending love and respect to those wonderful and nutty guys in the office and to anyone that's been down there more than four times in one day (you know who you are).

I, Drew Aisbury, leave to Jeff Downs my ex, Jenn Doores; Shonda Walker, the garnets; to prancer, a window; Bridgett Wood, I leave my love; and to Stephanie, a flashlight.

I, Shari Brown, being of sound mind, and whatever else, do leave my position as co-captain of the colorguard to Eva Mitchell, who I trust will learn all my techniques and the authority to "yell" your heart out and to always be the best you can be.

I, Lachelle Yates, will to Derrick Gourieux the editorship of The Oak K and all the laughs that accompany my dad's critiques of the pictures, and to Shannon Stroud, my headstrongness and my ability to agitate Coach.

I, Beverly Hogan, being of crazed mind will my half of the trashed locker to Jody Herzog because he'll keep up the messy tradition; all of my great partying days go to Daniel Henly, Shea Noonan, Matt Danby, Jody Herzog. Enjoy!

I, Linda Williamson, being of sound mind and body, will to Trin Davis my job at the "free food place"; Johnna DeBow, "the Colt"; and to Amy Newton my "attitude".

I, Cherie Mullen, will my wonderful relationship with the "head" lunch lady to Julie Holifield, remember, ONLY THREE CATSUPS per meal!!! I leave years of harassment by Coach Mizell to any poor, unfortunate soul.

I, Michelle Herndon, being of sound mind and body, leave all my seats in my senior classes to my wonderful sister, Melissa. I leave my locker to anyone unlucky enough to have it, books included.

I, Kelly Meredith, leave my old text books to my little brother, Aaron, so he can use the answers already written in.

I, Matt Little, being of deranged mind, do hereby will my five-year-old cleates to Christy Blackburn, my rusty coathanger to Baron Danieis, my knowledge of typing to Amy Kaufman, and my locker to Robbie Powers and Chad Beyer.

I, Lisa Reid, will my position as FBLA President to Karen Wooley and my great driving ability to "Slank". I also will the orange pumpkin to Amy Rushing.

I, Dan Rudolph, leave nothing. I'll need it all next year.

I, Sandra Reynolds, will to my sister Paula the kinds of friendships I've had throughout my school years. I will my classes to anyone who wants them. I will Todd Jeffords to- fooled you!- Nobody!

I, Todd Powers, hereby will my locker #69 to any man who can handle the challenge. I also will my parking place to anyone who owns a Mustang GT convertible and Mr. Flirt, Tyrone Carden.

I, Bart Henson, will to Brent "Beave" Vahle Boppin' Herb's shiny little head.

I, Nicky Keeling, leave a close up shot of the tail light on my Hurricane to all the fellow hot rodders who will never be able to see it that close.

I, Laynie Hudson, being of deranged mind, do hereby leave my guard uniform to Cindy Williams, my hilarious times to Eva (Beava) Mitchell, and the great times of winterguard to Jana Prichett. Remember Eva, "Rappin' is happenin' with me!"

I, Kim Simmons, leave to my brother Tim Simmons my good study habits with the intent that he will use them wisely and graduate from high school with flying colors.

I, Mark Scheer, leave the dream to all fellow Hot Rodders of trying to get close enough to see my tail lights.

I, Greg Hines, leave the everlasting memory of the very quick glimpse of my tail lights to Tyrone Carden.

I, Lisa Ligon, being of no mind at all, do leave Spanish classes to everyone and all my love to Todd.

I, Billy Meadows, being of sound mind and hair, hereby leave my ability to spike my hair to anyone who has the guts to do it, and my bass playing ability to Derek Wildoner.

I, Michelle Millage, will my hurdling abilities to Kerry Schenk, my bad attitude to Brittany Lawrence, my charm to Donna Brookshire, and my ability to be late to school everyday to Danielle Andrews.

I, Alan Rutherford, will to my little sister Loretta the ability to party her junior year.

I, Pam Copeland, being of sound mind and body, leave my ability to only come to school three days a week to Christi Throgmorton and my junky locker to Bridgett Griffith.

I, Mike Davis, being of good mind, leave my football jersey to Robert Weber since he saw it last, and my batting average to Chris Clark since it's not higher than most of his test scores.

I, Carla Williams, will to Lori "Ann" all the partying times to continue in Marshall County for her senior year. Good Luck!

I, Tina Hack, will to Jana Poat all the fun of being a senior, to Phi Alpha Delta little sisters Kelly Shaffer and Holly Earhart my sorority memories, and to Chad Dowdy and Richard Tracy my calculus "secrets".

I, Darren Thurston, hereby will my ability to be late for first hour to Brent T, to Brandon Wood and Robby Cope, suck a "lemon". To Mindy, I leave ME.

I, Jason Hartig, will to LeTonia Jones my sour cream; to Stacia, Jennifer, and Tina— laughter, love, and gum (the things they've given me!); to Jaimee—the memories of good times and coffee tables.

I, Martin Hughes, being of sound body, leave all my senior craziness to Tim Stonecipher, my best friend to Kelly Shaffer, my books to Cary Collins, my paint brushes to Scott Simmons, and my weights to Jeff James.

I, Jody Burton, being of drained mind, will Michael (my brother) the "Z" on weekends, my outdoor skills to Preston Snelling, and last but not least, my half of the locker to Ashley Moore.

I, Sheri Rust, will my Spanish workbook to "Dano and Kito", my locker and "spying" ability to Jana Poat and Patricia Jones, and last but not least, the ability to keep up the tradition to Ashley Moore.

I, Molly Shelton, leave my talent for irritating Kay to Shannon. I hope you use it well. To Chip I leave my seat in advanced math. Good Luck, you'll need it. To Jamie, I leave all my love.

I, Pat Kidd, hereby give all of my good looks and charm to Timmy Simmons. I also leave him all my zeros which were mistakenly given to me by Mr. Harold Wood.

I, Michael Gross, will to my brother, Eric, my speaking abilities in agriculture, to Tim Simmons the best of luck with Melanie Smith.

I, Jennie Church, will my "smiles" to the winter guard, my luck to all the seniors, and my heart to the band.

I, Rusty Reid, being of deranged mind, leave my locker #73 to Brent Vahle, my second hour office aide position to Brian Scheer; all of my broken drum sticks, busted drumheads, and cracked cymbals to Jay Whalen because he loves them so.

I, Bill Coleman, leave Tim Massa the job of driving around Brad Robertson, my seat in geometry to anybody who wants it, my football equipment to Brad Robertson, and my baseball position to Alex Thomas.

I, Relinda Coley, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my calculus seat to Jennifer Coley and my locker that has yet to close to Donna Engler.

I, Michelle Turner, will my ability to break the Code of Conduct "Hands Off" policy to Rhonda Morris and Brian Arnett, my bad habit of getting into some pretty "bad" and "difficult to explain" situations, to Tracy McClain, my bad skipping habits and the "crashes" that went with them to anyone dumb enough to take a chance.

I, Mory Lowery, will my locker, #53, to Martie "Martha" Parker, my habit of skipping first hour to Susan Shelby, and my partving habits as a senior to Rebecca Reed and Lori Livada.

I, Becky Lehman, will my skipping habits to Tracey Stinson and Marc Shoulta, just don't drive, my doing nothing in Coach McGroaty's but talking and making him mad to Ashley Moore, Stephanie Hosick, Jana Poat, and Kelly Shaffer.

I, Missy Lee, being of sound mind and body, will my locker #49 to Paul Thompson and to Nikki Chadwell my ability of not being able to get anywhere on time like I'm suppose to.

I, Shea McGuire, will to my buddy Preston Snelling my outstanding ways in the outdoors and the ability to finally kill that 8-pointer, all the wood in the world to Bradley Downs to build his precious ramps.

I, Missy King, being of sound mind and body, give Betty Reynolds the right to party her Senior year, and also my locker #47.

I, Valerie Ernstberger, hereby bequeath, my love to Chris, my ability to quit smoking to Laura, and my sympathy to both of them because they are stuck here two more years. Good luck, you'll need it!

I, Rachel Krueger, being of sound mind and body will my ability to complete my Senior year to my sister Sheila.

I, Steph Luther, leave my height to Chrissy Zabel, my ability to read music to Ronnie Nichols, my sunglasses to Jeff Oakley, and my ability to take tests to Coach McGroaty.

I, Shelley Hatfield, being of deranged mind leave Sheila Krueger my locker, Marcy McGriff my ability to run 2 miles during track and Cindy Hooker my ability to put up with the teachers.

I, Nick Mills, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my minute amount of calculus knowledge to Bill DeRose, my quarter playing ability to Chad Dowdy, my position on the golf team to Tripp DuPerrieu, and my ability to make interesting conversation to Amy Kaufman.

I, Keith O'Daniel, now sober, leave my heart to Mr. Bruce (he doesn't have one), my natural ability for section leader to Ronnie Nichols, my bad luck to Jamie Hamlin, and all my love to Shannon Pittman.

I, Scott Brazzell, leave Steve Seavert my fancy clip, and to Shawn Hall all of the Rap tapes I own, which is none; to Ronnie, the D.B. Blues, all of his tapes, and the I.D.G.A.D. attitude.

I, Alicia Duncan, of sound mind and body, hereby will my locker and my great times in high school to my brother Andy. I also will the ability to skip school and get away with it to Brad Ray.

I, Doug Downs, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave all the headaches that I gave to my teachers to my little brother Brad and I leave to Tracey Hayden all the great memories of my senior year. Good Luck.

I, Kim Ellegood, being of deranged mind and body, leave my ability to get to school on time everyday to Tommy Correau and only dreams of Joe Garber to Christi Throgmorton.

I, Glenn Shaffer, being of sound mind, do hereby will my trumpet solo in marching band to Brent Carter, my fondest memories of my senior year to Rebekah Lewis, and my seat in lunch to anyone unlucky enough to get it!

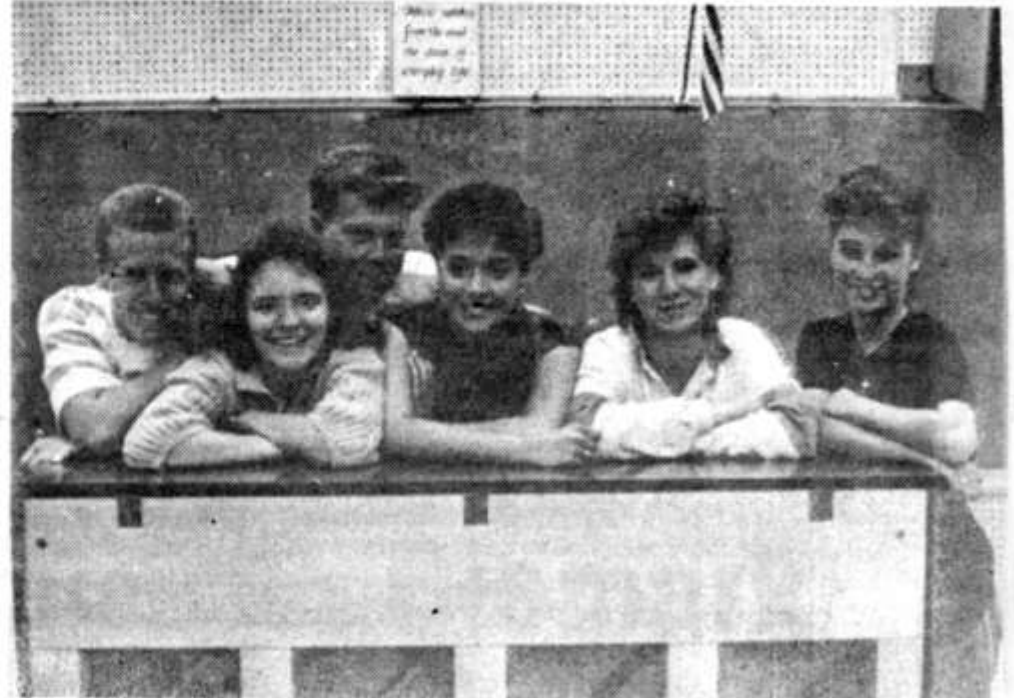

I, Jason Ricks, will my starting position on the basketball team to Brad Kinsev; my locker, number from 174 to 74, to Brent Gaines.

I, Mark Mitchem, of demented mind, leave my laugh to Jason Leath. He almost has it, but it still needs practice, my romantic abilities to Jennifer Kunzman, Upper San Duskie Kevin is too far away! Have a day!
