And the walls came

As classes commenced for the 1996-97 school year, a year of moving and shuffling, noises and destruction, and finality and continuity began. "Out with the old, in with the new" appeared to be the school motto.

During the summer of '96, the fine arts building underwent a total renovation. As students broke for Christmas vacation, the last days of exemption were filled with transferring "B" and "C" buildings to rooms throughout the school. From the new "A" building to the art room, departments have found themselves spread across the buildings. Pictured on the right is a former English classroom, hanging out of the building in early January. This building was totally demolished and a much more modern facility arose in its place. This year was a tough one, but amidst the mass chaos, the administration, faculty, and student body pulled together to make the transition smoother.

Jackie Allshouse and Erin McGavic take a moment out from raking leaves for the elderly to play in the leaves. The girls are participating in a community service project for the Beta Club. This purpose of this project is to help out those who are not physically able to do the manual labor.

Junior Ashley Emery shoots for two at the final regular season basketball game. The girls had a great season, finishing 18-8 and winning the District Championship.

tumbling down...

Seniors Nikki Key and Anu Manchikanti take a moment to smile after the Basketball Homecoming ceremony. Despite the fact that this is the end of the road, the seniors remain confident about continuing the long lasting friendships that were formed at Lone Oak High School, bringing the walls of hate, poverty, and disunity tumbling down.

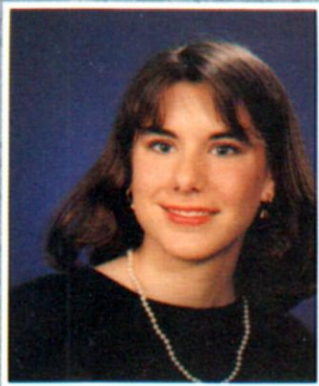

Andy Harris and Lee Titsworth meticulously dissect a cat as Andy Berens can't stand the sight! The students in Coach McGroarty's anatomy and physiology class are given the opportunity to dissect in order to gain valuable hands-on experience, working with the muscles, skin, and other organs.

Honor Students - soaring

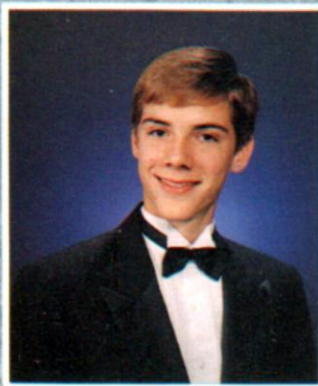

Making up the top 23% of the class of 1997, these fifty seniors have managed to maintain cumulative 3.5 grade point averages over seven semesters. Full of motivation, ambition, and intelligence, these students are the leaders of tomorrow. Because of their hard work and perseverance, they are now honored. Possessing positive attitudes toward education, there's no question that each of these students will soar to new heights. These student leave Lone Oak High School with the desire to succeed and to make the world a better place. Congratulations, seniors!

WHO'S WHO

1. For the first time ever, Lone Oak is the home to three National Merit Finalists. Andy Berens, Cliff Jenks and Andy Harris were named Semi-Finalists because of their outstanding PSAT scores and in February were named Finalists due to their respectively high ACT scores. Only 6,900 students across the country achieve this honor, making up the top .05% of the nation's students. All three were offered the UK National Merit Scholarship package, worth a total of $24,000 for four years.

2. LOHS made an impressive showing at the 1996 District Governor's Cup competition, finishing first place overall. The following students received these place award — back row: Andy Berens, 2nd Science; Andy Harris, 4th Math; Zach Miller, 4th General Knowledge; J.R. Young, Julie Sims, Matt Upshaw, 2nd Future Problem Solving; Upshaw, 2nd Math; Front: Brent Turner, 1st General Knowledge; Anu Manchikanti, 2nd English Composition; Jackie Allhouse, 4th Science; Marty Rudd, 3rd Language Arts; and Lee Titsworth, 1st Language Arts. At regional competition, Harris placed 4th in Math; Turner, 4th General Knowledge; Allhouse, 4th Science; Rudd, 2nd Language Arts; and Barbie Lyles, 2nd FPS.

COUNTY CHAMPS

“Building a strong foundation has been what this program has been about. This year’s team laid more of that foundation. They became competitive within the toughest district in the state. They won the county championship for the first time in 12 years y a combined score of 62-0.

This team had an average GPA of 3.14.

This has been a productive and rewarding year.”

— Coach Grimes

Class Night

The Class of 1997 was honored on May 13 for all the accomplishments they've received the past four years. The class was offered nearly $1 million in scholarships over four years. Beyond this, they have many other honors. They are the first class to have seven valedictorians and over fifty honor students, as well as three National Merit Finalists, five Governor's Scholars and three Coca-Cola Scholarship semifinalists. Seniors were also leaders in the following teams: 1st place, State cheerleading competition; 1st place, MSU President's Academic Invitational tournament; National Welding Champions; 1st place, MSU History Competition; 1st place, 1997 District Governor's Cup; and the McCracken County Football Champs.

1997 LOHS

Commencement exercises for the LOHS class of 1997 were held on Friday, May 23 in the LOHS auditorium. Two seats were left vacant in memory of Brittany Banks and Brian Anderson, who would have been members of the graduating class.

ANNUAL STAFF

The 96-97 Annual Staff reminisces over the past year: our first organizational meeting the spring before this school year ever started to kick off the ad sales campaign, the frenzied distribution of the 95-96 yearbooks at the beginning of this school year, learning the lay out techniques and software, shooting and cropping pictures, typing and fitting copy, hoping (and sometimes even praying) everything fits according to specifications, striving to give EVERYONE as much coverage as possible, examining proofs during the summer, and frantically trying to cover the latest of the events, class night and graduation! Buried deep in all of these memories of working on the yearbook are the nightmares of the never ending noise, dust, confusion, and frustration of the ever present but much needed construction that impeded our progress not just a little! We miraculously survived and are catching our breath after our final work session at our annual "senior send-off" and cook out at Mrs. Foster's.

We would be remiss if we did not express special thanks to Gene Boaz Studio for their tireless efforts in helping us meet our deadlines and being ready at a moment's notice for the unexpected; to Josten's for their help with our truly unique cover and other "specials," and to our sponsor, Mrs. Foster, a special thanks for her guidance, advice, organization, encouragement, and simply hard work that makes our book special.

Theodore Kaczynski, alleged to be the "Unabomber" who had killed 3 people and wounded more than 20 others with mail bombs since 1978, is arrested in Montana in April 1996.
