THE OAK LEAVES STAFF

In yearbook staff we're all great pals; A fun group of guys and gals. There are only two guys, Brent and Drew; Brent's easy to get along with and works hard

Drew is a computer wiz;
But that's not all there is.
Kristy, Deanna, and Anu —
They're our underclassmen crew!
Senior section is Shannon's job;
She has to include everyone, from Jenny to Bob.
Allison loves golf and art

Allison loves golf and art
From the bottom of her heart.
Sport editors Sarah and Nikki
Are totally full of creativity.
Ashley does clubs and homecoming court;
"Cheerleading is a sport!"
Jennifer and Kathy — what a team!
Editors-in-chief, ready to scream.
Mrs. Foster is really great.
Making our yearbook first rate.

Poem written by Deanna Masden and Jennifer Renfroe. 1. Editor Jennifer Renfroe, Mrs. Foster, and co-editor Kathy McDaniel take a break while organizing and planning the yearbook.

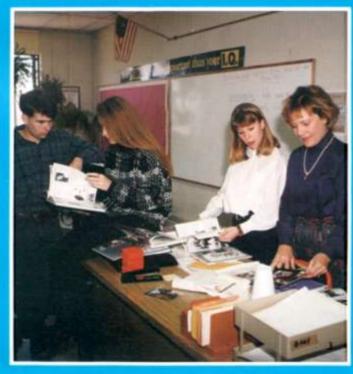

- Nikki Key and Allison Heath take a break after eating a big lunch at Mrs Foster's house.
- Deanna Masden carries on the tradition of modeling the Christmas boxer shorts.
- Class editors Kristy Kilcoyne, Anu Manchikanti, Shannon Hart, and Deanna Masden discuss their ideas for each section.

- 1. The Oak Leaves staff groups around the Christmas tree before opening presents.
- 2. Brent Adams, Ashley Acord, and Drew Rudd work on their activity sections for the yearbook.
- 3. Staff members look for ideas to include in the '95 yearbook.
- 4. Jennifer Renfroe and Ashley Acord are having a blast opening presents at the yearbook Christmas party.
- 5. Sports editors Sarah Steele, Allison Heath, and Nikki Key go over the great action shots of the LOHS athletes.

PIEGE BY PIEGE

Samuel Huff, freshman, displays his "eyes with pride" during the football Homecoming half-time show. Junior Ashley Acord shows off her Lone Oak spirit with a purple tongue.

Amber Nanney, Jill Claiborne, Suzanne Churchwell, Melanie Brazzell, Dana Swann, Tauzzia Meriwether, Amber Walker, and Jennifer Renfroe gather in the lunchroom during flex-time to catch up on all the gossip. Flex-time, an addition to Lone Oak this year, has given the students more time for homework, tutoring, and other activies outside of the classroom.

Carrie Rushing, Beth Collins, and Kathy McDaniel are all smiles about the girls' soccer team's winning season.

Junior, Matt Herndon prepares himself for the welding team competition. The LOHS welding team has won 6 out of 10 competitions and 4 years in a row. Freshman girls; Shelley Skaggs, Lindsey Fesmire, Amanda Maddox, Tereza Kejzlar, Shannon Powell, Ashley Small, and Tonya Zacheretti get together at their lockers before running off to class.

Mr. Griffith's a tough guy when he's on his Harley Davidson.

Karla Oktela, Kristie Wilkerson, Jennifer Hayden, Tonya Traylor, and Traci Niccum get ready to climb the cactus. The Kentucky Colonel Band was invited to participate in the Fiesta Bowl Parade which was a 3.1 mile march for the band. They also had the pleasure of visiting the Grand Canyon during their trip to Phoenix, Arizona.

A Step Above

These twenty-eight students have maintained a 3.5 grade point average for seven semesters. Congratulations, Honor Seniors! The graduating class of 1995 would like to commend you on your hard work throughout your four years at Lone Oak High School.

1. Sophomore Greg Hosfield and seniors Drew Rudd and Jason Sykes set up a campsight. All three are Eagle Scouts, an honor that requires a minimum of twenty-one merit badges and an approved, original community service project which is supervised by the Eagle Scout candidate. Greg refurbished a playgoround, Drew conducted a toy drive for needy children, and Jason built a preschool playground. 2. Senior Crystal Sanders performs in an equestrian event with her horse, an American saddlebred. Crystal has competed in various competitions, including the prestigious World's Championship Horse Show, a show in which the best horses in the country compete.

"As all coaches, I would have hoped one of our teams or possibly an individual would have made it to the state tournament. We had several that came close. I feel that everyone realizes how hard one has to work to achieve the state tournament. It takes hard work and practice in the summer to get ones game to that level. Hopefully the players, both boys and girls, will work hard this summer and take us to that step up the ladder."

Coach David Pope

GUY5

The guys' golf team gave a total team effort this year to finish the season off with an 18-6 record. They participated in the Paducah Invitational where they placed ninth out of 13 teams, and the Marshall County Invatational where they placed ninth out of 19 teams. Out of the 23 teams in the Regional Tournament, Lone Oak placed fifth with a team score of 319.

Cheerleading:

The varsity cheerleaders have just wrapped up an eventful season. The season started as early as last year as cheerleader hopefuls learned a routine for tryouts. Early morning practices, in the summer, got the cheerleaders ready for camp. They attended a four day camp at Murray where they learned cheers, chants, and ways to pep up the crowd. The cheerleaders enjoyed a brief break before resuming early morning practices. During football season, the cheerleaders began to practice for basketball season, and they also made the decision to attend the KAPOS cheerleading competition. During basketball season the cheerleaders, along with cheering four to five games, practiced up to ten hours a week for competition. All this hard work was worthwhile for not only did the squad place first in the region, they also won the K-Pep award. The cheerleaders then went on to represent LOHS in the state competition.

Person by Person,

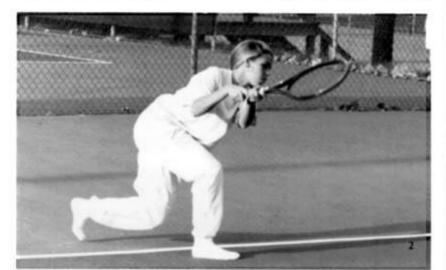

CLUBS

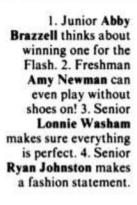

Help out? No way! Only geeks try to be helpful. One person can't make a difference anyway. That's NOT the attitude of the LOHS clubs this year!

TENNIS

"The Tennis
Club has car
washes as fundraisers and we have clinics in the summer to help younger tennis players."
— Aimee Willett

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

"Our projects represent the Industrial Arts Club and this school; because of this, we must work hard." — Anonymous

We Make a Group

"BETA has definitely taught me that taught me that hard work can be rewarding. Community and school projects have proven to be time well spent."

BETA

Paige Ruoff

After all pages are drawn, pictures cropped, copy fitted, and sections are checked and re-checked, the 1994-95 yearbook staff gets together for one last luncheon to reminisce about the deadlines met, pages completed, ads sold, and other tasks too numerous to mention that were put into this year's yearbook. It was also a chance to say one last farewell to the graduated seniors who will be sadly missed.

We'd like to thank Wayne Rushing at Jostens, Gene Boaz Photography, Mr. Adams, Mr. Rushing, all the office staff, and also a big thanks to Mrs. Foster for all she has done to make this yearbook a success.
