

The Final Chapter Class of 2013

Senior Class History

A group of fifty-two Freshmen met for their first time in the early fall of 1933 and elected the following officers:

President ..... H. H. JOHNSTON
 Vice President ..... JAMES BERRY
 Secretary and Treasurer ..... BIRDIE MAE JONES
 Paper Reporters—DWIGHT L. WILLIAMS and KATHRYN WARNER

We were green, bashful, and backward. We were run over by the upper classmen, but we were too scared to resent it. We were not able to accomplish much, but under the able leadership of Mrs. Herman Miller, we were able to present the first play of the year, "Chintz Cottage".

We met again the following year as Sophomores, but all the faces were not the same. As a group of thirty-nine Sophomores we were more confident and sure of ourselves, for we had put one year of High School behind us and we had learned some of the ways of the school. Also we had the Freshmen to boss and this gave us confidence in ourselves. We had for our officers the following:

President ..... H. H. JOHNSTON
 Vice President ..... JAMES BERRY
 Secretary and Treasurer ..... LAURA GRIFFITH
 Paper Reporters—DWIGHT L. WILLIAMS and KATHRYN WARNER

Under the leadership of Mrs. James Alcock we again presented the first play of the year, "Short 36". Our class was represented in the various activities of the school by various members of the class.

In the fall of 1935, a small group of happy and cheerful students began their Junior year of high school. It was a much smaller group than the one which started in '33, with only thirty-six on roll. This class elected for its officers the following:

President ..... JAMES BERRY
 Vice President ..... H. H. JOHNSTON
 Secretary and Treasurer ..... GERALDINE BICHON
 Paper Reporters—DWIGHT L. WILLIAMS and KATHRYN WARNER

This was a very successful year, for with Mr. J. C. Dance as sponsor, we gave the largest Junior-Senior banquet in several years. Birdie Mae Jones, James Berry and Homer Harper were leaders from our class in the Glee Club. We were well represented in sports by Herman Fields, James Berry and Earl Metcalf. Our class play, entitled "Two Days to Marry," was given before one of the largest crowds of the year and was a decided success.

In this, our Senior year, we had almost the same group, with thirty-eight enrolled, an increase of two over last year. This group elected for its officers the following:

President ..... H. H. JOHNSTON      Secretary ..... DWIGHT L. WILLIAMS
 Vice President ..... JAMES BERRY      Treasurer ..... RUTH E. WEBB

This was one of the most successful years in the school's history. When the Seniors gave their play, "The Heart Exchange", it attracted one of the largest crowds ever to assemble in the school to attend a play given by any class. This was the first class in the history of the high school to ever put out an annual.

The Reverend J. E. Underwood delivered the Baccalaureate Sermon Sunday night, May 9. Mr. J. H. Richmond, President of Murray College, delivered the commencement address on the night of May 14, thus bringing to a close the history of the Senior Class of 1937.

Mr and Miss LAMS differ from the rest of the superlatives featured in this book because they are based upon votes of the teacher rather than on votes of the student. To be voted Mr. And Miss LAMS one must exhibit qualities of leadership, responsibility, and integrity which exceed that of the average student.

I Alex Ligon leave to Jacob Hyde future detective investigation. To Austin Scarborough, I leave my LOL @ SWAG. To Ms. Morris, I leave onion rings from the BK Lounge.

I Josh Lundberg leave Jay Toney a you-know-what before you-know-when. To Devon Starnes, I leave G's up H's down. Finally, to Logan McKinney, I leave all the kindness I should have shown him but never did.

I Erin McIntyre leave to Amber Hannah, Mariana Garrett, Alex Houseman, and Madison Moxley all the fun FFA memories. To Abigail Dollins, Natalie Smith, Martin Livingston, and Jeremy Phillips, I leave Super Value. To Lauren Panosh, I leave Steve. To Patrick McIntyre, I leave mom and dad and a great high school experience.

I Zach McKinney leave to Mrs. Shelby the fort. To Prather Harris, I leave great rides to schools and your new pair of Lebrons....and tardies. To Prather and Ryan Graner, I leave ultimate ping pong. To Aaron Hayden, I leave my ankles for basketball. To Anna Hughes, I leave a flash by your twitter name. To Kam, I leave the basketball court. Finally, to Mrs. Carter, I leave my heart.

I Garrett Milles leave to everyone not a care in the world!

I Victoria Mills leave to Abigail Powers, Natalie Smith, Jeremy P., and Mart-in Super Value. To Alex Houseman, I leave creepin on the boys and cross country walking. To Mckenzie Huskey, I leave plans to hang out that never happen and Justin Bieber.

I Ryan Murt leave to Lauren Panosh my awkwardness to people walking in the hallway. To Lauren, I leave my title as Sims' BFF . To Gavin Posey, I leave my ability to jump over hurdles. To Jeff Walker, I leave my inability to be photogenic. To Brenna Adams and Madelyn Kauffman, I leave my beautiful singing voice and outrageous dance moves. To Sam Paschall, I leave my cross country work ethic during practice. To Oliver Fell, I leave my ability to not say certain things when I shouldn't. To Patrick Wadlington, I leave my sick big booty skills. To Monica Munoz, Oliver Fell, and Beth Harper, I leave my history knowledge. To Landon Davis, I leave my looks. To Anna Hughes, I leave my Spanish name, Mario. To Ms. Warmack, I leave infinite glitter, smiles, and everlasting joyfulness.

I Sarah Nicholas leave my awkwardness to Kye Miller and Gregory Willet. To Eli Gonzalez, I leave my unbelievable luck with the feds as well as a spare bulb for your headlights. To Taylor Fondaw and Gracen Wheat, I leave my beloved Baylee, as if you didn't already take her. To Mitul Ahmed, I leave my loving and a "You don't even go here." - Bangladesh, one love. To Tyler Shaw, I leave in party situations a hint since you obviously can't take one. To Jacob and Rana, I leave every ounce of my next year. To Burr, I leave a huge hug and a coupon to forever be my creative writing partner... especially when the CID's don't work out. To Michael Myer, I leave pew four, left side, and some Sunday morning Vivarin. To Austin Scarborough, I leave all my years prior to second grade, because nothing in life mattered before I met you. To Ben Dolan, I leave Spanish I lessons that were probably never learned, a good luck to the future of the CIDs, a fresh bottle of that peach poison you gulp, all of my not-so-memories from the infamous summer of '11, bonfires, dramatic house parties, and I will go ahead and make this a bundle and throw in Lateeka, use it well. To those of CO13 who took the time to know me beyond my awkward exterior, I leave a HOLLÁ, I'll see y'all LATA, because well, the beat goes on. And well, that's...uh, Well, that's that.

I Brooke Nordstrom leave my sister Talise to the ability to continue to be yourself, smart, talented, funny, helpful, a great daughter, and an amazing sister. You are a strong girl and I know you will go far in life. To Joseph Koonce, keep being your funny, awesome self. Never lose your laugh and your witty comments. Continue bringing out smiles in others. To Alexis Jones, don't ever give up! Your strong personality and determination show that you'll have a successful future. To everyone, make 2013, a great year!

I Kalen Parker leave all my flavors of butter braids to Mrs. Duncan and Ms. White. To Tyler Cope, I leave catching Scheer's bullpens, have fun Bro! To Trevor England, I leave 10,000 fist bumps. To Nick Shumaker, I leave 1/2 my poptarts. To Ashley Lambert, I leave all wonderful memories.

I Jamison Parsons leave James Lugo and Jamieson Millet my ability to make jokes and laugh a days pain away. I also leave them my ability to stomach the Radioactive/Toxic waste they serve at lunch. May they suit you well and lead to lots of "TEH LOL's" my brothers. To the drama club, I leave my acting and singing ability. To Delaney, I leave my heart and spirit. They belong to you but this is just to be formal. I will always be with you, even when I am not there in person.

I Joseph Perrault leave to Pedro Loreda and Roberto Soto my wireless mouse and sweet tea. To whoever wants it, I leave my sense of humor. To William Hernandez, I leave my adidas shoes. To Elijah Young, I leave my gaming skills. Finally, to the faculty and people I have grown to appreciate, I leave a big hug!

I Zach Perry leave Arrow Roulette to all the boys on the football team. To all the Outfield Outlaws, I leave loud loud obnoxious games. To Emily, I leave all my athletic ability (which isn't much) but good luck sis, love you!

I Brian Pfeiffer leave my undying, Mac Miller - looking swag, to Martin Livingston as well as my ability to cat daddy when I dougie to DJ Sherrill. To Jazzdon Cole, I leave my love of UofL. To Devon Starnes, I leave my Pre-Cal. To Ellie Spraggs, I leave my love of LOVB.

I Carson Price leave to Kelsey Stevens all those long distance aerobic freestyle sets. To Oliver Fell, I leave my love for swimming and school.

I Elizabeth Purcell leave Katherine and Elizabeth Allen my passion for being a hard worker and being determined to be successful. I also leave you my almost daily leggings and sweatshirt so you'll be more than comfy the rest of your high school career. To Hadley Purcell, I leave you with no ride to school for a few years, and my knack of being late to school almost everyday. I also leave you with my love for Lone Oak and amazing friends in high school.

I Tanner Riley leave my athletic ability and super calculus skills and Camaro to Grant Lawson. To Darren Collier, I leave my Vans shoes.

I Caitlin Rudolph leave to Ms. Morris my profound love for Kurt Vonnegut and our laughs about her "So it goes" t-shirt. To Mrs. Carter, I leave my outstanding ability to ignore her in public and my disapproving stares at her inappropriate jokes. To the underclassmen, I leave lack of sleep, petty facebook drama, and all the crazy stuff you do on your 18th birthday.

I Erica Rust leave to Oliver Fell spitting in cups and rings of fire. To Samantha Isbell, I leave brownies and always paying with correct change. To Mrs. Warmack, I leave my tears, laughs, and everything in between. To Madeline Kauffman, I leave late night crisis and putting the phone down. To my tennis ladies, I leave before match prayers, playing 'handsies' and taking baths. To coach Poore, I leave Tums. To Amanda Schaefer, I leave brownies. Skipping class to everyone at LOHS who saw me roaming the halls without a hall pass, especially to you Mr. Byrd. A word of advice children, just smile and act like you own the place.

I Brandon Schrama leave to Rana Edem a piece of paper and my best wishes.

I Becca Seilheimer leave every token of love I have to give to my lovely Twinzey, Sydney Bebout. May you take them along with you every awkward adventure. To my beautiful other half, Lauren Panosh, I leave my undying love for both her, Eric Whitaker, and B's Baby. I hope your long journey to the car will still be entertaining without me there to hold your hand. To Mr. Simmons, I leave every mustache and poor craftsmanship project I make, along with our beautiful matching Christmas sweaters. To Amber Hannan, I leave my grey tie because we aim to please.

I Rodney Spillane wish luck upon the best dad a son can have, Mr. Elliott. Good luck at the new school.

I Anna Sohl would like to say to the art club members, "stay creative, dream big, and always call the lower art class students "art babies" but do not be mean to them." To my best friend Erica Asher, please try to get a solitary example at the new high school. I know change is tough especially when you are a senior. To Mrs. Stamper, I can't even put into words how much you have helped me grow, not only as an art student but as a mature adult. I intend to lead my life with you constructive criticism and caring words. To my fellow seniors, my salt steelers, old bus buddies, prayer group prayers, and the ones who are my best friends: As we travel far and near we always have our memories. Remember our times together good and bad. I love you all!! We finally made it! Long Live Lone Oak!

I Michael Thompson leave my charming good looks and great attitude to Kimmy. To all the underclassmen I wish you luck at the new high school. Also, I leave you intelligence so that you know your place in high school. To Anita Henson, I leave my kindness and friendship.

I Kaila Wiley leave Hannah Parker my inhaler for her asthma problems. To Ellie Spraggs, I leave my volleyball jersey. To Kaci Oetjen, I leave my straightener. To Tevin Banks, I leave my height. Finally, to Jasmine Bennett, I leave my car keys.

I Lydia Windhorst leave all future students encouragement and happiness. Life goes by too quickly, so enjoy every second of it! To my little brother, Noah, I leave the strive to do your best in the school.

I Steven Wooten leave the well-being of Cole's injured shoulder in the hands of Evan Sayner. To Ethan Flynn, Zack Keiler, DJ Sherill and basically everyone else on the team, I leave the endless supply of pre-practice sandwiches. Evan and Keiler also now get the job as the weight room leader, just try not to talk as much as I did.

I Curtis Buell leave my legacy to my beloved sister Hannah. Make me proud and I love you! To Grant Wallace, I leave percussion ensemble. You'll be the man next year, so play hard and lead well. To Mr. Ray, I leave great musical conversations, and wish you the best of luck in the next chapter of your life. Finally, I leave to the future junior class officers the immense responsibility of planning Prom. It's a big job, but you all can do it. Best wishes to all the underclassmen as you continue on to the new school and may the legacy of Lone Oak live on forever.

I Jessica Lawson leave Haylee Rhinehart all of the possible homecoming dates and smirks. To Alyssa McKinney, I leave my shy side and snow days. To Hannah Parker, I leave rosey cheeks, all of my volleyball kills, and cute baby pictures. To Jasmine Bennett, I leave our amazing handshake, fist pumps, and hugs. I am not sure you understand how much I will miss you! To Tessa Throgmorton, I leave every possible blond moment of mine, and I also leave you outside hitter, play it well. To Caroline Robertson, I leave all my really funny jokes and my pitch perfect moves. To Alex Smith, I leave all my boy problems and my freckles during summertime. To Aaron Hayden, I leave my bad ankles and all the teasing. To Anna Hughes, I leave my sensitive side and the tears, it's ok to be emotional. Finally, to Madeline Wooten, I leave you just about everything. Every sport we've played together, bathroom breaks, bus ride buddies, passing back row in volleyball, nicknames, mean boys, my singing, and my height. I love you!

I Alyssa Durbin, leave to Elizabeth Dodd, Show Choir. Show those Mustangs that Lone Oak Show Choir knows where it's at! To Mckenzie Reese, I leave Mainstage Performing Arts! You are a fantastically talented individual with an unparalleled ability to dance and a beautiful singing voice. To Olivia Swadley, I leave Living Water, good luck! Never forget that it's God who puts it all together! To Brad Walker I leave Megan Hughes... You're her favorite anyway. I also leave you a love of acting, the Little Mermaid, and Prom. I wish I could leave you confidence, you're a very talented human being, show it! You are one of the most genuine Christian people I have ever met. Never lose your love and passion for God. To my mother, I leave free time and taking care of the family! I will miss you so much. You are the best mother I could have asked to have. I'm so blessed that God gave me you. Last but not least, I leave to everyone else, absolute chaos as you start at this newfangled High School.

I Erika Edwards leave Ali Allbritten a few more benches, cheer competitions, JB, my crazy girl status playlist, a karaoke machine, a ripped pair of jeans, and a place to crash. To Julia and Vicky Clay, I leave a set of squats and some Glute Hams. Chaelim is left Mrs. Poore's baby pics and the ability to never stop talking about anyone. Hannah Croft is left the ability to make her mom laugh. I leave Taylor Pierce and Katie Overby a group message. To Beth, I leave JAWED and cursive handwriting, Monica Sokolik gets a 4:00 AM alarm and a pool date, and both of you receive a hot electric night with Pork Chop. Monica Muñoz, I leave you some relationship advice. To Payton Raney, I leave Chicks Dig my Fillet and a party picture. Chynna gets to hear me say "yesss" a few more times. To Amanda, Ansley, and Anita I leave a lot of balls and llamas. Chaney can have my dance skills, whatever is in the fridge at Lakewood, and some Gas-ex. Trent Porter can have the ability to keep our dads in line. Madie Goodale is left a few more mentions on twitter. Alex Smith is left a followback. To Jamie Green, I leave my sense of humor, social gatherings, and awkwardness. Finally, to Mr. Gagnon I leave an aide that can try to live up to me, a DIY man cave, YouTube videos, and "you rock and stuff."

Yours,
