John E. Robinson

January 14, 1906-August 27, 1976

Born and raised in Milburn, located in Carlisle County. Mr. Robinson also attended school there, graduating from high school in 1925. He attended Murray State Teachers College, playing baseball all four years. Even before he completed college, Robinson became a teacher at his home school of Milburn. He also coached basketball while there. His early teaching and coaching included time at Cunningham, Clinton and Bristol, TN.

Mr. Robinson became principal at Lone Oak in 1946. He never applied for the job and was unaware he had been hired until he was notified.

Mr. Robinson retired after 38 years in education, 21 of those years as principal at Lone Oak, 1946-1967.
